Year 10 students meet the Governor General!

Year 10 students from Allora State School and Killarney State School visited Canberra recently on their annual, week long trip to the nation's capital. The students began their action packed itinerary at Kosciuszko National Park. Under blue skies and in the picturesque Perisher Valley many students experienced snow for the first time, enjoying some snowball fights and testing their skills on the slopes.

A highlight of the trip this year included a tour of the Governor General's residence and the opportunity to see where William and Kate dined on their recent Australian visit. While in the official reception area, the Governor General, Sir Peter Cosgrove took time out of his busy schedule to greet the students and to speak to them for a few minutes about his role as the Queen's representative in Australia!

At the Australian War Memorial, the students took part in a Letter to the Editor...

Dear Sir,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the organisers and helpers - through your paper - who made the reunion of the class of 1964 such a successful event. Fifty years is a long time to be able to track so many of us down, along with the teaching staff.

It was a pleasure to be in the peaceful and joyous company of so many of us who were the guinea pigs of the education system of the day. I must thank the present principal, who is now in the same position with the new year sevens starting high school.

He was obviously so proud of the achievements the school has been able to realise over the years. Seeing this professional person in charge of such a growing and successful learning facility must surely give peace of mind to the community and school for positive outcomes of this resource.

I would like to thank not only the organisers, but one of the ex-students who made it special for me. Pat thank you. I had not danced one of the "old time" dances since my husband died in 1988, and you carefully guided me through the learning curve of "one, two, three" again. (Much to the detriment of your toes I think.)

We all agreed that the next reunion should be a little sooner than fifty years, as even though we may think we a not old, I believe it would be stretching the numbers who might be at that gathering.

Even though the town has changed massively, I believe it is in good and safe hands for the future. Seeing and hearing what this generation has achieved and has available to them within the education system.

Again, thank you everyone who helped put this successful event together, and for all those who attended and made it a positive and memorable occasion, for me.

Delphine Digby. (Nee Dell Hutchinson -The Bakers Daughter).

On the final day of their excursion the student had a guided tour of the Australian Institute of Sport and also visited the National Film and Sound Archives. Then it was time for the 16 hour trip back to Queensland, arriving home very tired but with plenty of good memories and stories to tell their friends and families.

THE SHOOTER BROTHERS

Charles George and Leila Evelyn Shooter married at St. John's C of E church in Dalby on 14/09/1887. Charles had migrated from Preston, Northumberland in the northeast part of England in 1885. He met Leila Jenner while bookkeeping at Jimbour Station (near Dalby) where her father was employed as a groom. Charles and Leila subsequently moved to Maryvale Station where he was also employed as a book keeper. In 1888, the first of 13 children were born. Two girls and eleven boys. The family were to live the major part of their lives on the Darling Downs in farming communities from Pratten, Woody Camp, Clifton, Spring Creek, Headington Hill, Elphinstone, Ellinthorpe, Dalrymple and Allora. In the early 1900's Electoral rolls and school registers described Charles as a farmer. By 1913, his occupation was recorded as a Dairyman of Talgai West.

The thirteen children in order of birth: Mary, George, Walter, Ada, Harold, William, Francis, Charles, Leslie, Reginald, Cyril, James, and Laurence. Ada's husband James Gwynne and six of the Shooter boys, Walter, Harold, William, Francis (Frank), Charles (Fin) and Reginald enlisted to serve in World War 1 and 2. Their war service stories are as follows:

WALTER SHOOTER

Walter Shooter was born at Pratten near Clifton on 25/06/1891. School records have either been lost or destroyed, but he did start his schools days at Darkey's Flat School in Pratten Queensland. He is registered attending Spring Creek Primary School in grades three, four and five. In the 1913 and 1914 Electoral Rolls of the Darling Downs, Walter is registered as a Shearer of Talgai West, Sub-division of Allora. When he enlisted in Toowoomba on 08/02/1916 for World War 1, he was 24 years and 7 months and 5 ft 6 inches tall. His enlistment number was 5716 and his occupation was recorded as a Farm Labourer. By 09/03/1916 he was stationed at Thompson's Paddock Enoggera Qld and commenced training at the Rifle Range. At his own request, Private Walter Shooter signed up for three years in the Light Horse and was transferred to the 14/26th Regiment. Walter's dream of service was short lived when he was hospitalized suffering Rheumatism, possibly due to "falls from horses" and was subsequently discharged on 06/09/1916, being declared permanently unfit. He returned home to farm life and remained a bachelor. Towards the end of his life Walter suffered a massive stroke and remained handicapped. During most of this period, he resided with his brother Fin at his Salisbury residence in Brisbane. Walter died in the Allora Hospital on 01/02/1958 aged 66 before his body was transported to Brisbane. A service was held at Metropolitan Funerals in Fortitude Valley followed by a funeral procession to the Mount Thompson Crematorium.

Clayton Returned to Entertain Seniors

The Allora Senior Citizens Association hosted a great afternoon's entertainment in the Allora rooms last month with Clayton Lee-Travis as special guest.

Clayton's no stranger to Allora having performed for the Senior Citizens group some years back, but after advising he was back in the entertaining business he was soon invited to renew friendships in Allora.

He certainly had some feet tapping with his special brand of music, an experienced 'seniors' concert performer who has wooed Darling Downs crowds in Pittsworth, Crows Nest, Leyburn, Killarney, Gatton, Millmerran and Allora. Entertaining seniors has also taken the career musician to western centres to Tambo, Darwin, the Sunshine Coast and north to Townsville.

Long serving Allora Senior Citizens Secretary Joyce Black was one who thoroughly enjoyed musical talents, "Clayton's show was very entertaining, light hearted and fun with plenty of great songs that also brought back many memories" said Joyce, "the Allora group thoroughly enjoyed his presence."

The Allora Senior Citizens also hosted members from the Clifton & Warwick groups who were treated to a sumptuous afternoon tea aside from Clayton's many musical talents.

Allora Community Kindergarten Refurbishment

After nearly 30 years of operating as the only community Kindergarten in Allora the C&K located in Gordon Street is undergoing a major transformation. Over the past 12 months the Kindergarten has successfully received a Capital works Grant and a Community Gambling Benefit Grant to the total of $150 000. This has enabled the Kindergarten to renovate and upgrade facilities. Stage one of the refurbishment included an entry ramp and extension of an enclosed deck space. The Kindergarten is currently working on Stage 2 of the project with the painting of the interior and external building and children's bathroom renovations. These will be completed by the end of Term 4 2014.

2014 has seen a growth and demand in the Kindergarten with the opening of a second class. The Kindergarten attracts families from a vast demographic area including Goomburra, Maryvale, Clifton, Pilton, Ryeford and Greenmount. The Creche and Kindergarten Association was founded in 1907 and are pioneers in early childhood education in Queensland. Enrolments for 2015 have opened with limited vacancies. 2014 UCI Track Cycling Masters World Championships silver medallist Julie Barnett on the victory podium with gold medallist Denmark's Janni Bormann and bronze medal winner Annabell Holland of the USA after the presentations for the 50+ Women's Sprint.

Julie's Back in the Medals

Ron & Rosemary Gwynne are two very proud Allora residents of late, Ron's daughter Julie Barnett having just won two silver medals at the 2014 UCI Track Cycling Masters World Championships at Manchester in England, at the superb velodrome at the National Cycling Centre.

A prolific medal winner at State, national & International cycling meets, and veteran of numerous World Championships competed in the 50+ division in Manchester.

Australia wrapped up a successful 2014 UCI Track Cycling Masters World Championships campaign, finishing fourth on the medal tally notching up 28 medals in total, including six gold medals, 11 silver and 11 bronze.

This year's Masters World Championships saw 430 riders from 33 countries contest both individual and team events for male and female competitors over the age of 35 across eight days of competition.

Julie secured her first Championships silver medal in the 50-54 Time Trial on Wednesday and followed that up on Saturday the final day of the Championships riding exceptionally well in the 50+ women's sprint and clearly winning her way through to the final to race against Denmark's Janni Bormann. Borman made no mistakes though and responded to everything Julie threw at her to take the gold, Julie winning silver and Annabell Holland of the USA collecting bronze.

"It was a great championship this past week, Australia represented by eight women in the fifteen female competitors in my age group and I am more than happy with my two silver medals by a very narrow margins" said Julie, "I also raced a team sprint event with a fellow Australian and came in fourth." Gold Coast based Julie, a former Warwick resident, has won a very impressive six World Masters Championships and held two world records. Her mantelpiece bulges with fifteen World Masters medals and she is the current Queensland and Australian Champion.

Julie commenced cycling for health & fitness when aged 19, but ceased seven years later when she married and started a family. She was back on her cycle for the 2000 World Masters Games in Melbourne. The cycling Champion is now taking a four year break from the World Masters competition, and while she will continue to race at Queensland and Australian titles, she hopes to return to the world masters in 2018. A self funded athlete, she says with a smile "If I was wealthy I would race and train differently, and perform at the World Titles every year."

Cloncurry Farewell

Mr. Bob Deacon of the Q. N. Bank staff has tendered his resignation and leaves at the end of the month to take up a position in his father's business at Allora. During his stay in Cloncurry Mr. Deacon has made himself popular both as a banker and in his private life as secretary of the Golf Club and will be much missed. Last Sunday members of the Golf Club, Rifle Club and Diggers Club met on the local golf links and bade Mr. Deacon

Surprise Party

A surprise party assembled at Mr. John Hoey's place on Friday night and took possession. After Mr. Hoey giving the intruders a cordial welcome, the barn was got ready for dancing. Owing to the weather not looking very promising, there was not as large a company as there otherwise might have been, but everybody enjoyed themselves and made the best of a wet night. At midnight there was great justice done to the refreshments provided by the ladies. Dancing continued until two o'clock with Mr. S. Huston acting as M. C. To conclude the evening Mr. G. Bell in a few words thanked Mr. and Mrs. Hoey for the cordial way in which they had received them. Mr. Hoey responded and hoped that it would not be the last time they would honour him with a surprise party.

The evening was brought to a close by singing "Auld Lang Syne".

Harvest Machinery

Mr. John Kelly of Allora has recently purchased a powerful Robey traction engine and a Robey thrashing machine of the largest and latest style. This season is the first of the introduction of this useful machinery into the district, so it is still untried. It was bought in anticipation of an abundant harvest, and is intended to travel from farm to farm. As the railway accommodation at Hendon would not permit the unloading of such a massive and heavy machine as this traction engine, it had to go on to Warwick, from which town it worked its way across country to Allora, and did so by successfully dragging after it the thrasher and straw stacker.

The Clock is Ticking... the Countdown Allora's Heritage Weekend

Warwick Veteran and Vintage Vehicle Club President Graeme McMillan has forecast that the forthcoming 2015 Allora Heritage Weekend will be "bigger than ever".

The event that attracts enthusiasts from across the nation has suffered weather interruptions over the past four years, "but we had a great event in January this year and club members are looking to build in that for the Australia Day weekend in 2015" said Graeme. The Internationally acclaimed event held annually in the tranquil Allora Showgrounds, first held in 1995, swells Allora's population by 1000's over the Australia Day weekend.

As in past years the Heritage Weekend will promote feature machinery, the 2015 historical event featuring Ford tractors, trucks & cars; Lister engines & British motorcycles.

As those who have wandered through the Showgrounds during the weekend that is a celebration of rural history & heritage would be aware, the landscape is a maze of vintage & veteran cars & trucks, antiques, historical machinery & motorcycles, horse drawn machinery and so much more along with bush poets and country music.

Patrons can forage at a massive swap meet over both Saturday & Sunday, and a feature of the Weekend is a Cent Sale held in aid of the Warwick Disability Support Group.

For further information contact Graeme McMillan (4666 3554), Ted Woodrow (4666 3693 or 0418 875 469) or for Swap Meet information call Lyle Johnson (4666 6288 or 0409 766 288).

For information about camping over the weekend call Greg Saville (4697 3742) Mark your diaries January 24th & 25th, when all rounds lead to Allora for the biggest Heritage Weekend in the nation.

Allora CWA notes

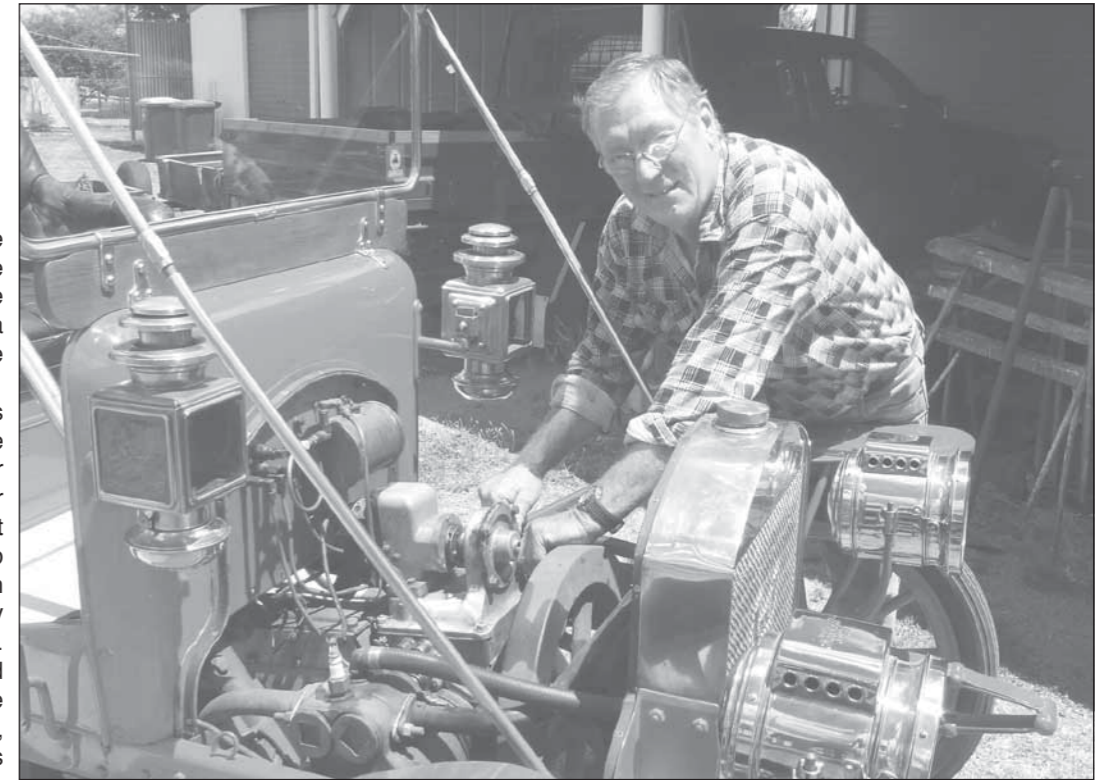

The October meeting opened with 14 members and several apologies. The members were able to watch the self-propelled lawnmowers and hedge trimmers working while business was conducted courtesy of the Historical society.

The Christmas party will be held at the Railway Hotel on 9th December and tickets in the Christmas raffle will be available from 28 November. As usual there will be an iced Christmas cake, a pudding and a hamper.

The Nora O'Hara Murphy country music festival was again a success for the branch with over 1200 dollars raised from selling slices, scones, sandwiches and tea and coffee. The husbands and sons who helped with setting up the tents were greatly appreciated.

The branch has been learning to crochet and a rug made from the squares made was raffled at the Festival. Another is being prepared for the Homestead where the November meeting will be held to celebrate the 90th birthday of Ilma Cavanagh..

Rosemary Easton addressed the group about the charity Days for Girls and several members indicated they would become involved.

Allora based veteran & vintage vehicle collector Keith Wilson is looking forward to Allora's famous Heritage Weekend in January

2014 Rodeo offers family fun and great prizes

The 2014 Warwick Rose & Rodeo Festival aims to provide family friendly fun for all ages with this year's addition of two competitions aimed at younger children. Warwick Tourism & Events CEO, Tracy Vellacott commended an enthusiastic response from all the schools for the colouring competition that was launched in October.

"We would like to congratulate both the junior category winner, Almari Botha from Stanthorpe State School, as well as the senior category winner, Teliah McGee from Warwick East State School and we trust they enjoy their prizes," Mrs Vellacott said. "This year, winners received a trophy, a prize pack and an invitation to the VIP morning tea at the Rose & Rodeo Street Parade on Saturday morning, and they'll be in prime VIP position to enjoy the Warwick Credit Union Street Parade."

Winners were announced on Friday 17 October and all entries will be available for viewing in Rose City Shoppingworld from Monday 20 October.

"Another exciting child-friendly addition to the festival is the Best Dressed Rodeo Clown Competition, which will form part of the Street Carnival on Friday 24 October. All children aged between 3 and 12 are invited to enter our rough ridin' rodeo clown dress-up competition. A prize pack is up for grabs, registration is free and starts at 5:45pm at the Town Hall with judging taking place at 6pm."

Mrs Vellacott reminds visitors that the 2014 Warwick Rose & Rodeo Festival is a feast of fun. "Visitors are urged to keep their eyes on the media, newspaper, our website and Facebook page for updates on events and activities around the festival," she said. Some of the key activities outside the Rodeo program are: The Street Carnival from 6pm, Friday 24 October in Palmerin Street, Warwick; the Craft Market from 9am, Saturday October 25 in Leslie Park, Warwick; and the Street Parade at 12 noon on Saturday, October 25 travelling from Queens Park to the corner of Percy and Palmerin Streets and back. Council's Youth Meeting with Young Leader Dominic Andersen-Strudwick (seminar organiser) chairing the meeting.

Council supports innovative Young Entrepreneur's Seminar

Facebook and Twitter visionary Nick Bowditch is coming to Warwick on November 3 to speak at an innovative Young Entrepreneur's Seminar that will inspire, motivate, educate and equip young people to start up creative new businesses. Southern Downs Regional Council Young Leader Dominic Andersen-Strudwick, who is a high school student and young entrepreneur, put forward the idea of the seminar as part of his Young Leader duties.

"I have a passion for entrepreneurship and I wanted to share my enthusiasm. I know our region has a wealth of knowledge and experience and I thought if I could bring young people, business people and inspirational people in the one room then we could really spark something incredible.

"I approached Mr Bowditch about presenting at the seminar and he agreed straight away. He feels regional seminars like this are the beginning point for ingenuity and from this a great deal can grow.

"Mr Bowditch is the former head of Small Business Marketing for Australian and New Zealand at Facebook and he is currently the Small Business Evangelist at Twitter Australia. His contribution to our seminar will be invaluable.

"Another excellent speaker for the day is Kelvin Hutchinson who is the immediate past Chairman of Queensland Entrepreneurs. Mr Hutchinson has an immense wealth of business start-up experience having invested, managed and chaired a range of technology, property and marketing businesses in Australia and South East Asia over the past 20 years.

"To round off this extensive level of experience our final speaker is Trevor Burton, owner of Warwick and Stanthorpe McDonalds Restaurants. Mr Burton has built a strong business presence on the Southern Downs and his expertise will also help shape discussions at our event.

"I'm really looking forward to the day and encourage young people aged between 12 and 18 years to attend. We do ask people to RSVP by phoning 1300 697 372 by October 27," he said.

Mayor Cr Peter Blundell said he was very supportive of the seminar and the efforts of Young Leader Dominic Andersen-Strudwick.

"Councillors have participated in a number of events and activities with the team of Young Leaders and a new initiative this year has been a mentoring program between us and the young leaders. I have found this to be inspirational in itself - to hear the good ideas of young people and their thoughts and feelings about our region and state is something I find heartening," he said.

Anyone interested in the Young Leader program please contact Youth Development Officer Hailey Cosh on 1300 MY SDR (1300 697 372) or go to council's website www.sdrc.qld.gov.au.

ALLORA WINS TERRY MASTERS SHIELD IN A NAIL BITER

The annual Terry Masters Memorial Shield was contested last Sunday between the Allora Sports Club and the Gowrie Road Hotel. In near perfect weather, 30 players took to the Allora golf course to play in a Three Man Ambrose. The course was presented in immaculate condition, due to the effort of the club's hardworking volunteers, in particular Rod Simpson.

After a sumptuous lunch, the same number of players moved to the bowls green to compete in a triples event, with the recent hard work of the greens staff being evident in the quality of bowls played.

When the results of both the golf and the bowls were tallied at the end of play, Allora and Gowrie Road were locked at 51 points apiece. To determine the winner, it was decided to conduct a four bowl playoff between the president of the Allora Sports Club and the President of the Gowrie Road Hotel Social Club.

With his last bowl, President Kev Harrison sealed the victory for the Allora Sports Club.

Railway Hotel Rascals vs. Colts

Round two of the new season witnessed the Railway Hotel Rascals take on the Colts at home. On a sunny day, the Rascals won the toss and decided to take a chance and send in the Colts to bat. At drinks, 20 overs in, it looked to be a good decision with the Colts struggling at 4-78. After the break, two of their batters took to the bowling, and with some great fortune and skilful shots they managed to develop a 108 run partnership. The Rascals did rally and took four wickets in the final eight overs, with the Colts ending up at 8/207. Joe Morris and Nick Van Der Poel were the best of the bowlers with two wickets each, whilst Jamie Holmes went for less than three an over and took a wicket.

In response, the Rascals openers Patty Geyle and Andrew Boal were off to a blinding start, before losing their wickets before the ten over mark. Tom Morris looked excellent for his
