Allora Community Looks to Improve Local Emergency Response

A group of Allora citizens gathered on Tuesday evening at the Allora RSL Hall to take a step in planning an improved response to future emergencies that may affect the local area.

The Community Recovery Forum, coordinated by Southern Downs Regional Council Community Development Officer Pam Burley allowed local community members to draw on their own experiences in recent serious flooding situations and have their say so as to formulate a future emergency response.

Southern Downs Regional Council Volunteer Coordinator Bette Bonney was also on hand to speak at the forum, Bette having been contracted as a facilitator to deliver volunteer emergency response training to communities across the Southern Downs community. SDRC Youth Development Officer Hailey Cosh was also part of the presentation team, and Lynn Stuart spoke on SDRC funded Grief, Loss & Trauma and Mental Health First Aid Workshops she was conducting in the region.

The Allora district suffered from flooding in 2010, 2011 & early this year, causing significant damage throughout the local area. The Community Recovery Forums have been conducted by the Southern Downs Regional Council courtesy of Government funding in towns throughout the region, in an effort to educate people about risk and response in each of the areas, with a view to improving response.

The question was asked of the Allora district community, "Do you have any ideas about how we can prepare as an individual, a neighbourhood or community to reduce the property damage and psychological harm caused through experiencing a disaster in our community?" While numbers attending the Allora forum weren't as high as hoped, those who were able to be there offered valuable information as to how Allora could be better served in a future emergency event.

Allora Show Society President Shirley Cornhill & committee member Ted Cowley recalled the flooding effects on the Show Society's infrastructure, but also the overwhelming community response to repairing the damage. Christine Gleeson shared how her family hosted many travellers trapped by flooding and related issues, while Merv Wilson outlined his situation during and since the floods, evidence of ongoing flood created issues. Allora RSL President Jim Corby highlighted the Allora community's ability to 'rise to the occasion' in emergency and challenging circumstances, the town's response evidence of that during the flooding episodes of recent years. Matters also discussed included how the flood situations affected the district, areas most at risk, catering for community needs in a flood event, the immediate response to any event and evacuation considerations including temporary accommodation. Allora was asked to consider questions, such as what are the burning issues for you since this flood event? How can the Allora district improve what we do in response to an emergency event? & who needs to be involved in making things happen to achieve a response? Information provided by the Forum attendees addressed those questions and have contributed to a framework that will see a suitable initial emergency response plan developed for Allora and it's district.

A response plan, especially for the early stages of an emergency situation, is vital for a small community that becomes isolated and has no organisation such as a State Emergency Service

CALLING ALLORA'S MOST INSPIRING LOCALS

Sensis is on the hunt for the most inspirational people in Allora to feature on the cover of next year's Yellow Pages® and White Pages® book.

The 2014/2015 Cover's Program theme, Inspiring Others to Achieve, honours the mentors, role models, coaches and teachers who go above and beyond to help others achieve their best.

Sensis is searching for locals in Allora, Crows Nest, Goondiwindi, Stanthorpe, Toowoomba, Warwick and surrounding towns who selflessly give their time to motivate others in their community and help them reach their full potential.

White Pages® Product Manager Sarah Simpson said unsung heroes who inspire others to be the best they can be are examples of the sort of people who could be nominated.

"Sensis wants locals to nominate people in their community who dedicate their lives to helping other people achieve their goals. They might be fantastic teachers, dedicated sports coaches, inspiring disability advocates, or people who break down barriers," Ms Simpson said.

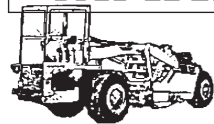

"They're probably very humble people, but they deserve recognition for their efforts in creating an environment that encourages and rewards hard work and determination, and promotes the pursuit of excellence.

"Their selfless efforts are the reason behind the success of others – no matter how big or small that success might be." People can nominate their local hero via the following channels:

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

A man fell over a cliff and broke both arms.

His rescuer dangled a rope down and told him to catch hold of it in his teeth while he hauled him up. Inch by inch the man was pulled up the cliff, until he was only six feet from the top.

'Are you okay?' shouted the rescuer.

'Yeeeeeee- heeeellllllppppp!' came the reply.

WHITE BALLOON DAY LAUNCHES IN ALLORA TO HELP AUSSIE KIDS

Australians are preparing to play their part in raising awareness and funds for children in need as the countdown begins for Bravehearts annual White Balloon Day on September 6. Hundreds of schools, councils and organisations around Australia are gearing up for the initiative, starting this week in Allora. Residents are encouraged to show their support and join the rest of the country in raising awareness and helping Bravehearts to make Australia the safest place in the world to raise a child by participating in local White Balloon Day events, or registering themselves as volunteers.

Bravehearts is calling for volunteers, fundraising dynamos and event hosts with the most. Simply log on to the Bravehearts White Balloon Day website (<http://www.whiteballoonday.com.au/>) and get involved in this amazing cause. Bravehearts is calling on everyone around the country to wear white on the day to show their support for victims of child sexual assault and to generate awareness about this issue as it seeks to educate, empower and protect the most vulnerable members of the community - our kids. The Australia-wide event is a key fixture during National Child Protection Week. With funds raised going toward education, prevention and counselling programs. Government research shows 1 in 5 Australian children will be sexually assaulted before their 18th birthday - or 59,000 annually. Equally as alarming is the fact that in 85 per cent of cases, the offender is known to the child and is a relative or a trusted friend. Bravehearts founder and executive director Hetty Johnston said White Balloon Day is a symbol of hope for survivors of this devastating crime. "White Balloon Day is about encouraging kids to come forward and break the silence, while we raise the necessary funds to ensure vital support networks and programs can continue," said Ms Johnston. "Silence, secrecy and shame are the sex offender's best friends and the child's worst enemies." We are asking the community to help us raise money to make Australia the safest place in the world to raise a child. It's about educating, empowering and protecting our children and their futures.

Hetty Johnston with Ditto.

She said unless victims come forward, many other children remain targets for paedophiles. "The truth is that it is only the victims who know who the offenders are. Paedophiles never offend only against one child, or just once. We are relying on victims to tell us who the offenders are so we can protect today's children from the same fate," said Ms Johnston. "We are winning the battle one child at a time, but there's still a long way to go. "Supporting White Balloon Day can be as simple as tying a white balloon to your letterbox or as grand as hosting a fundraising function."

No argument that Allora State School's debating teams are stronger than ever this year

Allora State School's debating teams have gone from strength to strength over the past few years with both teams this year winning 3 out of 4 debates to earn a finals berth in the Queensland Debating Union, Toowoomba Region, 2013 Competition.

Our Year 9 Allora team, Ella Harrison, Sally Higgins, Henry Gartery and Arien Westerman were one of 26 teams in the Toowoomba debating competition this year and will argue it out against 12 other teams for a place in the Grand Final. During the season, this talented Allora team won their first debate against St Ursula's College with the negative side of topic - 'That we should introduce a tax on junk food'. They also won their 'secret' topic debate 'that we should force students to learn an indigenous language' against Harristown State High School as well as their Round 4 debate against Toowoomba Grammar School arguing that 'we should ban factory farming'. In the Year 10 competition, 18 teams from across the Darling

Looking Back...

Tattersalls Hotel

Shirley Woodrow was disappointed that Tattersalls Hotel, which stood on the site of her former residence on the corner of Drayton and Forde Streets, did not feature on the Heritage Trail. I have mentioned two of Allora's former hotels in this column in the last few weeks so I thought that that I would mention the third of Allora's six hotels that operated between 1902 and 1916.

Tattersalls Hotel was built for Patrick Kelley in the early 1890's on the site of William Deacon's old general store. It had several licensees over the years and the hall adjoining the hotel took its name from that of the licensee at the time. When Tattersalls Hotel burned down in 1917 it was owned by the O'Callaghan family. After the fire, O'Callaghan's Hall as it was then known was moved to the Catholic Church grounds to become St. Patrick's Hall and provide accommodation for St. Joseph's Convent School.

Minister's Death

The funeral of the late Rev. Joseph Elliot took place in Ipswich yesterday. The Tattersall's Hotel (on left) 1908 - burnt down in 1916.

Rev. Elliot came to Queensland in 1909 and was ordained the following year. He spent several years as vicar of All Saint's Church of England in Clifton and at the time, St. David's Parish in Allora came under his charge.

Orange Celebrations

The 12th July celebrations of the Allora branch of the Loyal Orange Lodge were continued at Allora on Sunday. The weather was perfect and no less than five cab loads of Warwick and Killarney visitors were present and took part in the procession. After the church service the visitors were entertained at a luncheon in the Protestant Hall by members of the lodge.

Boxing Tournament

The Allora amateur boxing tournament arranged by the military sports club in aid of funds to provide a gymnasium for the cadets, was concluded on Sunday night. Messrs. Tom Muir and E. M. Bell were the judges and Mr. Tom Collins acted as referee.

In the lightweight final S. Wightman (Allora) met J. Fitzgerald (Warwick). After four rounds of terrific fighting the decision went to Wightman amidst long cheering, while Fitzgerald was loudly hooted. Wightman fouled Fitzgerald all through the fight, and once, Wightman's second picked him up after a fall. The fight should have been awarded to Fitzgerald as the second had no right to be in the ring. A return match in Warwick would prove a good drawcard.

Downs have been battling it out to get into the quarter-finals. Our Year 10 team, Darcey Liesegang, Erin Weier, Dakota Turnbull and Jack Bannister are now preparing their case against Fairholme College in the first debate for the 8 teams that have made it through to the quarter-finals. During the round robin competition, the Year 10 team had convincing wins against Downlands College, Toogoolawah State High School and Assumption College.

If you would like to come and watch these teams in action, the first quarter-final debate will be held on 31 July at St Josephs in Toowoomba. The Year 10s will debate the topic 'that we should reduce prison sentences in exchange for completion of education qualifications' with Fairholme College and the Year 9 team will argue 'that the school curriculum should not include compulsory education on outback Australia' against Warwick State High School. Good luck to both teams.

Support for flood-affected landholders

Local landholders impacted by the flooding earlier this year will have access to specialist support and advice on recovery at a series of AgForce Industry Recovery Information Sessions being held across the Southern Downs and Scenic Rim regions next week.

AgForce Industry Recovery Officer, Ted Parish, said the aim of the sessions was to help flood affected producers bring their businesses and properties back on track after what was one of the worst flood events experienced in Queensland earlier this year.

"We want to help landholders access the full range of government and other assistance available to them and help to identify individual needs, including financial counselling, restructuring, risk planning or personal wellbeing," Mr Parish said.

"These sessions will give producers access to a range of assistance and are an important step in helping them to identify the needs they have in the recovery process.

"In many cases there is significantly more assistance and support available than people realise and for this reason I would urge as many affected landholders and families to attend as possible."

Events will be held at:

Clifton – Wednesday 17 July, 10am-12pm

Leyburn – Wednesday 17 July, 3-5pm

Aratula – Thursday 18 July, 10am-12pm

Tamrookum – Thursday 18 July, 3-5pm

Landholders will have the opportunity to speak with Mr Parish and representatives of the Rural Financial Counselling Service, QRAA, Queensland Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry, the Condamine Alliance, Queensland Murray-Darling Committee and SEQ Catchments.

Lunch/dinner provided. Registrations essential visit www.agforceprojects.org.au or call 3238 6048.

JUMPERS & JAZZ IN JULY 18 - 28 July 2013

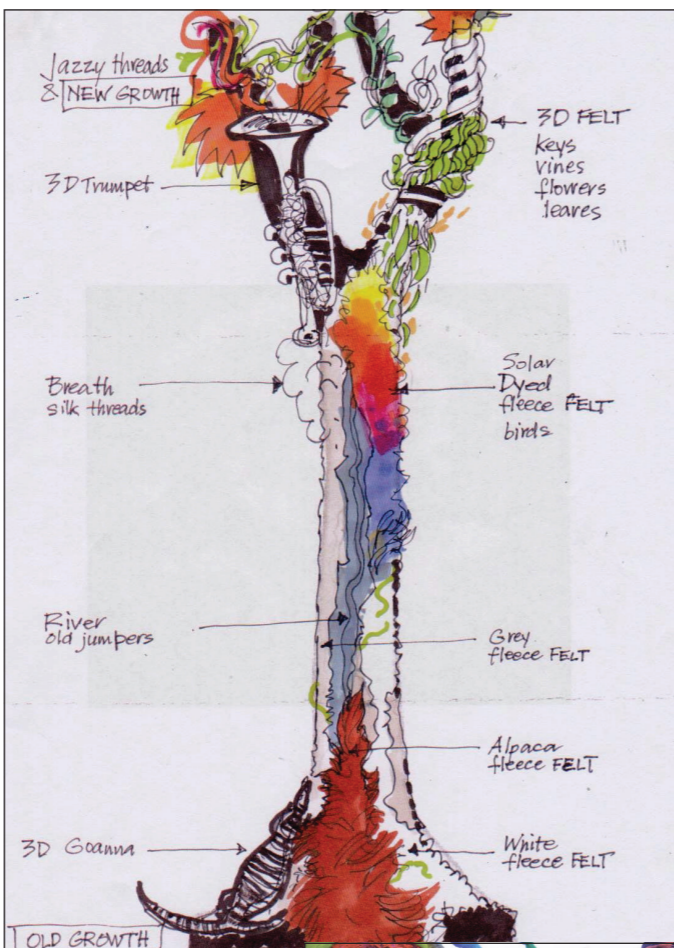

Warwick Art Gallery has announced the ten artists – including award winning visual and textile artists - participating in a special exhibition paying tribute to the festival's 10th anniversary. While the festival is best known for its "Tree Jumper" exhibition which sees more than 110 of Warwick's CBD trees adorned in colourful knitting, crochet, and other textile art, the 10 Years, 10 Trees, 10 Artists exhibition is unique because it was by invitation only.

Selected artists, who had a special bond with the festival, were invited to create an artwork using a black, plywood promotional tree. The artists were invited to work their creative magic on the tree using whatever media they liked.

The "10 Years, 10 Trees, 10 Artists" exhibition, to be showcased in Warwick's historic Town Hall during the festival, will see each artist transform a suite of identical black trees. During the selection process artists were encouraged to be innovative with the structures and thinking "outside the square" was encouraged.

Café scene hums sweetly during Jumpers & Jazz

Warwick's café scene really hums a sweet tune during Jumpers & Jazz in July. From open mic nights, long breakfasts, masquerade dinners, creole banquets to jazz by the fire pit with a wood-fired pizza, café owners and their staff are going all out to ensure a plethora of incredible wintery food and entertainment is available across the 10 days of the festival.

Festival Organiser Tracy Vellacott will no doubt need a few coffees to keep the engine running over a busy 10 days and is looking forward to seeing cafes overrun with rugged-up diners spilling into alfresco dining spaces.

"We all need a place we can drop into for a great coffee, a chat, a smile of recognition, and this sector is flourishing in Warwick with a number of new operators on board this year's festival," she said.

"Festival favourites Bryson's Place, the Belle Vue, Just Because, Lorraine's BLC and Gardens Galore, have been joined by The Cherry Tree, Joie de Vivre, The Coffee Club and

3 Li'l Pigs Café in offering diversity of food and entertainment options to the 2013 program."

Scott Moreton, owner of The Cherry Tree, is excited to be on board for his first Jumpers & Jazz Festival, offering Friday night jazz events with bands 'The Dinkum Bohos' and 'Papa Funk', along with open mic nights for jazz enthusiasts.

"We're looking forward to giving patrons first class entertainment throughout the festival as well as amazing coffee and food," he said.

Joie de Vivre café in King Street has its own point of difference over the festival with owner/operator Deeny Kohler-Caporale starring in her jazz evenings. Deeny and fellow vocalist Terri Welles will team up with the Aperiif Jazz Ensemble for dinner and jazz on both Saturday nights.

With a very full program of dining and jazz offered on the weekends, owner of Just Because, Sue Pulley has opted to run a mid-week event with dinner and a fashion parade of wearable art from local artists Wendy Woodford, Sue Whitton and Robyn Esdaile.

"Our Winter Warmers & Wearables dinner and fashion parade will build on the immense interest in wearable art, which we know is high among textile artists and it offers a relaxed mid-week reprieve from the busy weekends," Sue said.

Warwick Art Gallery Director and Festival Co-organiser Karina Devine is delighted that café owners are also embracing the opportunity to create fabulous pop-up exhibition spaces throughout the festival.

As well as enjoying hearty food and warming beverages, patrons can explore "Sixty years of needle and thread" by Barbara Bokenham at Lorraine's BLC, "Ultimate Re-purposed Art" by Helen Newton at Café Jacqui's, and "Body and Soul" at Joie de Vivre.

Bookings at the many events being hosted by café owners are moving swiftly so patrons are encouraged to plan ahead and book early.

Koina Shines in Wattles Win

Wattles outstanding second-rower Mitch Koina scored three tries his side's dominant 50 - 14 victory over the Dalby Diehards at Dalby on Saturday evening. The "National Farmer's Warehouse" Warriors needed to maintain their focus on advancing to clear second place on the Toowoomba Rugby League premiership ladder. A loss to the Highfields Eagles last weekend, after four previous successive TRL wins, proved a tripping point for those in green & gold, but they returned to the winners circle in fine style against the Diehards after leading 24 - 10 at halftime. Wattles coach Luke Duggan was all smiles after his side bounced back into the winners dais, "the team turned up with enthusiasm and desire to right the wrongs from the Highfields experience, we didn't have a bad player with strong performances across the board". Under 18 back Brodie Sharman impressed in his first grade debut, "and proved he has what it takes to play there" according to Coach Duggan. Dalby posted first points through a try in the second minute by seasoned back Brenton McMillan, but halfback Matt Duggan crossed to put Wattles on the scoreboard five minutes later, his side refusing to relinquish the lead until fulltime. Of Wattles four first half touchdowns, Man of the Match Mitch Koina scored three, and while the home side Diehards rolled in a four-pointer just after half time, it was another Koina, this time classy centre Joel who caught a Dalby kick and raced the length of the field to score under the posts & add to Wattles lead, 30 - 14. Wattles lifted a gear with Jackson Green, Michael Duggan and Brenden Wilson (2) crossing for touchdowns in a twenty minute spell. Green's try had it's beginnings when Matt Duggan made a great run, broke through the second line of defence and offloaded to flying fullback to score. Along with Mitch Koina, Matt Duggan and utility forward Xavier Manley were also among Wattles best. Alas an injury to five-eight Ryan Duggan will see him sidelined for up to a month. Wattles 50 (Mitch Koina 3, Brenden Wilson 2, Michael Duggan, Jackson Green, Joel Koina, Matt Duggan tries; Matt Duggan 5, Ryan Duggan 2 goals) defeated Dalby 14. Reserve Grade - Wattles "Railway Hotel, Allora" reserve grade side rose to the occasion at Dalby with a win that has kept them in the top five on the competition ladder. Coach Ross Hentschel, who contributed a try to his teams score, was more than pleased with his Warriors 28 - 14 win over Dalby. It was a game Wattles had to win to stay in finals consideration.

Dalby opened the scoring, but it was Hentschel's try that had wattles ahead 6 - 4 after eight minutes, the Warriors leading the way through out.

Mark Duggan scored Wattles second try after kicking ahead and regathering over the try line to have his side ahead 12 - 4 after thirteen minutes. Minutes before half time halfback Josh Henry crossed in the corner for another touch down to have those in green & gold leading 16 - 4 at the break.

The home side responded by scoring twice to trail by 14 - 16, before prop Jason Nightingale claimed a try after strong lead up work by Alex Morris, Justin Van Der Poel & Josh Henry. Minutes later Wattles advanced their score further with a deserved try to back-rower Alex Morris.

Back-rower Jason Wilson continues his purple patch of form with another classy effort, half back Josh Henry & bookend Jason Nightingale also shining in the game.

Wattles 28 (Mark Duggan, Josh Henry, Jason Nightingale, Alex Morris, Ross Hentschel tries; Jim Johnson 3, Justin Van Der Poel goals) defeated Dalby 14.

Under 18 - Dalby lead the "Allora Foodworks" Warriors 20 - 6 at half time in the Under 18 clash, eventually winning 48 - 6. The first half was shortened after a concerning injury to Wattles player Joe Morris. Joe has since recovered and all at Wattles extend him our best wishes.

Dalby are second on the Under 18 competition ladder, and showed their superiority by scoring five unanswered tries in the second stanza to reach their match winning total.

Wattles only try was scored by front rower Ben Ranger in the 28th minute, the try converted by Nick Morris.

Lock forward Matt Bourke was a shining light for Wattles, also named Player's Player, team mates Nick Morris & Brandon Nothduft also among the Warriors better performers.
