Communications & Veteran Cars Highlighted at 'Display & Demonstration Day'

We are all hearing about the second Allora Historical Society 'Display & Demonstration Day' coming up on April 20th, and what a rural historical festivity it will be. Well it happened before but not on quite the same scale. In November 2001 the old Allora Shire Chambers, the central point of the upcoming display & demonstration day, saw a crowd including Stuart Copeland MLA of the time & Warwick Shire Councillor Sue Cowley, fill the century old building for the opening of the display 'Allora Calling, Go Ahead Please'. Member for Cunningham Mr Copeland officially opened the display, which covered all facets of local communication methods, including horse, rail, road, telephone and print along with other methods used locally down through the years. The

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

"Doc," said the cannibal to the witch doctor, "I have terrible heartburn."
"What have you been eating?" asked the witch doctor.
"A lot of missionaries with hooded robes and bald heads," said the cannibal.
"How do you cook them?" inquired the witch doctor.
"I boil them in a big iron pot," said the head hunter.
"You idiot!" screamed the witch doctor. "Those aren't boilers - they're friars!"

great array of communication equipment and research on display is still there to be seen today. The display was made possible by an $80,000 Federation Grant shared among eight small Southern Queensland museums. Historical Society President at the time Mrs. Olive Shooter hailed the day as a great success.

An added attraction and particular highlight of the upcoming second Historical Society 'Display & Demonstration Day' will be the attendance of at least twenty motor cars manufactured before the First World War ended in 1918. The treasured vehicles and their owners will be taking part in the Veteran Car Club of Australia's Allora Veteran Car Rally hosted by the clubs Queensland branch and organised by club members and Allora residents Doug & Elizabeth Partington. The oldest cars date from pre 1905 and will make an impressive addition to the Allora Historical Society's 'Display & Demonstration Day'. The cars and their owners will be in Allora for four days and will visit many local attractions travelling very slowly on the regions many interesting back roads and byways. A full Rally program will be released in the near future, but locals and visitors alike are urged to see the display of cars with their crews in period costume at the 'Display & Demonstration Day' at Allora's historic old Shire Chambers. Among the line-up of veteran cars there will be interstate entries and models from all corners of the globe.

To refresh everyone's memories, along with the Veteran Car Club of Australia's Rally, the coming Allora Historical Society 'Display & Demonstration Day' will feature restored working demonstrations of the dairy industry, farming equipment, country music, spinners & weavers, an animal nursery & fashion parade, all set in an atmosphere of yesteryear and period dress. Those attending can enjoy a liberal splash of Aussie tradition in billy tea and a slab of bush damper and syrup to gnaw on while catching up with a yarn about old times. A host of stalls will catch the eye with an array including magazines, music, clothing, plants, dolls, giftware, woodwork, homemade cooking and much more, such as Olive Shooter's butter making display. Along with all there is to experience as Allora steps back in time, be sure to take in the 'Allora Calling, Go Ahead Please' display.

If you wish to know more about the Display & Demonstration Day contact President Allan Darr on 4666 3159.

Students Embark on Western Front Tour

The 'Western Front' battlefields of World War I, France, beckon the Pipes and Drums and the choir of the SCOTS PGC College Warwick as they prepare for a journey of a lifetime.

The students, along with the Symphonic Band of Faith Lutheran College, Redlands, and the Sydney Male Choir, will travel to France in April to provide musical support for the Anzac Day commemorative services, including the Dawn Service at the Australian National Memorial, Villers-Bretonneux.

The Anzac Day ceremonies are one element of a musical tour arranged by Angas Travel for bands and choirs. Other elements include concerts and other performances in the Somme area, Flanders and in Paris.

Members of The SCOTS PGC College Choir and Pipes and Drums are busily trying to fit rehearsals into their already hectic schedule.

Choir Instructor, Mrs Wendy Whittaker said if the rehearsal is anything to go by, the actual Anzac commemoration will be truly impressive. "We travelled to Faith Lutheran College in February to meet the other groups performing at the Anzac Day Dawn Service and participated in the only Australian based rehearsal," Mrs Whittaker said.

"There will be 38 singers in a party of around 70 travellers from the Sydney Male Choir, with ages ranging from thirty to over eighty. Age is no barrier when the four-part choir starts singing joined by 20 choristers from SCOTS PGC, along with 30 members of the Faith Lutheran College Concert Band as well as SCOTS PGC pipers and drummers to create a sensational sound which impressed all who witnessed the event," she said.

"The groups will perform hymns as well as the Australian and French national anthems at the Dawn Service, as well as giving further performances at locations around France and Belgium, including the Arc de Triomphe, Eglise de la Madeleine and Menin Gate," Mrs Whittaker said.

Secretary of the Sydney Male Choir, Mr Tom Coghlan, said going to Brisbane to rehearse with the young musicians from Faith Lutheran College, and the pipers and singers of SCOTS College, Warwick was a great experience. "We look forward to being with them in a number of events in France in April. Age will be no barrier when we make music," he said.

The Hon Bruce Scott (MP), Member for Maranoa, visited SCOTS and heard the students perform before addressing those embarking on the tour. Mr Scott spoke about the enormity of the sacrifice made by Australian service men and women in the battlefields of France and the honour that has been given to the College students to represent their state and their nation at the commemorations. "It was a great honour to have students from my electorate play a part in these historic services," Mr Scott said. "The students will be great ambassadors for young people and Australians and their journey will be a life-changing experience."

Year 11 student, Amelia Cowley is a member of the choir. "It will be an amazing experience in that we will be faced with the full aftermath of the war".

"When we see the rows of headstones I think this will be a defining moment in my life," Amelia said.

To assist with the tour, Warwick RSL sub-branch facilitated a grant of $9427.20 towards expenses. Sub-branch secretary Gordon Neilson said it was a trip that would stay with the students forever and a tremendous life experience.

The official Anzac Day Dawn Service in France starts at 5.30am sharp, Thursday, 25 April 2013 and can be seen by live broadcast to Australia on the ABC at 1.30pm AEST.

Allora Campdraft Massive Success

The Allora & District Annual Campdraft was a major success over the Easter weekend despite rain that shortened the competition on Sunday, with finals not able to be run in the Open and Novice drafts. "Placings for these events were decided from first round results" explained Allora & District Campdraft Association Secretary Shelly Barnett. It was a massive weekend for organizers, attracting 830 nominations.

"We are so very grateful to all the cattle donors for their wonderful support" acknowledged Shelly, "without their support the event can't happen". "We also acknowledge the tremendous support extended by the Allora Show Society and their dedicated volunteers over the weekend" said Shelly, who needed a breather after the monster event, her first in the demanding role as ADCA Secretary.

All the action kicked-off from 4.00 pm on Good Friday with the new restricted open draft. The event was restricted to horses that are open campdraft status, spectators enjoying

Looking Back...

PADDY PERKINS

The aborigine known to the European settlers as Paddy Perkins was not from Allora but was well known in the district, indeed all over the Downs. We will never know his real name, but Paddy Perkins was appropriate because of his liking of the product produced by the company owned by a man of the same name. Early newspapers contain several reports of Paddy's being before the courts for over indulgence. In this regard he would have been no different than many of the men he worked with in the shearing sheds.

There appears to have two aborigines who went under the name "Paddy Perkins" and some exploits have been attributed to both men. Spencer Briggs, who would have known Paddy, said that he used to shear regularly in the Goomburra shed and could put up a decent tally. George Anderson, who spent his working life at Deacon & Co. and died in 1978 at the age of 90, could remember as a boy seeing Paddy shearing at Goomburra.

In his younger days Paddy had been a member of the native police and was reputed to have been an excellent tracker. He was apparently the first tracker called following the "Gatton Murders" in 1898, but because the public had been allowed to walk over the site Paddy found it impossible to track the murderer. In the same year one of the tasks that he was given was to escort thirteen aborigines by train from Warwick to Brisbane where they were placed under the control of the Protector of Aborigines. These people apparently represented the last of the original inhabitants of the Warwick district.

Spencer Briggs says that there was certainly a bit of the Irishman about Paddy, besides his first name. He said that if he had not exactly kissed the blarney stone, he had done the next best thing. Paddy and his wife Emma had a daughter who they named Amelia Grace. When the time came for her to be baptised they took her along to the Catholic priest. After the ceremony he slipped two half-crowns into Paddy's hand for her. No sooner had the parents gotten into the street when Paddy decided to take the child to the Church of England minister. Upon leaving, the Reverend gentleman handed Paddy two florins for the baby. Paddy knew that he was on to a good thing so they took the child to see the Presbyterian minister. Following yet another baptism he handed Paddy half a crown. Naming another clergyman, Paddy and his wife called on him. After the ceremony Paddy waited for him to put his hand in his pocket but alas! After being congratulated on having the baby baptised and been given advice on her welfare, they left empty handed. Paddy remarked to Emma that he was a mean b.....

In 1891 Paddy got into a dispute with a man at the Hendon railway station. The fight ended when Paddy hit his opponent over the head with a hardwood batten. Not realizing the seriousness of his condition, bystanders sent for medical help. Dr. Pain not being available, the man was attended to by Mr. Player the chemist. In the meanwhile the train to Toowoomba had arrived at Hendon and Paddy had availed himself of the circumstances and had left the scene. Upon being examined by Dr. Pain the next day the man was immediately despatched to the Warwick hospital.

Spencer Briggs said that the last time that Paddy was seen in the Allora district, he and his wife and daughter were trudging through the mud to Hendon. He was lightening the situation by singing "Wait for the Wagon". Paddy Perkins died at Hodgson Creek near Toowoomba in 1919.

National Youth Week 2013 – Be Active, Be Happy, Be You

Southern Downs Regional Council, SDIEA (Southern Downs Industry Education Association), and headspace Southern Downs have partnered once again to bring the youth of the Southern Downs some fantastic events and activities for National Youth Week 2013.

National Youth Week 2013 is promoting 'Be Active, Be Happy, Be You' with a variety of events and activities planned right across Australia.

"There will be some great activities for our young people to get involved in across the Southern Downs for Youth Week," said Hailey Cosh, Youth Development Officer

"We look forward to seeing them celebrate Youth Week by getting out there and having fun!" she said.

Youth Week on the Southern Downs will kick off this Friday 5th April at the Warwick Twin Cinema, with $5 discounted Movie tickets for young people aged 13-25. Young people have the option to see either Jack The Giant Slayer or Escape from Planet Earth.

On Saturday 6th April in the Stanthorpe Piazza and Saturday 13th April outside the Warwick Town Hall, from 9am-12pm, Youth Concerts will take place featuring local young artists from the Southern Downs Avenue Program run by Soular Music Services and Southern Downs Regional Council.

The headline event for the week will be the Southern Downs Great Race which will take place in Warwick on Monday 8th April in local parks and in participating businesses across the CBD. Young people are encouraged to get a team of 5 young people together, aged 12-25, and a leader over the age of 18, to take part in this exciting, inaugural event. Activities range from physical activity, to games, to testing your knowledge. Team registration forms are available from SDIEA (at Warwick State High School), headspace Southern Downs (Albion St Warwick), Warwick Town Hall Youth Worker Office, and CDS Stanthorpe. All registration forms must be received no later than 5pm Friday 5th April.

Art and DJ Workshops will be held on Tuesday 9th April in Stanthorpe at Artworks on Davadi and on Thursday 11th April in Leslie Park, Warwick at the Rotunda. Ex Sydney DJ Nic Dromgold, aka DJ Modify, will run an introductory DJ workshop for young people aged 12-25 yrs, and local artists, Rhonda Kraak and Tully Devries, will run the Art Workshops. Young People are encouraged to register for these workshops due to limited numbers. Please contact Hailey Cosh, Youth Development Officer on 4661 7166 for further details. However everyone is more than welcome to just come down and listen or watch.

On Wednesday 10 April Travis Maguire, SDIEA Youth Connections Officer, will be taking a group of young people to Inglewood for a Skate Workshop run by PCYC Goondiwindi, featuring Skate Boarding Company Drawing Boards. Due to there being limited seats available, you must register to attend this event. To register please contact Travis on 0457 843 449 or 4666 9218.

Voyage Fitness will offer discounted Gym entry for young people aged 12-25yrs for the whole day on Friday 12th April. For just $5 young people will get access to the Gym and any classes run on that day.

On Friday 12th April a Youth Concert will take place at the Cherry Tree Cafe in Warwick. The line up is still to be confirmed, but, if you are aged between 12-25yrs, bring your musical instrument or singing voice and sign up on the night. Or you can just come down to hear our local youth showcase their musical talents and enjoy a great meal.

Thank you to our partners and supporters, Cherry Tree Cafe, Avenue Southern Downs, Soular Music Services, Medicare Local – Darling Downs South West Region, Voyage Fitness, Warwick Twin Cinema, Warwick Red Cross Shop, Warwick Boxing Club, Art Works of Davadi, Nic Dromgold, Rhonda Kraak, Tully Devries, Community Development Services Inc. and QPS. We would also like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank Toowoomba Youth Service for allowing us to use their Great Race model and assistance in doing so.

Please contact SDRC Youth Development Officer Hailey Cosh on 0428 730 688, SDIEA Youth Connections Officer Travis Maguire 0457 843 449, Or Krysten Henning from headspace Southern Downs 4661 1999 for more information.

"Wattles Regroup for Stoush with Eagles"

Wattles Warriors first grade Coach Luke Duggan has been at the drawing board for the past fortnight after his side were beaten 24 - 6 by a bulked up and well balanced Gatton 'Hawks' line-up on Gatton home turf at Cahill Park. Wattles had a number of key players unavailable against the 'Hawks', but Duggan has almost a full deck of cards this week preparing to take on the Highfields 'Eagles'. With team selection in such an important game a challenge, the Coach is still "unsure though on the final seventeen, this has been a tough week selection wise and trying to find the right mix for the team".

Alas while it appeared a possibility exciting fullback Jackson Green could make a return from the injury, he remains unavailable for at least another week while first grade skipper Glen McMillan continues to struggle with a knee problem and has not been named in this week's squad. McMillan is a vital cog in the Wattles' engine room, leading his charges by example. Hard running utility player Matt McCarthy is another on the injury list, his aggression in the middle and ability to break the line will be missed. Injured player unavailability is offset somewhat though given Wattles impressive player depth. Toowoomba Clydesdales representative front-rower Kim Phoenix will be available from Round 5 on April 14th, when the Warriors take on Dalby in their initial home game of the 2013 season. Another bonus for Wattles is the arrival of former Southern Suburbs outside back & Toowoomba representative Nick Schnitzerling who will debut in the Wattles green & gold against Highfields.

Highfields are the unknown quantity of the 2013 Hutchinson Builders Toowoomba Rugby League first grade premiership, re-entering the competition after spending 2012 in the Border League. Wattles last took on the 'Eagles' in A Grade on May 15th in the 2011 season, winning comfortably by 60 - 10 with current 'Warriors' Luke Baker & Matt McCarthy crossing for three tries apiece. The 2011 TRL season was the Highfields clubs first with an A Grade team competing, but ended on a low note with the club forfeiting games, leading to their being dropped from the TRL competition for the 2012 season. The situation in 2013 is vastly different, the club's re-emergence has come with a spirited recruitment campaign under coach and former Queensland Rangers representative Eugene Seddon. Wattles have recently released classy five eighth Jeffrey Nielsen to Highfields after lengthy negotiations, and gained handy utility player Brod Koina who has moved from the 'Eagles' to join his brothers Joel & Mitch at Platz Oval.

The Highfields form guide indicates Wattles will have to be on 'full alert' if they are to post their second victory of the year from what will be four rounds. The Eagles missed the premiership points in their initial outing of the season when they finished well behind Pittsworth 54 - 10, but returned volley in Round 2 to pip Oakey at the post 33 - 28. Their most recent outing saw them hold early premiership favourites Southern Suburbs to a 24 all draw. Wattles form to date has seen them succumb to Southern Suburbs 31 - 18, before walloping Warwick 66 - 0 prior to their last start loss to Gatton.

Wattles line-up for the Highfields clash will see the return of halves pairing the Duggan brothers, Matt & Ryan. Nineteen year old Allora based half Josh Henry has been retained on the Wattles bench after an impressive first grade debut in the team's last outing against the might of Gatton. Winger Robbie Moore makes his fixture debut for the 'Warriors' on Saturday, the classy flanker a late start to the season due to him having to serve the remainder of a suspension from 2011 given he didn't play rugby league in the 2012 season. The former Toowoomba Brothers and Valleys top grader adds considerably to the 'Warriors' backline firepower. "Robbie Moore brings a tonne of experience, he is a good leader, great talker and has plenty of pace" according to Coach Duggan.

The National Farmers Warehouse Wattles line up to play Highfields: 1. Joel Koina, 2. Tim Hentschel, 3. Luke Baker, 4. Brendan Wilson, 5. Robbie Moore, 6. Ryan Duggan, 7. Matt Duggan, 8. Mitch Hannant, 9. Liam Ross, 10. Pat Manley, 11. Dan Manley, 12. Mitch Koina, 13. Aaron Schied, 14. Michael Duggan, 15. Xavier Manley, 16. Josh Henry, 17. TBA. Due to the unavailability of Highfields 'Eagles' home ground Kratzke Oval due to water issues, this Saturday's Round 4 games between the 'Eagles' and the 'Warriors' will be played at Toowoomba Rugby Union headquarters Gold Park. Kick-off times are 1.30 pm (Under 18), 4.30 pm (Reserve Grade) and 6.00 pm (A Grade), while the Toowoomba Clydesdales Under 20 side play at 2.45 pm.
