Letters to the Editor...

Dear Editor,

There has been much angst and head scratching over the Easter road toll. The eight deaths on Qld's roads has concerned police and political leaders. Of course, we have to consider the huge volume of traffic on the roads over the four day period. Motor vehicles of all descriptions are rushing to and fro as never before. Some accidents are caused by inattention, but speed is a contributing factor to road fatalities as well as our inferior roads.

The government is unlikely to lower the open road speed. I guess we will never know how much money is collected in fines from those exceeding the speed limit. However, I would like to suggest that motorists take it upon themselves to voluntarily drive on the open road at 80 KPH. It might take a little longer to get to your destination but it could mean that you arrive safely.

You never know, collectively we could start a trend that will prove beneficial for all road users and taken on board by government.

Jay Nauss, Glen Aplin

Dear Editor,

Ask anyone to name a battle where Australians fought and they will answer "Gallipoli" without missing a beat. The First World War defined us as people and as a nation. The ANZAC legacy, born on that fateful day as Australian and New Zealand soldiers rushed ashore at Gallipoli, Turkey, has endured since 1915. Embodying the values of courage, determination and mateship – the word ANZAC defines our national character.

On April 25, 2015, our great nation will pause to remember the legacy and the tradition that our First World War soldiers, sailors, airman and nurses forged. Every town across the Maranoa electorate has a sacred place where names are engraved, forever immortalising those who defended our freedoms and values, who served and sacrificed for our country. These memorials are a silent reminder of what was and what could have been.

I encourage you to pause and read the inscriptions engraved. You will probably find you share or recognise a surname. You may even be the same age as a hero listed or share the same home town. Every name engraved represents someone like you – an Australian who loved sport, who was committed to their family, shared a yarn with mates and looked towards a future brimming with possibilities.

During the ANZAC Centenary, many will find themselves drawn towards the past. You will find tales of victories in human spirit have endured, just as much as documented battlefield actions such as the Charge at The Nek and the Battle of Lone Pine.

We will remember Simpson and his donkey, carrying the wounded to safety. We will remember the digger who thought to rig a piece of string to a kerosene tin to create self-firing rifles which convinced the Turks we were still in the trenches during the Gallipoli withdrawal.

As each day passes, our memory must never fade. On Saturday, April 25, we must respond to the appeal made 100 years ago and pledge to never forget those who gave everything for their mates and beloved Australia.

Yours faithfully,
The Hon Bruce Scott MP
Federal LNP Member for Maranoa

Dear Editor,

There are few words that raise the argumentative side of this writer until mental illness is endorsed by all and sundry. The letter from Beyond Blue (Allora Advertiser April 16) carries figures that are mythical. Tis said there are 300 different mental illnesses yet there are no blood tests, no urine scans, no genetic assays to certify the condition. The lists of toxic drugs, electric shocks, performing lobotomies are the "cures" offered by Psychiatrists, wreck lives forever.

This writer has a very recent experience to offer as reasons for mental health accusation to destroy others. Working with Mr Springborg for years dusted off the corruption and inappropriate use of so called mental illness diagnosis in the community. He set up a review into the Mental Health Act 2000 and the new Mental Health Act now awaits passage into law. To quote the

ALLORA - YOUR CLUB NEEDS YOU!

ALLORA SENIOR CITIZENS CLUB INCORPORATED

Public Meeting - Friday, 1st May at 1pm

As the current office holders of the Allora Senior Citizens Club will be resigning at the end of the 2014/2015 financial year, it is important that Allora not lose such a valuable service. This meeting will be open to suggestions as to how to operate for the future.

Previously the Club has offered social gatherings on a Monday and Friday at which cards, rummekin and indoor bowls have been made available as well as monthly euchre tournaments catering for approximately 50 people.

The Club is financially sound and the hall is fully equipped, through the support of the Southern Downs Regional Council, to cater for functions such as family gatherings and other social events.

The numbers for the Club have diminished from 112 to 40 members. Do not let this trend continue, we need you to step up and take on a role and maybe develop an even more new and exciting program for a small annual membership of $5.00. For further information or suggestions please contact Joyce Black after hours on 4666 3124.

former Health Minister "Changes to the Mental Health Act was crucial, for all the reasons quoted to me out of your own lived experiences over the years". Let the young be free to grow, and do not limit their freedom, their free creative impulse by ridiculous name calling and mythical illnesses. To be young is to be seen as experimental, not mental. Love them, not list them!

Melba Morris.

Allora CWA notes

There was a good attendance at the April meeting which had a full agenda with future events.

CWA members have offered to help from 9.30 on Saturday to prepare for the Anzac day lunch at the RSL. A wreath from the CWA will be laid on Anzac Day.

The Cunningham branch will host its annual Mother's Day lunch at Cunningham on the 6th of May starting at 10.00 a.m. Admission is $10 for lunch and skits and a fashion parade.

The Allora branch International Day will be held on the 8th May at St Andrews hall at 1 pm. Entries for competitions must be at the hall by 9 am. This year's country of study has been the English Midlands and local schools have had the opportunity to take part in competitions which will be displayed and judged on the day. The children, Ron and Arthur, and CWA members will provide entertainment before a generous afternoon tea. There will be the raffle of a quilt completed by Barbara Bell, a lucky door prize and a money board organised by Mary Schelbach

Allora FOODWORKS

Alan & Debbie Smith are pleased to announce the sale of Allora FoodWorks to John Hyslop and Paul McCellan.

We have enjoyed owning the Allora Supermarket for 19 years, we have enjoyed our customers and staff who have helped develop the store into the best little supermarket in the best little town on the Downs.

The decision to sell has been made with mixed emotions but we are sure that John & Paul will continue to grow and provide a modern supermarket for the community of Allora.

Our staff will always have a special place in our memory for their loyalty and dedication during the good times and the difficult. Jan May's decision to take semi-retirement while continuing to assist Debbie in her other businesses will mean that the Allora Supermarket will no longer have her cheery face greeting customers every day. Adam, Tarnya, Kelli, Maree, Dale, and all the local staff will be there to help Paul & John in the Allora IGA.

Alan will continue with his practice for the time being so the Smith's business interests in the main street will continue.

Stocktake is Sunday 26th of April and the store will close early at 6.00pm.

with admission $10.

The branch has decided to have a Morning Tea Fundraiser on the 25th June. This will be a new venture with a morning tea in the rooms but also an opportunity for local businesses, schools, homes to order a morning tea at work or home. There will be scones, cakes, slices, mini quiches, muffins. Order forms will be available next month.

A Hat and High Tea will be held in Warwick to celebrate the 93rd birthday of the CWA.

The branch has offered $50 to the official CWA external charity Blaze Aid. The next year's charity will be Motor Neurone Disease. Killarney branch are having photography classes with a well-known photographer. You can contact them for more details.

Events coming up are the International Day featuring the English Midlands in May and the Annual General Meeting in July. The International Day has competitions for school children as well as the usual CWA craft, Cookery, Floral Art and photography competitions. It will be held at the Uniting Church Hall with afternoon tea and entertainment organised by International Officer Marg Phelan.

ARTHUR ARCHIBALD CAMERON

- Leading citizen, leader of men, family man

Arthur Archibald Cameron had a distinguished military record. He served with the local Light Horse Regiment for seven years before volunteering to fight in the South African war. At the time Arthur was a compositor at the 'Allora Guardian' and his letters home were printed in the paper.

When he came home from South Africa he continued his involvement with the Light Horse Regiment and was involved in local business and community affairs.

Arthur was at one time owner of the newsagency and tobacconist in Allora. He was President of the local Progress Association, a committee member of the C.D.A & H. Assoc. and School of Arts and Secretary of the Allora St. Andrews Club. He was a "leading spirit in all sporting and patriotic movements". Arthur along with five others including Joe Burge was instrumental in having the South African Memorial erected.

Arthur was 38 years old and married with a young family when he applied for a commission in the Australian Imperial Forces on 28th October 1915. His hand written 'Statement of War Service' reads "Decorations - Relief at Kimberley, Driefontein, Johannesburg, Diamond Hill". In his application he lists under 'Education' his service of three years as Town Clerk. His military history is recorded as eighteen years with the Light Horse as Private, Sergeant and Lieutenant and his war service. At the time of his enlistment Arthur was licensee of the Railway Hotel which he sold to enlist. He was also a Councillor of the Shire of Allora. Because of his business experience Arthur was retained in administration for a time and finally embarked from Sydney with a reinforcement unit aboard H.M.A.T. A72 "Bettana" on the 13th May 1916.

The ship disembarked in England on the 10th July 1916. Arthur was attached to the Headquarters of the A.I.F. Depot until 13th January 1917 when he proceeded overseas to France. At Estaples, Arthur was stationed with the 1st A.D.B.D. until he was taken on strength with the 9th Battalion. On 26th February, he was killed by shell fire while leading a retreat after an epic battle at night. He was not missed by his unit members and was posted as missing. Later it was established that he had been buried by members of the 11th Battalion.

Elizabeth Cameron, Arthur's wife, received a letter from a friend of her husband. This letter was printed in the Guardian. J Wilson wrote from the Convalescent Home, Mentone. Although he was in hospital at the time of Arthur's death he saw Arthur's name in a list of casualties in the paper, he sought the details of the incident. Wilson and Cameron had a mutual understanding to send home information in the event of injury to either of them. J Wilson writes "It is with a sad heart that I am now carrying out a promise to one of my best friends". Wilson tells Elizabeth that when Arthur joined up in the 9th Battalion at Albert, they (9th Bn.) were training for a 'stunt' and after a few days went into the front line and made an attack. "Mr Cameron led his men to their objective, dislodged the Huns, and held the trench against bombardments and counter attacks received until it was their turn to retire to support lines or reserve". Arthur was killed while he and his men were returning to rest. "He must have been killed instantly for his men did not miss him until they got back, the night being so dark". Three other officers lost their lives at the same time. Wilson goes on, "he fought fearlessly and gained all that was asked of him". Arthur was highly respected as a soldier and officer and Wilson tells Elizabeth that "I doubt whether I have seen an officer so popular with men and command so much respect". Under the 'War Pension Act' and as per his instructions, Arthur's pension was divided between his three sons and his wife. John Alexander received one pound per fortnight, Arthur Bruce 15/-s, Keith Johnston 10/-s and Elizabeth three pounds

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

A woman seated at the movies was surprised to find, sitting in the two adjacent seats, a man with his arm around a sheep dog. All through the movie, she noticed the dog watching the picture with apparent understanding snarling when the villain appeared, yelping happily at the funny parts.

At the end of the movie, she tapped the man on the shoulder. "I just can't get over how much your dog enjoyed the movie," she said.

"It surprises me too," the man answered, "He absolutely despised the book."

Mayor looks forward to ANZAC services throughout the region

ANZAC day ceremonies will be held throughout the Southern Downs on Saturday April 25 and Southern Downs Regional Council Mayor Cr Peter Blundell is looking forward to participating in these special events.

This year marks a significant milestone in Australian history with the Centenary of ANZAC and the local services on the Southern Downs will acknowledge the enormous impact the ANZAC landing has had on the nation.

Cr Blundell said the Returned Services League and the Veteran Services & Advocacy Services Australia have organised a number of ceremonies throughout the region to allow all community members the flexibility to select a service that best suits their timetable.

"As most residents would know the Warwick services include a Dawn Service, ceremonies at the War Graves Cemetery and Eden Gardens Memorial Park and an 11am service at the Cenotaph in Leslie Park.

"A similar program of Anzac Day services has been arranged for the Stanthorpe community, as well as services in many of the smaller communities within the Southern Downs Region including Allora, Killarney, Tannymorel, Leyburn and Wallangarra.

"These are solemn occasions and I am pleased to honour the strong feeling of mateship of our diggers and that Australians are grateful for the free and democratic society they live in.

"We are seeing an increase in numbers at ANZAC parades and I'm pleased our local communities take time to participate and to encourage children to understand and appreciate the ANZAC legend and spirit," he said.

As well as the Stanthorpe ANZAC Day dawn service and Warwick ANZAC Day commemoration service, Cr Blundell will attend the Applethorpe ANZAC service on April 23 and the Glen Aplin ANZAC service on April 24.

Anzac Day

Allora State School and St. Patrick's School students assembled at the war memorial in Warwick Street to observe the 75th anniversary of Anzac Day. Allora State Secondary School captains, Craig Hunter and Meagan Denny, addressed the assembly and spoke of the sacrifice made by the Australian service men and women who served their country in war. St. Patrick's School captains, Paula Phelan and Darren Wright, laid a wreath on behalf of St. Patrick's School and Brooke Gilmore, Stewart Kirkland, Hayley Sparksman and Simon Butler laid one on behalf of the State School.

The Spring Creek Amateur Race Club held a successful registered meeting on Mrs. W. Dalton's farm on Saturday. The attendance was good and the interest keen. Unlimited credit is due to the secretary, Mr. D. J. Enright, for his efforts on behalf of the meeting, and it is only fair to say that he had the unremitting assistance of the other officials.

In a six event programme, horses owned and trained by Mr. Frank Grimes of 'Lochiel' at Saddletop nearly cleaned up the card winning the Maiden Plate, Handicap Polo Horse Race, Welter Handicap and the Flying Handicap, coming second in the Spring Creek Handicap and third in the Lady's Bracelet Handicap.

Home ownership information sessions for Warwick Indigenous community

Indigenous Business Australia (IBA) will hold free information sessions in Warwick to let the local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community members know how IBA might be able to assist them to buy their own home.

IBA's affordable commencing home loan interest rates, low deposit requirements and supportive application process, can make this important decision seem less overwhelming.

For a limited time, IBA has announced a discounted home loan offer to first home buyers who may be eligible to receive a discount on the Standard Introductory Rate - reducing IBA's commencing rate to 4%.

Since its inception in 1975, IBA's Indigenous Home Ownership program has provided more than 16,000 home loans to Indigenous Australians.

In 2013-14 IBA financed 556 new home loans with a total value of $141.8 million of which almost 80% were in regional or remote Australia.

This new lending enabled over 1,300 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders to enjoy the social and economic benefits of home ownership.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples who would like to find out more about home ownership and how IBA can assist are encouraged to RSVP to register their place for an information session.

Youth Week disaster games a resounding success

Southern Downs National Youth Week (April 10 - 19) could not have ended on a better note - over 20 young participants in the Youth Disaster Games last weekend and a resounding success young people and give them a taste of what it's like to be on the frontline of a local disaster.

"Many of the emergency personnel commented at the end of the event on the commitment and focus of the young people.

"The participants all gained skills and confidence to respond effectively in a natural disaster, at an emergency scene and working as an individual or with a team.

"We had hoped the event might even prompt some young people to think about a career in the emergency services and from our feedback we have been successful in this as well.

"Some comments we received were:

- The young people were very willing to engage with us and we felt that it was a good investment of our time and we also welcomed the recruitment opportunity
- Great event, well done to Council and all involved
- We would definitely do this again and hope it becomes an annual event

"The theme for National Youth Week was 'it starts with us' and the disaster games demonstrated this perfectly - young people volunteering, gaining skills and participating in their community. "These young people are the leaders and volunteers of the future and it was great to see their enthusiasm," she said.

Ms Cosh said she wanted to thank all the emergency personnel involved in the disaster games and supporting Council staff, in particular Disaster Management Co-ordinator Mark Saunders for creating the games program and Community Development Officer Pam Burley and Volunteer Co-ordinator Bette Bonney for their assistance.

"Also huge thanks to SDIEA (Southern Downs Industry Education Association), and headspace Warwick for partnering Council in staging National Youth Week events for 2015," she said.

Wattles Jump into Top Five

The Luke Duggan coached Wattles 'National Farmer's Warehouse' first grade side overwhelmed the Valley's 'Roosters' last Saturday night at Herb Steinhart Oval when they staged a gutsy fight back over the final forty minutes to win their third successive game from the first five Rounds of the 2015 TRL Premiership 40 - 24.

The reigning TRL Premiers' sterling second half comeback saw them score 30 points to 12 by Valleys, the 'Warriors' winding their way to victory and continuing to stride up the premiership ladder.

The win has propelled Wattles top graders into fourth place, sitting well within striking distance of premiership leaders Gattton on eight points, Highfields (8) & Dalby (7) and level with Pittsworth (6).

This Saturday Wattles will be playing with the memories of the sacrifices of Australia's servicemen & women serving as inspiration to victory over the Dalby 'Diehards', on the 100th Anniversary of the landing by the ANZACs at Anzac Cove.

While a scheduled Wattles' home game against the 'Diehards' this Saturday, the fixtures are being played at the home ground of the 'Warriors' affiliate 'C' Grade club the Millmerran 'Rams' at the Millmerran Rugby League Oval.

The undefeated 'Rams' will take on Dalby at 4.40 pm prior to the Wattles v Dalby first grade clash, with a big home crowd assured.

Ball control suffered for both sides in the wet conditions last Saturday, but Wattles snared first points in the eleventh minute with a try by experienced winger Robbie Moore after some classy lead up work by back-rower Jason Bradfield and fullback Corey Blades.

Valleys hit back to lead 6 - 4 before Wattles' front-rower Dylan Ebnetter touched down under the posts after a stepping run through heavy traffic.

The player numbers thinned minutes prior to the break with Wattles lock Ryan Duggan and opposition fullback Josh Duncan coming to blows resulting in both being sent off. Duggan will now miss one match with an early plea, Duncan two matches.

"The Mighty Warriors, Your Team for 50 Years"

The Wattles Rugby League Football Club join with Australians across the Nation on Saturday to recognise the amazing sacrifices made & service given by our servicemen & women as we commemorate the 100th anniversary of ANZAC.

'Lest We Forget'

100 YEARS OF ANZAC

Remembering OUR HEROES

Valleys took advantage of the unsettled stage and there quick thinking Toowoomba representative hooker Chris Richardson darted over to score.

Valleys led 12 - 10 at the half way mark, but touchdowns in quick succession early in the second stanza to Joel Koina & Jason Bradfield had the 'Warriors' ahead 22 - 12 at the seventeen minute mark.

The 'Roosters' brought supporters to their feet in the 'chook pen' with two four pointers in the space of three minutes to resume the lead 24 - 22.

From there Wattles unleashed some masterly attack, half back Matt Duggan sending Bradfield galloping through the defence before off loading to Corey Blades to score with fourteen minutes on the clock.

With two minutes remaining Blades had the ball two passes from a scrum and darted over, before hooker Mark Gordon salvaged a 'Roosters' dropped ball and scrambled thirty metres for Wattles final try and victory.

Coach Luke Duggan was very encouraged but a tough effort by his team, "a good hard win", and rated Jason Bradfield and Corey Blades as players to feature, "Jason was named our Player's Player, and Dylan Ebnetter was also one to shine".

Wattles 40 (Corey Blades 2, Robbie Moore, Joel Koina, Brodie Ciesiolka, Mark Gordon, Dylan Ebnetter tries; Matt Duggan 6 goals) defeated Valleys 24. After dominant wins last weekend, Wattles 'Allora Foodworks' Under 18's and 'Railway Hotel, Allora' Reserve Graders finished behind polished Valleys outfits.

Wattles 'C' Grade affiliates the Millmerran 'Rams' also filed another winning result holding the 'Roosters' out 26 - 20 to post their third win, undefeated so far.

Reserve Grade.

Valley's front-rower Willie Preston posted first points in the Reserve Grade encounter, to have his side ahead 6 - 0 after nine minutes of play, but Wattles were well in the contest for much of the first half and a try had them trailing 4 - 6 at the 21 minute mark. Fullback Oliver Conway slipped a deft ball to his left just three metres of the try line finding winger Matt Wheatley on the fly and sailing over to score.

Moments before half time Valleys crossed again to lead 12 - 4 at the break, and another two second-half touchdowns saw them seal victory.

For Coach Terry Birmingham, who also played in the game, "it was a disappointing loss, especially considering our great effort last week."

"Our own silly mistakes let us down & we have a few things to work on", said the Coach, "but we have plenty more in the tank yet and will focus on the task ahead being Dalby".

Matt McCarthy was the 'Warriors' best, and named 'Player's Player', with second-rower Nick Morris & hard running forward Justin Wade also solid performers.

Valleys 22 defeated Wattles 4 (Matt Wheatley try)

Under 18 - A 13th minute runaway length of the field try Valleys lock Nick Ryals signalled the young 'Roosters' meaning business in Saturday's Under 18 match up with Wattles, and some ordinary 'Warrior' defence saw Ryals touchdown again minutes later, the home side on their way to a 26 - 0 half time lead.

Wattles fullback Tom Morris raced into the clear in a promising play two minutes prior to the break, only to be called back with a forward pass ruled.

Twelve minutes into the second half the 'Roosters' held an unassailable 46 - 0 lead, and while Wattles defence had improved on their first stanza efforts, opportunities they had with the ball were unable to be converted to points.

In the shadow of the fulltime hooter Wattles rallied and set a classy backline play in motion for outside back Kalen Wakeford to touch down in the corner to have Wattles finishing on a high note.

Coach Mick Ryan was more than happy with the way his side started, "We were dominant for the first ten minutes, shifting the ball beautifully and defending well." "We kept Valleys in their half for that early period, but a try went against us & we put our head down and didn't look up." Valleys error rate increased when pressured, but Wattles let them move too much & they capitalised well.

"We have great talent in our team, but we have to realize the game is played for longer than ten minutes", suggested the team Mentor.

It was another outstanding performance by 'Player's Player' and front-rower Tim Duggan, with centre Kalen Wakeford & hooker Jake Christensen also among Wattles best.

Valleys 46 defeated Wattles 4 (Kalen Wakeford try).

2nd Division - Millmerran 26 (Tom Halford 3, Brenton Butler, Lewis Peardon tries; James Sinclair 3 goals) defeated Valleys 20.

Matches on Saturday at the Millmerran Rugby League Grounds commence at 1.30 pm with Wattles & Dalby in Under 18, Reserve Grade at 2.55 pm, Millmerran take on Dalby in the Berghofer Cup - 2nd Division game at 4.15 pm before the 'Hutchies Cup' 'A' Grade match between Wattles & Dalby at 5.35 pm.

Big Bikkies for the Big Bikkie

In Egypt in December 1915 a young Australian soldier was designing postcards to send to friends and relatives back home in Australia. But they were not ordinary postcards – he was decorating ANZAC biscuits that had been sent from Australia. His name was Malcolm 'Doc' Seddon. One biscuit he designed for his mate, fellow Collingwood player and coach Edward 'Ted' Rowell. This particular biscuit ultimately found its way to Caulfield RSL where it resided for over 80 years before being presented to the Collingwood Football Club; it is now proudly on display at the Westpac Centre.

In honour of this biscuit, and the fact that Anzac biscuits were sent by women to soldiers abroad because the ingredients did not spoil easily and the biscuits kept well during naval transportation, we are creating the world's biggest Anzac biscuit.

Gary Mehigan's Big Kitchen Events team is creating the monstrous bikkie which will be one point two metres in diameter and professionally decorated as a replica of 'Doc' Seddon's original. To raise funds for the Anzac appeal, the biscuit, post Wednesday's presentation, will be silent-auctioned until 6.05pm on Anzac day – let's hope we get big bikkies for the big bikkie! "We are very excited to meet with Doc and Ted's families" said Caulfield RSL President Bob Larkin "The Anzac Biscuit story is a beauty. Incredible to think that a young man in those horrendous trenches could still have a sense of humour. The original biscuit is proudly displayed in the Westpac Centre – it is precious".

At the presentation on Wednesday representatives from the Collingwood Football Club, 'Doc' Seddon and Ted Rowell's families attended.

Anzac Day

I went down, on the 25th of April,
To see the parade for Anzac Day
There were lots of old soldiers, row upon row,
They were all marching, come what may.

Look at their medals, shining bright,
They must have been so brave,
To fight the enemy with all their might,
And to bury friends in an early grave.

We see them now as grey old folk,
Though they were lads back then;
Some of those soldiers were just young boys,
But they fought with the hearts of men.

It's hard to imagine the hell they saw
On battlefields harsh, and vast;
So, at the very least, we should show respect
When they go marching past.

EVERY AUSTRALIAN PLACE ALLOCATED AT ANZAC DAY GALLIPOLI 2015

The ballot for attendance at Anzac Day commemorations at Gallipoli is now complete with all 8,120 places available for Australians allocated and accepted.

Minister Assisting the Prime Minister for the Centenary of ANZAC, Senator the Hon. Michael Ronaldson, said he was pleased the process had been completed 10 days out from Anzac Day, giving surety to those on the wait list.

"More than 42,000 Australians applied for 3,860 double passes for the commemorations at Gallipoli on Anzac Day this year. We remain grateful to Turkish authorities for their assistance in managing these very important commemorations which will involve so many Australians, and New Zealanders," Senator Ronaldson said.

Those without attendance passes to the Anzac Day commemorations may consider visiting Gallipoli on 6 August 2015 for the Battle of Lone Pine Centenary commemoration service. The Battle of Lone Pine saw some of the fiercest fighting of the Gallipoli campaign.

Australians may also consider attending a Dawn Service in Australia or overseas or watch the television broadcast of the Gallipoli and Villers-Bretonneux services on the ABC.

Australians attending the commemorations are reminded that they must obtain a Turkish entry visa before leaving home. The application is available online at www.evisa.gov.tr and costs US$60 per visa. Australians are also encouraged to register their travel on the Smartraveller website at www.smartraveller.gov.au

Gallipoli Dawn Service attendees who depart Australia before receiving their passes can collect them from a Ticketek pop-up office in Eceabat, Turkey from 20 to 23 April or on arrival at the Coach Registration/Attendance Pass scanning point at Akbas on 24 April. Information on location and opening times can be found at www.gallipoli2015.dva.gov.au

Stanthorpe residents to walk 16,000 kms around Australia

After two years of planning and preparation Stanthorpe residents Christine and Ian Robins are almost ready to take on the mammoth task of walking around Australia from May 2015 to July 2016 to fundraise for prostate and breast cancer.

With a cheery smile and absolute dedication the couple have decided that, since Ian has prostate cancer, the best way to combat cancer is to fund the finding of a cure and to promote the cause as far and as wide as possible.

Ian and Christine Robins are inviting everyone to attend their send-off ceremony on Saturday May 2 from 8am. Southern Downs Regional Council Mayor Cr Peter Blundell will officially begin the walk from the Stanthorpe Piazza.

The morning schedule will be:

8.00am welcome and meet and greet; Stanthorpe Lions Club breakfast sausage sizzle

8.25am Southern Downs Regional Town Crier Bob Townshend to announce Walk for Life event

8.30am Mayor's speech; official send-off

9.00am Walk for Life begins Mr Robins said he and wife Christine were very excited about their trip and were also delighted with the wonderful support received locally and around Queensland.

"Everyone we talk to is so positive about the trip and they're very encouraging. We know this is a huge challenge but so is fighting cancer and we go with that aim of beating this dreadful disease," he said.

Backed by Australian entrepreneur Dick Smith, the Robins feel their messages of hope and health promotion will reach more people if they fundraise through a major event that cannot be ignored.

"As I am still receiving treatment I will be a driver however Christine and a number of other Southern Downs people including Sonia and Eddie Tiller, Heidi Kuziw, Robyn Gimm and Dennis Sanders, will walk approximately 42 kilometres per day. We anticipate taking about 14 months to complete the 16,000 kilometre walk around Australia.

"Our route will take us from Stanthorpe to Cairns, across to Darwin and the west coast and then back to Queensland. "As the Walk for Life Team enter towns and cities we plan to have events to highlight the two causes and to invite the public to talk about their own experiences. We also hope to play a role in promoting early detection.

"Our aim is to inspire those suffering the effects of these debilitating cancers and their carers.

"It will certainly be an adventure and we feel we will gain so much by travelling our nation and, as the old saying goes, walking the walk and talking the talk," he said.

Another major sponsor for our Walk for Life is Cairns Best Freight with owners Dave and Jenny West very generous in their support.

Ian and Christine Robins welcome other sponsors and supporters to be part of the Walk for Life. They can be contacted on 0416 169 032.

Night Bowls Champions

The final round of the Summer night bowls competition was played last Tuesday evening at the Allora Sports Club. With two teams level at the end of the competition, a two end play-off was necessary to decide who would be champions for this season. The teams were Josh Kelleher, Lyn Patterson and Mal Sinton verses Doug Christenson, Chris Lawler and John Cochrane. Doug's team was one up after the first play-off end and then holding two shots in the second end after two near perfect bowls by Doug. With his last bowl, Josh clipped the "jack" sending it back over to his teams bowls, thereby winning the end by two shots. The overall result was a one shot win by Josh, Lyn and Mal. Many people who witnessed Josh's bowl will remember it for a long time as he displayed tremendous poise and maturity well beyond his age.

The night bowls competition was another outstanding success and the Sports Club is hoping for this to continue in the Spring season commencing in September. In the meantime, Patto will arrange for a number of bowls days through the Winter for the bowlers to keep their hand in.

Night bowls champions - Mal, Lyn and Josh.
