Ekka Exhibitor Success

Clint Kenny from Deuchar competed in a range of Percheron events at the Ekka last week, putting in a solid performance in all categories.

Rivoli Farm took a colt and two mares to the show with the two mares Southern Cross Jasmine and Cobigan Pandora placing first and second in the mare class.

Southern Cross Jasmine then went on to win Best Percheron Exhibit.

The colt Southern Cross Crown Prince won the Percheron Colt / Stallion Led Class.

Mr Kenny has been displaying draft horses for a bit over 10 years but this is his first time winning a Royal Show.

Roaming pets a concern

Residents in the region are voicing their concerns over the way property owners are dealing with lost and roaming pets.

They're worried people who find them aren't taking the right steps to help return them.

The Southern Downs Regional Council has cat traps available to rent for residents experiencing difficulties with cats straying on their properties.

The cost of the trap is $10 per week with a $60 deposit (which is refundable upon return).

The SDRC website states the following:

"These traps are basic cage traps. Food is placed on the plate inside the cage.

"When the animal steps on the plate, or disturbs the food on the hook, the door of the trap closes behind them.

"These cats can be dropped off at our 24 hour drop off boxes located at both pound facilities.

"Cat traps may be hired from any of council's Administration Centres at Warwick or Stanthorpe.

"Residents are requested to contact council prior to calling in, to check on trap availability.

"Traps are available for hire for a minimum of a 7 day period.

"Traps are to be returned to council on the due date."

Southern Downs RADF Funding

Southern Downs Regional Council is one of 59 local governments set to share in more than $4 million under the 2019-20 funding for the long standing Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF).

The Regional Arts and Development Fund (RADF) was established in 1991 and is funded by both state and local government in partnership.

Minister for the Arts Leeanne Enoch said the State Government is proud to continue its RADF partnership with local governments with an investment of $2.08 million, through Arts Queensland, for the 2019-20 fund.

"This investment, along with the $2 million from 59 local governments, will support the delivery of hundreds of arts experiences and professional development opportunities across the state," Ms Enoch said.

"RADF enables local councils and communities to determine arts and cultural priorities on a local level, with projects selected and developed by local councils.

"Projects funded through RADF provide pathways for learning, contribute to the creation of jobs, foster creativity and boost cultural tourism."

Southern Downs Regional Council has been allocated $55,000.

For more information about RADF, applicants are encouraged to visit their local council's website or www.arts.qld.gov.au

Is your water meter easily accessible?

Is your water meter easily accessible? Southern Downs Regional Council will begin water meter readings across the region from Monday 26 August 2019 until approximately the end of September 2019.

SDRC's Water team is reminding ratepayers and tenants to ensure that their water meters are easily accessible to Council meter readers.

Water meters should be free from debris, grass, garden mulch, soil and other obstacles. If stop taps cannot be located easily in the event of a water leak, water damage and water consumption can escalate resulting in increased costs.

Ratepayers are responsible for water infrastructure located on their property's side of the water meter, including leaks in pipes or fixtures.

Residents are also kindly asked to ensure that Council meter readers can gain entry to their property and water meter easily. If meter readers are unable to do so because gates are locked or animals prevent entry, a calling card will be left asking residents to contact the Council meter reader/s that attended the property to arrange access.

The Utility Notices which include the Water Consumption Charges as well as the Water Access and Wastewater Access charges is scheduled to be issued in early October 2019. Like the Annual Rates Notice, Council has extended the due date of the Utility Notice to 60 days.

For further information about water meter readings, contact Council on 1300 MY SDRC (1300 697 372) or visit Council's website at www.sdrc.qld.gov.au.

And while in Allora, feel free to visit...

Prepare, Act, Survive - Desperate times

In a fire emergency, who would you call? And would you expect a firefighter to come straight away? Right now the Allora Fire Station is running short of Auxiliary Firefighters at the time when we all need them most.

If you are driven to lend a hand in times of crisis and make a difference for your community, the Queensland Fire and Emergency Services needs and wants you.

Auxiliary Firefighters are casual station-based firefighters who respond to emergency situations when the demand arises.

If you'd like to apply here are the pre-requisites -

- Manual C Class Driver Licence held at least 1 year

- or Manual Medium Rigid Driver Licence
- Minimum of 18 years of age at the commencement of paid employment
- Australian/New Zealand citizen or permanent residence status
- Employer's written consent to attend incidents and emergencies (where applicable)

To be considered for a role, you must live and work with a reasonable distance to an Auxiliary Fire Station to ensure compliance with response time targets.

If you're interested there's training every Wednesday at the Allora Fire and Rescue Station in Muir Street or you're welcome to attend The Allora Rural Allora & District Rural Fire Brigade.

Fire Brigade Annual General Meeting on Monday 2nd September at 7.30pm.

Exceptionally higher than average temperatures and low soil moisture have increased the risk of bushfires in Queensland. Tinder dry conditions continue, making parts of south-west Queensland vulnerable.

Simple tasks around the home and farms should be carried out such as removing leaf litter, clearing gutters and trimming low-lying branches.

Review your Bushfire Survival Plan and ensure everyone in the household knows what to do in case of emergency.

Be sure your first aid kit is stocked and protective clothing on hand. Preparation is the key to survival.

In 1871 the Kennedy brothers, Thomas, James and David came to Allora and purchased the general store-keeping business of Francis Kates. They later established branch stores in Leyburn and Clifton trading as Kennedy Bros. In 1883 they opened the White Rose flour mill in Allora. Thomas Kennedy was Allora mayor in 1885, 1886 and 1887. James was Allora mayor in 1901.

Judy Bradford (nee Hinrichsen), a great granddaughter of James Kennedy, has written a self-published book called "The Kennedy Family History". She recently presented a copy of the book to the Allora and District Historical Society.

Allora Historical Society Assesses 150th Celebrations

Last Wednesday, members of the Allora & District Historical Society held a meeting to congratulate themselves on organising a successful event for Allora to celebrate its sesquicentennial year.

Members met in the renovated Old Shire Chambers building for the first time since they moved the collection out over twelve months ago to enable the Southern Downs Regional Council officers to commence assessment of repairs needed to restore the building. The money for the restoration was made available to SDRC from a State Government Grant.

The 150 Year Celebration was a success because many business people and individuals came forward to offer sponsorship and donations to promote and advertise the event and encourage people to visit Allora.

The event enabled members of the Allora & District Historical Society to raise money for the society to maintain their museum premises, cover ongoing costs and make improvements. The "Come Home to Allora" pens were very popular, the "Last Man Standing Raffle" tickets netted $1,000, the Pioneer Dinner was sold out and the calendar which Wendy Ardrey & Alana Frizzell put together using historic photos and photos of everyone and everything Allora as it is today, is selling well.

Catherine & John Cowley compiled a beautiful booklet featuring Talgai Homestead using photos owned by the descendants of the Clark family who built the historic sandstone buildings as well as photos taken by Andrew Balmain & Gwen Gillam. The cost of production of this book was donated by Robert and Eliza Nioa who also generously opened their home with the proceeds donated to the Historical Society.

The RSL Allora Sub-Branch hosted a Poet's Breakfast and gave $5.00 a head to the Historical Society; Leah Kelly gave a similar donation from the Meet the Maker stall holders; the Allora Art & Craft Group also gave a donation from items sold and the CWA donated the cost of the meals for the Official Party.

The Historical Society is planning to host a 'billy tea and damper' morning tea on Saturday, 7th September, from 10.00am to show their appreciation to the many volunteers & sponsors who helped make the 150th weekend celebrations such a success. Andrew Bryson & mates will cook the dampers on site at 53 Warwick St (Old Shire Chambers) & photos/videos of the weekend can be viewed on the screen inside the building. Come along for a chat & pat on the back.

After watching Queensland Weekender, which featured aspects of the 150 Year Celebration, Allora is sure to be listed as a destination by many viewers far and wide.

Metropolitan District Court

John Hyslop was charged with stealing a purse containing three £1 notes and some silver, the property of Thomas Ayres. In evidence given, the two men were amongst a group of men engaged in building the Hendon Hotel. Michael Culhane said that the men had come to his hotel about 2 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon and started drinking together. About 4 o'clock they laid down on beds in one of the rooms. John McGarry stated that he had seen the accused take the purse from the defendant. H. Reinhart stated that he had later opened the purse and there was only £1/17/0 in it. Sergeant Grayson said that the accused had told him that he taken the purse for safe keeping because the defendant was too drunk to look after it. The prisoner was found not guilty.

The Warriors preparation this week is focused on taming Goondiwindi when they meet this Sunday at Clive Berghofer Stadium kicking off at 1.00pm.

Wattles 14 (Eden Blewitt 2 tries; Tom Morris 3 goals) defeated Highfield 0.

A Grade - On Sunday afternoon the Wattles were overwhelmed by the Warwick Cowboys 26 - 12 in a six try to two walloping.

"Warwick were too good on the day" said Wattles co-skipper Dale Perkins, "we didn't show up to play".

To be faced with possible elimination from the TRL Centenary Season finals series if things don't go well against semi-final opponents the Dalby Diehards this weekend " is not the position we wanted to be in but it might be what we need to kick us into gear" according to Perkins.

Ever dependable centre Nick Van Der Poel was among those to shine in Wattles colours, while second-rower Ty Gardner and former Queensland Rangers halfback Matt

Duggan were effective against the fiercely committed Warwick outfit.

Player / coach Travis Burns, along with star halfback Matt Duggan was named among the TRL top five players only last week has the added challenge to recover from a badly corked leg.

Warwick 26 (Zach Koitka 2, Mat Marshall, Mitch Watson, Cody Byrne, Jarred Bradfield; Mat Marshall goal) defeated Wattles 12 (Nick Van der Poel, Ty Gardner tries; Matt Duggan 2 goals).

"Where there is love there is life."

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

Two roadworkers sit down for their lunch break.

One opens his brown paper bag and exclaims in disgust, "Aw, look mate! Flamin' raspberry jam sandwiches again!"

His mate say "Why don't you go crook at your missus and get her to give you somethin' else?"

"That's me trouble, mate. She's away and so I have to cut me own lunch!"
