Mountain Reserve as an environmentally desirable destination for walkers, horse riders, botanists, birdwatchers and anyone interested in our beautiful asset. To progress our plans, we need funding, which comes from grant monies from various sources. For our applications to be successful, we need to show we have community support for our activities, hence our initiative to start a Friends group. I am delighted to say that we now have in excess of 100 names on the list. We thank all of you who stopped to visit us and added your name to the list. For your information, we successfully applied for an Adopt a Patch grant that will be used to help spray weeds and noxious plants on the Reserve. This featured on the cover of the Advertiser two weeks ago. Future activities include planting of the newly mulched car park entrance to the Reserve on Forest Plain Road in the last week of the current school semester, with the help of students from Allora State School. St Pat's School has also offered a helping hand for other activities on the Mountain. ALG elected a new President at their AGM two weeks ago. This is well known local farmer Hughie Huston. He brings a lifetime knowledge of the Allora district to the position and we look forward to his leadership as we continue what we feel is an exciting initiative to help keep Allora as the best little town on the Downs.

New group to assist review of Tourism Strategy

The Southern Downs Regional Council (SDRC) is seeking expressions of interest from key stakeholders within the tourism industry who wish to nominate for the SDRC Tourism Strategy Advisory Committee. This call for nominations is entirely separate for the call for nominations for the Southern Queensland Country Tourism Ltd Board.

"The new Tourism Strategy is an important document for all those involved in the region's tourism industry," said the Mayor, Cr Peter Blundell.

"We need people on this Advisory Committee who are prepared to review the Tourism Strategy document with a view to progressing the future of tourism in the Southern Downs Region," he added.

Expressions of interest are called for 2 Board Members from Warwick Tourism & Events, 2 Board Members from Granite Belt Wine Tourism Inc and 8 other nominees comprised of key stakeholders from within the Region.

The Tourism Strategy Advisory Committee will initially identify the components of the Tourism Strategy that should be recommended to Council for adoption (i.e. timeframes and priorities). The recommendations from the Advisory Committee are to be presented to Council within two months of the Committee's establishment.

Meetings of the Advisory Committee may be held during working hours as well as after hours, with participation on the group being entirely voluntary.

The aim of the Tourism Strategy consultation process was to establish longer term priorities for the tourism industry and identify how Council can maximize return on existing and ongoing investment in the industry.

"From the voices in this group, Council certainly hopes to gain a clearer understanding of where the tourism industry wants to head and what the priorities are for the future", concluded the Mayor.

To view the Tourism Strategy Background Report and the Tourism Strategy document please visit the home page of Councils website www.southerndowns.qld.gov.au. For further enquiries please contact Sue Organ on 4681 5523 or email sue.organ@southerndowns.qld.gov.au.

Applications close at 5pm on Tuesday 14 September 2012 and should be forwarded to Andrew Ireland, Acting Chief Executive Officer, Southern Downs Regional Council, PO Box 26, Warwick Qld 4370.

Pepperina Gallery Update -

Spring has sprung in Nobby. In September we have another exhibition of photography by the very active Clifton Photographers - "Images in Black and White".

The exhibition opening is on this Sunday, 9th September, at 2.00pm, with nibbles, drinks, music and a warm welcome for all.

Also at the gallery we still have some wonderful landscapes by Roger Parkinson and Bill Morton straight from their successful showing in Warwick.

Bill has kindly given us some Gicle'e prints from a limited edition run. They are printed on archival watercolour paper. Quite amazing and 'state of the art' reproductions of his "Patrick St Laidley".

We are also now composing a Pepperina Gallery "Facebook" page to connect our virtual identities to yours in the ethereal dimension. Hope it all works out.

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

A man woke one morning to find his wife completely catatonic, so he took her to the doctors.

After he had examined her the doctor said "Your wife's mind has completely gone!"

To which the man replied, "I'm not surprised. She's been giving a piece of it to me every day for the past 30 years."

Council warns on Magpie Season

Magpie nesting season is upon us and the Southern Downs Regional Council wishes to advise residents to take care in our parks and on the streets.

Magpies are only aggressive for about six weeks of the year, around August/September, when they have chicks in the nest. They fiercely defend their nests and territories by swooping any perceived threat.

"With the warmer weather and beautiful days at this time of year, people are starting to venture outside. Many people enjoy going for a walk and if they venture through magpie territory they may be considered a threat by the magpie," advised Council's Manager Parks and Major Projects, Michael Bell.

Taking simple precautions is the best way to avoid the dreaded swoop. Helpful tips on how to stay safe from swooping magpies can be found on the Department of Environment and Heritage Protection website at http://www.ehp.qld.gov.au/wildlife/livingwith/magpie_safe.html.

"If a particular bird is harassing you repeatedly, choose a different route for the next few weeks, wear a broad brimmed hat and if you are riding a bike, make sure you wear your helmet," Mr Bell added.

However, if a magpie that is defending its nest becomes aggressive and a risk to human safety, the magpie may be removed. Please report serious magpie threats to Council in Warwick on 4661 0300 or in Stanthorpe on 4681 5500.

Sudden Death

Mr. James Nolan, one of the best known residents of the Gladfield district died suddenly in the Warwick Hospital at the age of 69 years.

The late Mr. Nolan was born in Kilkenny, Ireland, and came to Australia in 1886 with his brother Nicholas and Patrick Phelan. After working on Glengallan Station for five years he took up land on the Allora Commonage when it was thrown open for sale. He built a house on the farm and resided there with his wife, the former Miss Honora Martell of Allora.

In 1908 he and his brother Nicholas purchased farms from the Wienholt Estate at Maryvale. Some years ago he purchased a farm at Gladfield and with considerable improvements, turned it into one of the most profitable in the district.

MARRIAGE

HOLMES - HOEY. On the 11th September at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Hadden, Milton I. K., younger son of Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes, Allora, to Thelma I., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hoey, Berat.

Obituary

Another gap in the ever-decreasing band of pioneers was created on Wednesday last with the death of Mrs. James Gwynne. Mrs. Gwynne was born on the Isle of Wight in 1828, so had attained the age of 84 years at the time of her death. Before coming to Australia she resided for some time in America where she married Mr. James Gwynne. Mr. and Mrs. Gwynne arrived in Sydney in 1857 and in the following year Mrs. Gwynne obtained a teaching position on the Blaxland Estate. Mr. and Mrs. Gwynne then moved to the Western Creek property in what was later to be the State of Queensland.

In 1861, on the invitation of the Rev. Benjamin Glennie, they moved to Allora, and remained here, doing their part in opening up a district that was then in a sparsely settled and primitive stage of development. Soon after coming to Allora Mrs. Gwynne opened the first school here in a bark and slab structure temporarily erected for her by the late Mr. Henry Black. Soon after, she moved into a building built by the local Church of England congregation, in which services were occasionally conducted by the Reverends Glennie and Matthews.

When the Post Office was gazetted in 1863, Mrs. Gwynne was appointed the first postmistress and held the position for over twenty years, only relinquishing her position when the duties of the postal and telegraphic offices were combined. Mrs. Gwynne was predeceased by her husband 38 years ago and leaves one daughter, Mrs. J. H. Buxton, one son, Mr. J. H. Gwynne, fifteen grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren.

SDRC Representative for Regional Tourism Board

The Southern Downs Regional Council (SDRC) is seeking expressions of interest from key stakeholders within the tourism industry who wish to nominate to be the Council Representative on the Southern Queensland Country Tourism Ltd Board.

"We are looking for someone with a passion for tourism, who is prepared to act as Council's representative on the Board" Mayor Peter Blundell said.

Expressions of interest are called for one key stakeholder from within the Region to nominate for this role.

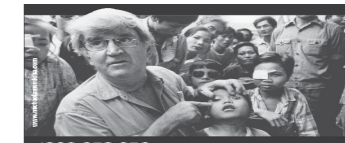

"Building a competitive destination and establishing the Southern Downs as a leading inland tourism region that will provide direction for the tourism industry in our corner of the world, is a priority representing Council on this Board," said the Mayor.

Cr Blundell said that it was desirable for the Board representative to be available for meetings during working hours as well as after hours, with participation on the group being entirely voluntary.

Full board meetings are held approximately every month in Toowoomba. Regional meetings may be scheduled and executive and finance committee meetings are held as required. "Representation on this group will contribute to regional tourism and play a pivotal role in attracting people to the wider region, especially the Southern Downs," concluded the Mayor.

To nominate as Council's representative on the Southern Qld Country Tourism Board please visit Council's website www.southerndowns.qld.gov.au. For further enquiries please contact Sue Organ on 4681 5523 or email sue.organ@southerndowns.qld.gov.au.

Applications close Tuesday 14 September 2012 at 5pm and should be forwarded to Andrew Ireland, Acting Chief Executive Officer, Southern Downs Regional Council, PO Box 26, Warwick Q 4370.

"We know that increasing soil organic carbon benefits soil health which leads to better water infiltration and retention and improved crop and pasture production. "Ultimately, this means more profitable farming which is very important to guarantee the industry stays viable," he said. Soil organic carbon can be improved in most situations whatever the soil type or climate by applying practices based on these rules of thumb. They cover eight areas including tillage, fertilisation, cropping intensity, crop pasture rotations, legumes, manures or composts, agro-forestry and natural eco-system. New rules of thumb keep farmers' fingers on the pulse

A new set of guidelines will help farmers in the Condamine catchment keep a finger on the pulse of sustainable agriculture. The Rules of Thumb are an initiative of the Condamine Alliance Sustainable Agricultural Program and based on a 2012 report by Gus Hamilton Consulting titled Changing agricultural practices and the impact on soil organic carbon. The eight rules of thumb were developed from scientific experiments, scientific knowledge and farmers' experiences. Condamine Alliance Sustainable Agriculture Manager Andrew McCartney said they would help farmers to improve the productivity and profitability of their agricultural land. "The rules of thumb are not meant as absolute rules but as a general guide to improving soil organic carbon," Mr McCartney said. "Soil organic carbon plays an important role in improving the condition and productivity of agricultural land," he said. "Agricultural production reduces soil organic carbon levels over time so it is important for farmers to know what they can do to improve these levels.

Prostate Cancer Support Group makes donation to Hospice

The Toowoomba Prostate Cancer Support Group (TPCSG) has donated three shower chairs to the Toowoomba Hospice to assist with the care of their clients.

Group Co-Ordinator, Mr David Abrahams said the support group wanted to make a donation to a community facility that would benefit the people they care for. "We were very keen to support the Hospice, and to donate this much needed equipment to their service", said Mr Abrahams. "We held our July meeting at the Hospice, giving the group an opportunity to tour the facility and to see how our donation could benefit their work".

"The support of our community is vital, particularly when equipment can be donated that directly contributes to the clinical area", commented

Director of Nursing, Mrs Alicia Trimmingham-Turl.

The Toowoomba Hospice, located in O'Quinn Street, is a private, six-bed health care facility which offers fee free palliative care services to individuals in our community who have a terminal illness.

"You Are Not Alone"! The TPCSG meets each month at the CCQ Toowoomba Office, 137 Herries St. (Cnr Neil and Herries) Appropriate guest speakers from the local area or Brisbane frequently attend meetings. Men affected by PCa and their partners are encouraged to attend. For further information about the TPCSG contact David Abrahams on 07 4613 6974.

Prostate Cancer Support Group Co-Ordinator David Abrahams, Hospice Clinical Nurse Bernie Upton and Group Member Geoff Butfield at the presentation.
