Link To Pioneers

Allora Anzac Day Service Guest Speaker, Lt. Col. Tony Cameron is the great, great, great grandson of Allora's first Town Clerk Alexander Cameron & his wife Esther. In this the 150th year since Allora was proclaimed a municipality; we are honoured to have Tony carry out this role.

Alexander and Esther lived in a home beside St. David's Church of England. Esther took great interest in church affairs. Alexander was the first Secretary of the Central Downs Agricultural and Horticultural Association. Esther was a show official and a keen exhibitor. She was known for her exquisite workmanship. A knitted quilt, awarded first prize at the annual show in 1910 is in the Allora & District Historical Society's collection.

Alexander Cameron drowned in Dalrymple Creek, falling from the steep bank as he walked home on the evening of 8th July 1882. Esther then aged 36 years was widowed with four daughters and three sons.

Esther known as "Granny" Cameron had an excellent memory and right up until her death aged 98, she could always be relied upon to relate faithfully an incident concerning the early history of Allora and district. When Bert Sims (editor of the Allora Guardian) wrote his book "Allora's Past", he acknowledged the assistance of both Esther Cameron and Sarah Clarke. They were both children of early Allora pioneers. Esther Ann Johnstone came to Australia with her mother Mary Woodhouse Gordon (nee Johnstone) and step-father Samuel Gordon. Sarah Clarke (nee Gordon) was the daughter of Mary and Samuel.

Lt. Col. Tony Cameron is linked to Allora's military history. Arthur Archibald Cameron son of Alexander and Esther and great, great grandfather of Tony enlisted in the 1st Contingent sent to South Africa to fight in the Boer War. He had had by then eighteen years' experience in the military. He was a member of the Queensland Mounted Infantry. At the time of his enlistment, Arthur was working at the Allora Guardian. His letters home were published in the paper. On his return home Arthur went on to become a successful businessman. He was Town Clerk, following in his father's footsteps, from 1906-1910. In 1915, Arthur applied for a commission in the Australian Infantry Force. At the time he was the licensee of the Railway Hotel and was a member of the Allora Council. He was aged thirty-eight and married with three young sons.

The Allora Guardian printed letters from Arthur detailing his experiences overseas leading up to his going into action at the front. Arthur's personal letters to his wife Elizabeth during his service were donated by his family to the Australian War Museum in Canberra. Arthur was killed in action in France on 26th February

Alexander Cameron, first Town Clerk 1869.

1917. After his death, Esther Cameron donated a portrait of her son in uniform to the "Portrait Gallery" in the Shire Offices.

Arthur Archibald Cameron's story was included in the Allora & District Historical Society's book "Keeping Their Memory Alive", the stories of the men from the Allora District who died in WWI.

The Cameron family are justifiably proud of Tony's achievements in the service of his country and of their connection to Allora and their pioneer ancestors. A large number of family members will be attending Anzac Day services in Allora.

(Alexander Cameron, Esther Ann Cameron, Sarah Eleanor Clarke, Samuel Gordon & Mary Woodhouse Gordon are listed on the "Last Pioneer Standing" raffle. Tickets $20.00 on sale at Warwick Credit Union. Prize $1,000)

Wellness retreat opens at Goomburra

Bel du Bois and Neil Erskine have created a new wellness retreat in the Goomburra Valley, east of Allora.

The Grain Shed Retreat is located in the picturesque Goomburra Valley.

The Grain Shed Retreat, is nestled amongst 900 acres of the picturesque mountains in the serene valley, alongside Main Range National Park.

The historic grain shed has been converted into a beautiful place to stay using all local timbers and sandstone with the authentic corrugated iron trimmings of the original shed giving it a rustic yet luxurious feel.

Bel and Neil established the facility to provide a country experience with the stunning Great Dividing Range as a backdrop.

The Grain Shed Retreat is fully self-contained and is available for short stay accommodation for those needing to escape their busy lives or for those looking for a rural experience, or a secluded, romantic getaway.

Bel and Neil offer a warm welcome and a variety of retreats and activities for individuals or couples.

These include yoga, meditation, massage, guided walks, bushwalking tracks, bird watching, swimming in the private waterhole and creek or guests can be left to relax, explore and enjoy the serenity of having the property themselves.

The Grain Shed Retreat is also registered as an NDIS short term accommodation for those with disabilities.

Police effort pays off

Over the past week, Allora Police have been targeting drug and property crime within the local area and their efforts have produced positive results.

Following the theft of a vehicle from an Allora residence in March, for which two men were arrested, Allora Police investigated a number of other related offences, which led to further charges being laid against the pair – both from the local area and the Gold Coast.

The 33 years old and 42 years old men have now been further charged with two counts each of entering a premises and committing an indictable offence, whilst the 33 years old man was also charged with an additional count of entering a premises and committing an indictable offence, and attempted unlawful entry to a vehicle with intent to commit an indictable offence.

Both men have been remanded in custody and are set to appear before Toowoomba Magistrates Court on a later date.

Further to this, multiple search warrants were executed in Allora and Deuchar, resulting in five persons being charged with nine drug and property related offences.

One 19 years old male was charged with stealing, possessing drug utensils, and breaching his bail conditions; a second 19 years old male was charged with possessing dangerous drug utensils; a 27 years old male was charged with possessing dangerous drugs and possessing drug utensils; a 30 years old woman was charged with possessing dangerous drugs and possessing drug utensils; and a 42 years old male was charged with possessing drug utensils.

Historical Society Display

This display has been created by members of the Allora & District Historical Society as part of the Southern Downs Heritage Festival theme "Connecting People, Places and the Past"

With Allora's 150 Year Celebration "Come Home To Allora" on 20th and 21st July, the society is connecting with people who want to celebrate this important date in Allora's history. We want people from places far and near to enjoy a day of comradeship with old friends and family members.

The dolls in the display were dressed by Ethel May Byrne (nee Morris) in outfits worn by children in days past. Ethel made the little sailor costumes on the child mannequins. Many photos show the sailor outfit to be a popular style worn by children of Allora and district in the 1800s. Also featured is a miniature 'May Pole'. A 'May Pole' dance will be part of the entertainment during the celebrations. Thank you to the management of the Allora Pharmacy for the use of their window for the display.

David Abbott to Speak at Men's Breakfast

The Allora Presbyterian Church will host its Men's Breakfast this month on Saturday, 27th April, at 7.20am, in the church hall. Brekky is free and is a bloke's breakfast – cereal, bacon and eggs and tea or coffee. Our guest speaker is David Abbott, who with his wife Val is a recent arrival to Allora, having relocated from NSW in 2018.

David served for many years as a Pastor in NSW since being Ordained as a Minister of Religion in 1982. As a Registered Minister of Religion, David has been privileged to conduct numerous Marriage Services in Churches, on beaches, in park lands and home gardens and recently returned from a trip to Taree to officiate at a wedding in early April.

David trained with Life Line as a Telephone Counsellor and was for 15 years, a Training Facilitator with the National Association for Loss and Grief, (NALAG).

David has worked at various roles to support his ministry. This has opened doors and allowed him to share with many families and individuals he may never otherwise have met. Before coming to QLD, David was a Hospital Chaplain for over 10 years with Hunter New England Area Health Service. David also provided funeral ministry to families on the Mid North Coast as a Chaplain for a local Funeral Home.

David will share his testimony of living a Christian life and His faith in the Living God who is with us all, on our journey of life.

Allora's Past 25 years ago April 1994

Park Battle Lost

Allora couple Val and Eric Ireland have lost their battle to prevent a new link road being constructed through Dalrymple Creek Park, which they say will destroy 12 established trees. The Irelands felt strongly that the existing road linking Herbert Street and Allora Drive could be upgraded with the loss of only two small trees. The Irelands have been nurturing the trees in the park for the past 12 years and felt that the new road, being built at a cost of $70,000 would not only unnecessarily destroy the aesthetics of the park but would be a huge waste of money. Mrs. Ireland said that in spite of two previous votes of six-to-four against re-routing the road, the Council had made a unanimous decision to go ahead with it while they were on holidays, and the first that they knew about it was when the Council started to rip out the trees on their return.

Debutante Ball

Fluttering streamers in shades of deep purple, mauve and silver grey were used in the decorative scheme for the Church of England debutante ball in the Central Hall. The function was attended by dancers from Warwick, Clifton, Pilton, Pratten and other districts. At 9.30 the six debutantes, preceded by little Justine Volker as flower girl, and Mrs. Max Pitkin as lady in waiting, entered the hall and proceeded to the stage where Mrs. O. C. Slade, Matron of Honour, presented them to Arch-deacon Knight. The debutantes were Miss Una Shooter, Allora; Miss Daphne Stewart, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Stewart, Allora; Miss Loris Clarke, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Clarke, Allora; Miss Iris Wilson, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson, Ellinthorpe; Miss Hilma Clarke, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Clarke, Allora; and Miss Jean Anderson (now Holmes) only child of Mr. S. Anderson.

The home team won by 33 runs on the first innings. The following are the scores:- Allora 85, E. Binstead 34 retired, McDermott 10; Victoria Hill 52, Robin 14, White 10. The visitors

POPULATION OF ALLORA

To the Editor of the Examiner & Times Sir,- Allow me to draw your attention to a misprint in the Government Gazette, and which you copied in your last issue. In the Allora petition for a municipality it is stated "that Allora contains a population of 400 souls," not 4000 as the Government Gazette has it. This error appears to cast ridicule both on the petition and its promoters. I hope, therefore, that you will insert this correction. Yours truly, One of the petitioners Allora, April 15th, 1869.

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

A bloke went into a pub. Seated at the bar beside an Irishman was a huge dog.

"Does your dog bite?" he asked the Irishman.

"No, he's as gentle as a lamb".

So the bloke patted him and the dog just about tore his arm off.

"You told me your dog didn't bite", he screamed.

"Yes", said the Irishman, "but that's not my dog".

Warriors face tough match on Sunday

The ongoing challenge between Toowoomba Rugby League (TRL) pacesetters Wattles Warriors and Valleys Roosters resumes on Sunday at Herb Steinhart Oval, the A Grade Warriors looking to level the ledger of the last season.

Wattles front up to the Roosters in Under 18 at 11.30am, Reserve Grade at 1pm followed by the A Grade match of Round 5 at 2.30pm.

The 2019 TRL A Grade grand finalists, Valleys and Wattles, clashed on four occasions last season with the reigning premiers Roosters rolling the Warriors in three of the four encounters.

The Warriors bubble burst at Herb Steinhart Oval in Round 4 this time last year at the hands of a committed Valleys outfit who ran in six tries to two winning 34-12.

The two premiership front-runners next contested the Madsen-Rasmussen Trophy mid-season championship, in what is considered one of the great finals across the 38 years of the prestigious Trophy's history.

A stirring second half surge appeared to have landed Wattles final success leading 22-8 with eleven minutes remaining, but they were denied after Valleys staged a mighty fight back in the final stages to snatch a 24-22 victory.

Last year's Round 15 clash between the two premiership heavyweights was a must win for Wattles and did just that at Platz Oval with a mighty 24-16 win over the Roosters.

In the fourth meeting of the two sides last year Wattles top grade side were denied a fifth TRL premiership at Glenholme Park when beaten by the Valleys in the dying minutes of the grand final 24-22.

The fanfare commences again on Sunday with Wattles running on against Valleys, both sides keen to finish with the premiership points in their first encounter of the TRL Centenary season.

Wattles have seen forward leader and lock forward Ryan Duggan and winger Michael Marshall and Blake Lollback on the injury list of late, but coach Travis Burns confirms he has a fully fit side to take on the Roosters.

"Blake and Ryan will return to the line-up, Michael needs more time with his injury," Burns said.

Wattles A Grade side to play on Sunday: 1. Nathan Gaulton, 2. Blake Lollback, 3. Nick Van Der Poel, 4. Jake Hargreaves, 5. Braydon Wilson, 6. Travis Burns, 7. Matt Duggan, 8. Mitchell Duff, 9. Joe Morris, 10. Dale Perkins (c), 11. Ty Gardner, 12. Mitch Koina, 13. Ryan Duggan (c), 14. Matt Richards, 15. Dylan Wilson, 16. Jordan Henry, 17. Michael Pearson.
