End of an Era

Saturday's clearing sale on the property "Oaklands" at Berat saw the end of an era, with the Cavanagh family's ownership coming to an end.

The Cavanagh Family have lived at Oaklands since 1923 - a total of 96 years - and were dairy farmers for all that time until April this year when the farm was sold by owner Peter Cavanagh, the 3rd generation to live there.

Peter's grandfather John Cavanagh junior, son of an Irish immigrant, married Bridget O'Dea a girl from Spring Creek north of Allora in October 1900.

Bridget and John lived and farmed at Upper Freestone until 1910, moving to Sladevale, then Eight of the ten Cavanagh siblings - Monica, Cathy, Judy, Maria, Peter, Pat, Ted, Lawry - absent are Denise (Sydney) and Helen (Brisbane).

to Glengallan Station for 8 years, bringing up 11 children, 8 boys and 3 girls, Jack, Kev, Mary (O'Dempsey), Mart, Joe, Tom, Francie (McLellan), Jim, Mick, Ned and Catherine (Dolly) (Jeude).

In 1920 they moved to the Pilton area to a dairy farm owned by the Berniche family until 1923, then moving to Berat to share farm with the Deans (James Dean was a mayor and shire chairman of Allora from 1913 to 1921).

Letters to the Editor...

The following letter, received by Allora & District Historical Society, has been submitted for publication -

A huge thank you to yourself and your team for organizing such a lovely event. We thought we would share a few of our memories of the day which you may use if you wish to. To the people we met during the day we say a big thank you for showing the spirit of goodwill that exists in Allora. A special mention to the ladies of the Op Shop who gave us a giggle or two before we went on our way (I especially appreciated the loan of one lovely lady's glasses). We loved the characters we met and the stories they told us and a thank you also to your hairdresser for having the hat for sale which I am wearing in the photos. Once I purchased that, I felt I could have driven away in one of those beautiful cars of yesteryear. I actually had an umbrella in my bag so I began to feel in fact I was becoming Mary Poppins herself - Ha ha.

I am very proud to know my ancestors had a place in the history of such a wonderful town and I now know Allora has a special place in my own heart. I am certain we will be back very soon. Again thank you and well done.

Dear Editor,

The Allora & District Historical Society wishes to thank Rob and Eliza Nioa, owners of Talgai Homestead, for opening their home last Saturday as part of Allora's 150 year celebrations. More than seven hundred visitors enjoyed the opportunity to experience the home and surroundings. All funds raised from the cost of entry and the sale of the Talgai Homestead book have gone to the ADHS.

We also extend our thanks to Talgai staff for their efforts in providing refreshments, to Lesley Telford for playing the grand piano and to the volunteers who controlled the car park, the entry points or who helped in any other way. Thank you all for your contribution to a very successful and enjoyable day.

John Cowley (for ADHS)

To the Editor

Where's ya bins? Or more to the point where are my bins? Last Friday week I moved the waste bins from the footpath in Herbert Street to the backyard. I do this whenever there is an event pending as past experience has taught me that if left on the footpath they will be used by the public in all sorts of inappropriate ways. The bins disappeared some time on Saturday and as yet have not returned. The suggestion was they were "borrowed" to be used to supplement those needed around the town where there was a shortage of bins. My enquiries as to where they went and who took them as well as having them returned or replaced have fallen on deaf ears. The Council won't replace them unless the landowner requests so and only the Council can report them as stolen as technically they own them. I pointed out to the Police however that the contents were my property until the bins were put out for collection and that whoever removed them had trespassed on the property to do so meanwhile my rubbish piles up. Has anyone gained extra bins in the last week, if so please return them to 53A Herbert Street, Allora.

Regards Geoff, Allora

Simple distraction causes vehicle roll-over

A Bony Mountain male escaped injury during a vehicle roll over in East Hendon on Monday morning, July 29.

The crash occurred when the 33-years-old male admittedly took his attention from the road to adjust his car-stereo.

Initially travelling north-bound, the vehicle crossed to the incorrect side of the road when the driver over-corrected, then rolled several times before coming to land on its roof beside the roadway.

The driver was checked at the scene by QAS Officers but was released and otherwise walked away without injury, however the vehicle was a write-off.

The driver has been dealt with for the offence of driving without due care and attention.

This is one of the State's "Fatal 5" main causes for crashes.

Drivers are urged to maintain care at all times while driving.

Congratulations Laura and Mark!

Proud parents Laura & Mark with baby Frank.

Excited parents Laura Geitz and Mark Gilbride welcomed into the world last Thursday a healthy baby boy named Frank. A brother for young Barney, Frank weighed 3.7kg, measured 54 cm in length and was born at the Mater Mothers' Hospital.

Both Bub and Mum are doing well. Laura's Mother Juanita is thrilled with the arrival of Frank and it's extra special as he was born on the same day as her Mum, who passed away two years ago, aged 90.

Commercial Hotel Allora. It was well attended by representatives of local organisations and the Scope Club of Ballina.

Anthony Ryan, the CEO of Youngcare, proposed the toast to Scope Clubs of Australia Inc. and Merianne Taylor from Bush Kids was the guest speaker. She gave a very interesting run down on the work they do in the area, which includes regular visits to Allora.

The Clubs donations to local organisations were distributed and $2000 was donated to the Warwick Safe Haven. This is the National Project for 2019.

Val Rose, the representative of Warwick Safe Haven was very grateful for Scope's continued support over the years.

Jill Leeson is the president for the coming year and we wish her well.

The "Christmas in July" raffle in aid of Youngcare was won by Dawn Heath.

On Sunday, 28th July 2019, the Scope Club of Allora Inc. held their annual changeover luncheon at the Here there was dairying, lucerne and crop growing on a property of 300 acres, made up of a 180 and a 120 acre block called Oaklands.

The family stayed there share farming with Ned staying on the farm with his parents.

In August 1948 Ned married Ilma Rauchle a school teacher from Upper Forest Springs, originally from Leyburn and Warwick.

Ned and Ilma had 10 children - Peter, Maria (Williams), Monica, Judith (Naumann), Patrick, Catherine (Keogh), Lawrence, Denise (Saar), Edward (Ted) and Helen (Hanson).

Ned's parents moved to Allora to retire in 1954 and in 1957 Ned and Ilma purchased the farm from the Deans, continuing to dairy, supplying cream to the Allora Dairy Co-op and growing mixed cereal crops, growing lucerne and raising pigs for income.

Peter returned to the farm after completing Junior at Christian Brothers School in Warwick. He stayed for the next 55 years, purchasing the property from his parents in 1986, developing the creek-fed irrigation and later the underground irrigation to cover the entire farm.

A new Herringbone dairy was built in 2001; and the large hay shed burnt down in 2010, but was rebuilt.

The farm ceased to be an operating dairy in April this year, with all the cows sold to an existing Darling Downs dairy farm. Peter now lives in Allora.

"Oaklands" has been purchased by Michael and Toni Dwan, who already have land just one farm away, across the creek from the old Cavanagh property. Over eleven years they have been raising cattle and growing hay, while developing an embryo program as part of their Elwynvale Limousins stud. The Dwans were attracted to the Cavanagh farm because of the reliable water supply through its irrigation licence, and the creek supply. They plan to produce fodder and hay on Oaklands.

NEW OWNERS - Michael and Toni Dwan.

Saturday's clearing sale went well with some 263 lots on offer and more than 120 bidders registered.

Jumpers and Jazz in July
Mrs Sharman and a group of students from

Allora P-10 State School's Friday Future's "Jazz and Jumpers" class decorated a tree for the annual Jumpers and Jazz in July competition in the theme of "A Feast of Colour", in the Yarnbombing School Displays 2019.

Students created creatures and features of a pond using a range of textiles and construction methods including stitching, finger, hand and arm knitting, crochet, felting, weaving and threading. They take this opportunity to thank community helpers Michelle and Tracy Wilson, whose creativity and guidance were the driving forces behind the group. Warwick Art Gallery Director, Karina Devine did the judging and announced Allora State School as this year's winners. Congratulations to all involved.

Brothers George and Gordon Langton scored all but four of the points in Wattles 44-0 runaway win over Gatton at Clifton. Gordon opened the scoring after 15 minutes when he finished off a set move involving Wattles centres Brendan Bange and Vince Ramsay. Ramsay scored shortly afterwards when he finished off an attacking move instigated by Bange. George Langton accepted a flick pass from Jason Denny shortly before half time and scored to begin his try scoring bonanza. In the second half George Langton scored a further four tries and kicked 6 goals to give him 32 points for the match. Gordon Langton also scored another try in the second half.

On Saturday last Mr. E. J. Anderson of Goomburra lent his grounds for a sports meeting for the purpose of raising funds for the Goomburra sub-branch of the Red Cross Association.

Sports Day at E. J. Anderson's property at Goomburra in the 1940's. Photo is courtesy of the Gouldson family.

Approximately 400 people attended and spent a very enjoyable day. The gross takings of £174/15/0 are a pleasing indication of the success of the committee's work. Women members of the Goomburra sub-branch were responsible for the luncheon and the dance at night. Mr. H. Pullen (Ellinthorpe) judged the horse events and bullock riding and gave every satisfaction.

Mamie Burge taken in Herbert Street c.1919.

Premature Death

The death took place last week of Miss Mamie Burge, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burge at the early age of 15 years. The deceased was a most promising girl, was of fine physique and possessed much mental ability. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. Elliott (Church of England), the elder scholars of the State School marching in procession to the cemetery. The flag at the State School hung at half mast in honour of the deceased. The sympathy of the citizens of Allora and district goes out to the bereaved in this, their time of sorrow.

From our own Correspondent The Roman Catholic's intend to build a church here shortly. A subscription list has been going the rounds this week and about £25 has already been promised. When it is completed, there will be three churches in Allora - Church of England, Wesleyan and Roman Catholic. I suppose the next move will be for a School of Arts, an institution greatly needed.

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

One day Jimmy got home early from school and his mom asked, "Why are you home so early?"

He answered, "Because I was the only one that answered a question in my class."

She said, "Wow, my son is a genius. What was the question?"

Jimmy replied, "The question was 'Who threw the trash can at the principal's head?'"

Thrilling culmination to Downs Polo trilogy

The dust was flying and the champagne flowing at the annual Picnic at the Polo hosted by the Downs Polo Club at their Sapphire Shield tournament in Clifton last weekend.

The tournament was the third in a row for the Downs Polo Club this season, and was their most successful yet, with 12 teams contesting three grades.

Winners of the A Grade were the Goondiwindi side of Dave, Sam and Tom Coulton, and Will Gilmore, who took out the finals five goals to four and half in the dying seconds, over their opponents, Downs Raff team members, Angus Gunn, Peter Cooke, Damien Allport and Justin Cowley.

The B Grade title was won by the Colliers International team and the C Grade winners were the Downs Hoey Floats team.

The team of A grade playing ponies was won by Will Gilmore with his string of "Tayza", "Vibe", "Halloween", and "Story".
