Economy Impacts on Auction Result

Allora Community Auction: Although it was still a large crowd of bargain hunters who turned out, numbers were down from previous years.

Tight economic times and the drought are thought to have had an impact on this year's Allora Community Auction.

The auction, held on Sunday, attracted a lower number of lots than is traditional and the crowd was down on previous years.

Allora Show Society president Mark Pillar estimated that attendance was down by at least 40 per cent.

Many items put up for sale did not reach the reserve, while quite a few lots did not attract bids.

"It's a sign of the times," Mr Pillar said.

"The drought and low interest rates had an impact."

Mr Pillar said a lot of younger people are taking advantage of the lower interest rates to buy new furniture rather than being attracted to old silky oak pieces.

Despite the response this year, there were plenty of willing workers who give their time talent at the auction.

"I'd like to thank all the volunteers who did a great job," the Show Society president said.

"In particular I want to thank the work camp girls from Warwick who did a tremendous amount of work with things such as catering and helping with the bookings.

"It's a huge effort from them."

Congratulations to Allora Butchery!

Locals already know you can buy the best pork sausages at The Allora Butchery - now everyone knows!

Aaron Vietheer and his team at the Allora Butchery took out first prize for the best pork sausages in South West Queensland. The judging for the Australian Meat Industry Council's Regional Sausage King Competition was recently held at FarmFest.

Pork that's used in the sausages is sourced locally from Aarolly Pork, Merivale Farms.

Aaron entered the same pork sausages he sells every day to the locals.

The beef sausages from The Allora Butchery were awarded third place.

The Allora Butchery's pork sausages will now go to the Ekka to be judged for the best in Queensland.

"You are making progress if every mistake you make is a new one"

Stuart Puts Down The Gavel After 40+ Years

One of the longest-serving supporters of the annual Allora Community Auction took his last bids on Sunday.

Auctioneer Stuart Bond from Warwick has been a familiar face at the auction for 43 of the 44 years since it started.

"I wasn't at the first one but I've done every auction since," Mr Bond said.

The auction was started by Allora Apex Club and three men organised it - Jim Leeson, Keith Masters (who are both deceased) and Barry Geitz, who now lives in North Queensland.

"Jim Leeson asked me to come along the second year," Mr Bond said.

"We used to get over 3,000 people - one year I think there were about 4,000 here, and we had as many as 3,000 lots.

"We were selling from 8 in the morning until 8 at night.

"I've seen the ground when you couldn't walk between the people and lots."

This year, about 1,700 lots were on offer.

Although he is stepping back from the Allora Community Auction, Stuart Bond is still in business at Warwick.

Although student numbers were down on previous years, we hope that the tradition can be re-established and we can continue to show, as a community, that we 'punch above our weight' when it comes to generosity in giving.

Although the amount we raised was modest because we could not cover every house in Allora, some people were very generous and welcoming of the students. On behalf of the Salvation Army, we thank the community for its generosity. Thank you also to club president, Liz Marshall, for her organisation work, to the members and teachers who assisted with transport and the students who gave their Sunday morning.

Huge Capital Works program plans for the future in Council's 2019-2020 Budget

Southern Downs Regional Council is looking to the future with one of its largest ever Capital Works programs after adopting its 2019-2020 Annual Budget.

Council has dedicated $35.8 million towards Capital Works in the Budget to maintain and upgrade key infrastructure throughout the region.

A highlight of the Capital Works program includes $12.59 million on the region's roads, bridges, drainage and footpaths.

Council will also deliver an $833,000 extension of the footpath from Quart Pot Creek to Maryland Street in Stanthorpe, a $790,000 transport link from East Street in Warwick and a $652,000 upgrade to Bourkes Road Bridge in Freestone, while more than $280,000 has been budgeted for the replacement of the roof on the Allora Reservoir.

Deputy Mayor Jo McNally said renewing the region's ageing infrastructure is vital for long-term planning and ensuring the region's continual growth and prosperity.

"This Budget is about strong financial management and reducing the debt to ensure SDRC is financially sustainable into the future and we have been very successful in achieving that goal," Cr McNally said.

Allora Reservoir on Allora Mountain.

An SDRC spokesperson commented that SDRC has removed the damaged roof and the Allora Reservoir is currently offline. Council has conducted a condition assessment on the reservoir as well as work to repair any damage. SDRC has allocated funds in next year's budget to replace the roof, and Council will return the reservoir to full service once this has occurred. Allora's urban water supply is sourced from Leslie Dam, so the reservoir being offline has not impacted the supply of water to Allora residents.

All of the proposed works for next financial year are detailed in the budget, which you can find here www.sdrc.qld.gov.au/council/publications/finance-publications.

Allora's Sporting Immortals

Rugby League great Col Laws was inducted into The Allora Regional Sports Museum Hall of Fame in 2017

The Allora Regional Sports Museum committee is currently taking nominations for the first Allora Immortal to be named on the day of the 150 year time capsule reburial.

There are presently 53 current and former Allora sports stars nominated for the award, with the likes of Laura Geitz, Matt Denny, Greg Holmes, Carmen Batterham and many more all in contention.

Shane Webcke will be MC for the function to be held at 1pm at the Allora Regional Sports Museum which follows on from the reburial of the capsule at 9.45am.

The nominations will get shortlisted to a group of 20,

Rugby league great Steve (Gibbo) Gibson became the first Allora Sporting Hall of Fame Icon of Sport in 2017. Steve Gibson played rugby league for Wattles before moving to England to play for Salford.

then independent judges from outside the shire will come together to form a top 10.

Fortunately for the time capsule, most of the content escaped without too much water damage, with the tapes still being converted.

Perry Cronin is asking anyone with contributions for the reburial to contact him on 0407 034 320.

Mr Cronin said it was lucky it was dug up because in another 50 years time nothing would have been left.

The items will be wrapped in conservation paper this time, courtesy of the Queensland Museum.

'Rattle of the Brains' Trivia Night

The Annual St Patrick's P&F 'Rattle of the Brains' Trivia Night was hotly contested on Friday night, 31st May, at the Allora Community Hall. A large crowd of around 160 people gathered to test their knowledge on a wide array of topics.

The winning team was 'Not Cheating at this table', who scored 67 points. In second place was 'No idea at all' on 66 points. The Wooden Spoon this year was awarded to the 'The Kitchen'! The money raised from this annual event allows the P&F to assist the school with purchases such as classroom and library resources as well as IT and sporting equipment.

As well as the trivia questions which were read out by St Patrick's School principal Ty Maher, there was a huge multi draw raffle which saw a large number of participants taking away some amazing prizes. There was also a silent auction with some very popular items up for grabs!

The crowd was well fed with nibbles, pizza and supper, all served by St Patricks year 6 students, and an enjoyable evening was had by all!

The night would not have been a success with out the generous financial support and donations from our local and regional sponsors. The St Patrick's school P&F sincerely appreciate this generosity and would like to extend special thanks to our sponsors: Allora Advertiser, Warwick Daily News, Gordon Country, Darwalla Group, Pacific Seeds, TJ Commercial & Aquatics, Allora Post Office, Big W Distribution Centre, Black Toyota, Clifton Auto Ag Repairs, IOR Petroleum, Merivale Farms, Michael Maher Sand & Gravel, Railway Hotel, Warwick Credit Union, West Talgai Feedlot, Purehouse (Allora), STP Farming Pty Ltd, Allora Independent Steel, Allora Joinery, Ashmore Palms Holiday Village, D Gengos & Co, Darling Downs Tarpolins, Drennert Haulage, Financial Order Bookkeeping & Office Solutions, FKE Mechanical & Sons, Naturalite Studio, Wilson and Rigby Smash Repairs, Allora District & Tyres, Jenco's, Allora Butchery, Allora Grain & Milling, Allora Newsagency, Little Grey Elephant, Park Lane with Bec, Wild Sage, Oscar & Oscar, Bunnings, Big W, Cassaz Colourful Curis, Kmart (Ruthven Street), John & Kate Gordon, Amy's Country Café.

Allora 150 Year Celebrations
20th - 21st July 2019

Let's make the 150 Year Celebration Parade the best ever. We are asking people to use their imagination to create a great atmosphere. Already we have three local bands, members of a local club dressed in period costume, members of the farming community entering their old tractors and machinery, horse drawn sulkies, local organisations in costume, penny farthing bicycles, the local Doctor Who Club. The pony club members will be there and would you believe old Mick Bradford and his team. Talking about old, can't wait to see the Homestead residents all dressed up with specially made hats for the parade. And those crazy, zany women in red hats will be in it too.

What can you do? If you are a sportsperson, dress in your uniform. Hey, all you cricketers, footballers, netball players, bowlers, gymnast, (maybe we will excuse the swimming club members), polo players, camp draft enthusiasts. The list goes on – got the idea!

Think there are some cow cockies and stockmen and women who are seriously thinking of taking part. How about the bee keepers, the fire fighters, the mechanics, the nurses and the publicans, you too can enter the in the fun.

Mums and Dads, we want the local children to participate too. Have they got a favourite fancy dress?

Am sure there a Spidermen lurking out there. What about the Cowboys and Indians and all the fairies. Too old fashioned, can we have some Star War characters or astronauts and jet pilots. Fifty years ago, the children of Allora and district decorated their bicycles. Steve Lehmann remembers and he and his brothers and all their mates had a ton of fun decorating their two wheelers and maybe the odd three wheeler. Do you remember when long strands of crepe paper was wrapped around the spokes to make a pattern that looked great when you pedalled like mad.

Some of the entrants in the 1969 parade celebrating Allora's 100 years anniversary.

Sister Beryl Sharpe – Pioneer No. 31 – Matron of Mirrabooka Private Hospital

Beryl Tansley Sharpe known as Bee, born in 1898, was the second daughter of five children born to parents Joseph Tansley and Grace Sharpe.

In 1918 when she was aged twenty, Beryl taught art at the Technical College. At aged thirty she commenced her training as a nurse at the Warwick General Hospital. She ran a private hospital named Mirrabooka in Forde Street. This building is in use today as a private residence.

A search in Warwick newspapers on Trove reveal some stories about the patients who were treated at Mirrabooka. On 24th March 1934, Joseph Lynam farmer was admitted. He had been thrown by his horse, lay unconscious overnight until found by a school boy the next day. Joseph was taken to Warwick hospital and an x-ray showed fractured bones in his neck. His condition was reported as serious. Another patient admitted to Mirrabooka in April the same year was Mrs Rothwell, the wife of the Reverend Rothwell. She slipped down the bank of the creek while cray fishing with a party near the Allora Golf Links. Mrs Rothwell was reported as sustaining a fracture of the left leg below the knee.

One newspaper clipping tells of Sister Snowball taking leave of her nursing duties at Mirrabooka at Toowoomba. In 1936 a group of local women passed their First Aid examinations. In order to complete their first aid course they were to be instructed in home nursing at Mirrabooka.

Of the births found recorded in the Births columns of these newspapers - 1944 - Peter Robert, son of Peter and Beth Easton. 1934 - Rhondda June, daughter of Mr & Mrs Kent (nee Muriel Phillips); Bruce Peter, son of Monica (Hilton) and Captain E G Williams A.I.F (brother to Tony and Alan);

To Daphne and Rev. A E. Loxton St David's Rectory, a son; A son, David to Shiela (nee Simpson) and Flight Sergeant H J Thornburn R.A.A.F. (Many Allora and district babies were born at Mirrabooka, the few mentioned were just the ones found on Trove in Warwick newspapers)

In a notice of the death of Edgar Cockburn, the Doctor, Matron and Staff of Mirrabooka were thanked. Beryl's mother Grace died in Mirrabooka on 9th July 1934.

Beryl Sharpe ran the Mirrabooka Hospital until 1947. Beryl died in 1969 and is buried in the Allora cemetery.

Other Allora nurses on the Last Man Standing Raffle Pioneer list are No. 48 - Sister Ada Pricilla Smith (Farnsworth). Ada trained at the Warwick Base Hospital. She enlisted at the outbreak of WW1 and served in Cairo and France; No. 49 - Sister Amy Louise

Nagel. Amy served in WW1 on troop ships, England and France; No. 81 - Nurse Elizabeth Roberts; No. 84 - Sister Christina Stewart (Chandler) and No. 85 - Sister Alma Galley (Hoey). Chris and Alma were the first nursing sisters at the Dalrymple Private Hospital which was operated by the Allora and District Co-Operative Hospital. Chris and Alma were the only staff, working for half pay. They cooked, cleaned as well as nursing the patients under difficult conditions and scant amenities. Apex Auction

The Allora Apex Club will investigate having its annual auction listed in the Guinness Book of Records. The president, Lyle Johnson, said that he believed that the one-day auction was one of the largest in the Southern Hemisphere. The 19th annual auction held last Monday grossed $127,300 and was the most successful to date. Mr. Johnson said that he was very pleased with the turnout and with the number of buyers. With profits from the canteen of $7740, the club should clear $19,500 which will be shared amongst various community organizations including the Brownies, Scouts, both Allora schools, the Historical Society, the Spastic Welfare League, the Cancer Foundation and others.

Leslie Leonard Carpenter (21), a soldier from N.S.W., was fined £15 in default 2 months imprisonment in the Warwick Police Court for the unlawful use of a motor vehicle, the property of William Major Holmes of Allora. Mr. Holmes had parked his car temporarily outside his place of business in Allora. Just after entering the shop he heard the car being started and saw three Australian soldiers driving away in the direction of Warwick. He notified the Allora police who advised the Warwick police. The car was located in Pratten Street, Warwick, where it was kept under observation by Constable Croker of Allora and members of the Provost Corps. Carpenter was arrested when he returned to the car and attempted to start it.

Football

On Saturday last Spring Creek met the Allora Boomerangs on the local ground which proved to be the fastest and most friendly game played here during the past two or three seasons. Most of the first half was an even affair until five minutes before half time when Budd scored in the corner for the Boomerangs. The kick at goal failed leaving the scores Boomerangs 3, Spring Creek nil. Shortly after half time the Spring Creek Blacks turned it on and Christensen scored near the posts. Grimes missed an easy kick and the scores were locked at 3-all at full time. The visitors were afterwards entertained at Dean Swift's Royal Hotel where Ralph Sharpe, Vic Laws and G. Hall welcomed the newly formed club to Allora. Cliff Saal, J. Christensen and Bill Grimes spoke on behalf of the visitors. A vote of thanks was moved to Mr. R. Benstead who ably acted as referee. Three rousing cheers were given to Mr. Swift, which ended a great day's sport for the followers of the League game.

ALLORA

From a Correspondent

A number of town lots have been surveyed at the Railway Station, Allora, and offered for sale under the name Hendon. "Hemmed-in" would be a more appropriate name for them, for what with pre-emptive purchases and "dummy" selections, it is only a waste of money to pay the survey fees for such lands, and with the exception of one or two lots immediately opposite the railway station, they will never find a purchaser. Toowoomba Rugby League Round 11 - Wattles are back on home turf at Platz Oval this Sunday with a near full day of quality rugby league.

The Warriors 'Willett Electrical, Allora' Under 18's have another opportunity to nail premiership points with a win over the low-on-the ladder Oakey Bears.

The Brenden Wilson coached Wattles 'South East Engineering Services, Clifton' Reserve graders are sitting second on the premiership ladder, a victory

Similarly, Wattles 'Railway Hotel, Allora' first grade side will cement a place in the upcoming Madsen-Rasmussen Trophy final with a victory over the Oakey Bears.

Wattles two senior sides missed premiership points last weekend due to a bye.

Wattles Porker Sprints - All involved with the Wattles Rugby League Club wish to thank major sponsor Tony Morris Tiling, our individual pig race sponsors and all who attended our Wattles Porker Sprints and Moo Poo Lotto fundraiser at Platz Oval on Saturday night.

The weather wasn't at its best but it did little to dampen a very successful and entertaining night.

Special thanks to all the valued volunteers who made the event possible, and congratulations to ardent club supporter Mrs Kylie Koina who collected a cool $2500 as winner of the novel Moo Poo Lotto.

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

An Irish priest offered $5 to the boy who could tell him who was "the greatest man in history".

"Columbus", said one, "George Washington", said another, "St Patrick", shouted a third.

"The $5 is yours. But as the only Jewish boy in class, why did you choose St Patrick?"

"Right down in my heart I knew it was Moses", he replied "but business is business".
