Activists face jail

Member for Maranoa, David Littleproud has welcomed new laws that will protect farming families from activist invasions.

The Criminal Code Amendment (Agricultural Protection) 2019 introduces new offences for using the internet to incite trespass, theft or property damage on agricultural land.

"Aussie Farms organisers have a choice, take your attack map down or go to jail," Minister Littleproud said.

"They need to respect the privacy of farmers or they could spend five years in a cell reflecting on what they've done."

"These invasions are dangerous and intimidating, like when 20 activists broke into the Carey Bros abattoir in Warwick or when 100 activists invaded Lemon Tree feedlot in Millmerran."

"These have not just been farm invasions, they're also home invasions."

"Aussie Farms encouraged large numbers of people to trespass on private property where farmers' children play – putting them at risk.

"Farming families that have done nothing wrong have a right to be left alone."

"If activists don't like animal farming there are plenty of ways to make their point without breaking the law."

"I'm proud to see these new laws come in after working hard to protect farmers as the previous Agriculture Minister."

"I congratulate Minister McKenzie and Attorney-General Porter on finishing this important work."

"I hope this helps farmers feel safer doing their important work feeding our nation."

Anyone who uses a carrier service to encourage trespass, theft or property damage faces a maximum penalty of 12 months in prison. Inciting harassment or intimidation carries a maximum penalty of five years.

Drink driver in Allora

On September 13, at about 5pm, Clifton police were patrolling Herbert Street in Allora when they observed a vehicle departing from a licensed premises at speed.

Police subsequently intercepted the vehicle at the intersection of Herbert Street and Allora Drive in relation to the manner of driving.

The 23-years-old Dalby male who was spoken to, was issued with a traffic infringement notice for driving a vehicle causing unnecessary smoke.

He was fined $427 and lost two demerit points.

The male also returned a positive reading of 0.05 when transported to the Warwick Watchhouse.

He was issued with a notice to appear in the Warwick Magistrates Court on October 30.

Allora Rural Neighbourhood Watch disbands after 26 years

The Allora Rural Neighbourhood Watch was officially launched on 23rd February 1993 with over 130 people in attendance. It was felt the Allora Police District, which is quite a large area, was in need on this service, thus making the Allora Rural NHW the 10th largest area in Queensland. Unfortunately, due to our age and the demographics of NHW, the remaining volunteers voted to disband the group as of the 5th September 2019.

Since the beginning, there have been 6 Area Co-ordinators, 86 Zone Co-ordinators and 11 Police Liaison Officers involved. At least 40 zone co-ordinators at a time voluntarily serviced approximately 1300 homes, delivering the bi-monthly newsletters with crime reports incorporated. For many years, funds to produce these were raised by selling the NHW Kits for $5, which never increased, as well as advertising from local businesses.

It was a massive undertaking for us all but we soon realised that our efforts of putting out the word and the kits helped the police solve more cases, especially theft, and made locals more aware. The district has always been fortunate to have had committed police officers and for that they are to be commended.

Even though the group has disbanded, it doesn't mean that you must give up caring for and watching out for your neighbours. This aspect of life is just as important today, maybe even more so than it was in years gone.

After discussion with those members present at our final meeting, Rhonda Matson suggested the remaining funds stay in the local area as they were raised by locals. She then moved that these funds be gifted to the Allora & District Historical Society once all accounts have been paid. This motion was seconded by Joan Wyld and unanimously passed. Because Allora Rural Neighbourhood Watch is part of Allora's history, all records and the updated Honour Board will be presented to the Historical Society for safe keeping.

Sergeant Damian Grace thanked members for their support. He stipulated that police still need community support and reports of incidences. Police reports will still be posted in the Advertiser.

Be vigilant not vigilantes and report suspicious incidents and antisocial activity to the Police immediately, not days later.

If Allora Police are unavailable, phone Police Link 131 444 for non-urgent matters that may still require Police attendance.

Allora Police Station

is open Monday 9am – 12noon. Members of the public are requested to phone the station before attending as police may have been called out on urgent business. A message can be left if non-urgent and the call will be returned when an officer is next in the station or on duty.

Letters to the Editor...

Dear Editor

I wish to inform residents that the petition recommending a change to the speed limits on the New England Highway within the Allora Township boundaries will shortly be available for signing at most outlets in Allora including the schools, sporting clubs and other agencies. We expect the petition will be presented to State Parliament in the October sitting sessions. Please consider supporting this important initiative for improved road safety as the process is now in its sixth year and needs resolution as a matter of urgency. I thank you for your interest and attention.

On Friday 6th September the QCWA Allora branch held a successful Women's Health Information Day, in the St Andrew's Community rooms. The day was very well attended by over 30 women, members of the public as well as QCWA Border Division President Jackie Harvey and Eastern Zone Vice President Jan Peterson.

An enjoyable and interesting time with guest speakers from Brisbane and locally. A thank you to all our speakers: Kathy from Women's Mobile Health Unit, Janet from Allora Tai Chi, Jaimie from Wild Sage Wellness Studio, Sharon & Dee from IHear Australia and Isobel from SOS Fracture Alliance. Alison presented a informative Country Kitchens talk & display of sugar content in everyday drinks. We all came away with more information & knowledge about keeping ourselves healthy & active.

A delicious and healthy morning tea and lunch was enjoyed by all. The food was freshly prepared by the Allora CWA ladies using Country Kitchens recipes. Thank you to all the wonderful volunteers for the day who helped prepare not only the food but helped with set up & clean up. You are all very much appreciated.

There was a lot of interest in the new Allora Walking Group starting shortly & 14 ladies have already signed up. For more information contact Sandi Blinco on 0408 066 192.

Congratulations to the winners of the Lucky Door Prize & Raffles: Trish Thornberry won a Fruit Tray, Kate Gordon won a Healthy Fruit Cake and Toni Williamson won a Wild Sage Pamper Pack. Kind donations of prizes from Allora Post Office, Percy's Fruit and Wild Sage Wellness Studio.

All proceeds from the day will go to DV Connect - Domestic Violence Support.

OTHER EVENTS: Allora CWA monthly meeting was held on Tuesday.

Allora CWA is also seeking grants to replace carpets and to install a larger water tank.

On Friday, September 20th, members will be learning the art of Cookery Judging, including cakes, slices and preserves.

Who Will Be Wattles Player of the Year?

The final curtain falls on the Wattles Rugby League Club's 2019 season this Saturday evening when they host their Banquet & Presentation function at the Allora Community Hall.

While the Warriors were denied premiership winner's silverware across their grades, the season is highlighted as a success by club President Amanda O'Halloran. Both the First & Reserve Grade teams qualified for the Toowoomba Rugby League Centenary Year finals series with the Wattles 'Railway Hotel, Allora' top grade side winning mid-season championship honours in the form of the prestigious Madsen-Rasmussen Trophy.

Lower than desired player numbers brought issues for the up and coming Wattles Under 18 colts, however they impressed across the year with a number of young players of the future debuting at the competition's higher levels.

Numerous awards, many synonymous with the club's name and awarded over many years, will be presented on Saturday night recognising the efforts of those who turned out in 'green & gold' throughout Wattles 54th season.

The 'Clifton Courier' Player of the Year Shield is heralded as Wattles highest playing accolade, its face adorned with the names of the club's most outstanding performers since the award was introduced back in 1975.

Among a myriad of 'green & gold' stars many names rekindle great memories from the TRL competition all the way to rugby league's highest levels.

International forward Greg Platz won the shield in 1977 & 1979, while former Newcastle Knights star and first ever point scorer Robbie Tew was a winner in 1983.

Former Brisbane Bronco Tony Duggan who tasted great success playing in the United Kingdom was honoured with the Shield in 2000.

Local legend Cameron Hamblin can take some ownership of the award having won a record five times (1995, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2003) while former star halfback Sam Achilles has nailed a hat trick with wins in 1976, 1989 & 1990, an honour shared by current Warriors top grade hero Matt Duggan who had success in 2013, 2014 & 2015.

To win the 'Clifton Courier' Shield is an honour held in the heart of all Wattles players, and this Saturday night the presentation made by Clifton Courier representative, journalist Jack Waters will be the highlight of the Wattles club's blue ribbon event.

Who's a front runner you might ask? The 2019 season has thrown up many contenders but we can be sure that whoever accepts the Shield will maintain the standard of the outstanding line-up whose names decorate its face.

Wattles Banquet & Presentation Function that includes a two course meal, entertainment and presentations gets underway at the Allora Community Hall from 5.30 pm this Saturday.

Enquiries can be made through Club President Amanda O'Halloran on 0407 663 270 or Vice-President Jessica Van Der Poel on 0487 519 953.

The main important news is yes the Clifton Stampede is on again this year.

It was very sad for me to have lost my darling husband Graham on 15.12.2018 after having fought cancer for just over 2 years. I miss him greatly. He loved me more than I could ever have hoped for. RIP my darling.

Carl Rowlands (Rhythm Guitar in Stampede band) also good friend lost his beautiful wife Janet & friend to me to cancer 17.12.2017. So December is a harsh month for me with also losing good friend Merv Maltman on 7.12.2012 from now on I will celebrate their lives in a happy vein as life is very short.

What an exciting Stampede we have in store. Peter Coad & the Coad Sisters & Runaway Dixie plus Evelyn Bury, Graham Rodger and lots more wonderful stars. This is our 10th year and hope it's a big one for me.

First time to our festival 2019 is Peter Coad, The Coad Sisters & Runaway Dixie, all very popular as they are so talented and professional. Evelyn Bury is also coming back. She's a wonderfully talented Golden Guitar Winner and beautiful singer. Ken 'Chainsaw' Lindsay will be performing again as well talented and funny lady Rosanna Ruddick. Unfortunately Dennis Morgan (Chad's brother) can't make it this year. Tony Wagner is joining us for the first time and Viv & Chris Boys are back again, plus one of my favourites, the talented Sharon Smith. The Stampede Band is made up of Paul Hiles (Lead Guitar), Carl Rowlands (Rhythm Guitar), Ian 'Cockroach' Wilston (Drums), Ray Cullen (Pedal Steel) & Jimmy Williams (Bass) & Tony Wagner (Keyboard). MC's will be Clarrie Weller (also performing), Bryan Pask from Rose City FM Community Radio Warwick, & Brian Weirer and of course Maggie.

Hope to see you at Clifton Stampede, Clifton Showground from now until next Monday with main weekend this Friday, Saturday & Sunda

- Love you all, Maggie

Glengallan Restoration

Glengallan Homestead will undergo a $480,000 restoration under a plan developed by the Glengallan Homestead Trust. The first part of the plan has been carried out with the replacement of the old roofing iron by new Custom Orb steel roofing supplied by BHP Building Products. When the 102-year-old iron was removed, the original hardwood shingle roofing was exposed. Glengallan Trust founder and president, Mr. Wally Leggett, said that it was hoped to see Glengallan Homestead restored to its former glory within two years.

Return Home

Corporal Harold Pain, son of Dr. Francis and Mrs. Pain, returned to Allora following military service which extended over 5 years. Allora born medical student, Harold Pain, enlisted in the Australian Army Medical Corps on the 28th September 1914. He served with the 1st Australian Casualty Clearing Station at Gallipoli and was amongst the very last party to be evacuated at dawn on the 20th December 1915. He was returned to Australia in 1916 to complete his medical studies.

On the 12th March 1917 Harold Pain re-enlisted with the Field Artillery Reinforcements and saw service in England where he was struck down with bouts of meningitis and influenza, narrowly avoiding death. During the eight weeks that he was incapacitated the armistice was signed. He served with the Australian Army Service Corps in Cologne, Germany, after the conclusion of the war.

Sudden Death

On Saturday last Mr. John Scott, wool sorter of Allora, died rather suddenly from the effects of a rupture he sustained on the previous Tuesday whilst riding from Allora to Goomburra. The deceased was well known in most wool sheds on the Downs, and for many years was sorter at Rosenthal, Goomburra, etc. On the day of the election for aldermen in the new Municipality of Allora, the deceased who was working at Goomburra, attended the election. On returning home he put his horse into a rather smart gallop, during which time he suffered the rupture. Dr. Headley was called in and recommended his patient be moved to the Warwick Hospital. He was taken there on Friday but never recovered and he died on Saturday evening. The deceased was a man highly respected on the stations and had a thorough knowledge of the business he followed.

Iowa Speedway - Oshkosh Air Venture - Indianapolis Motor Speedway & Much More

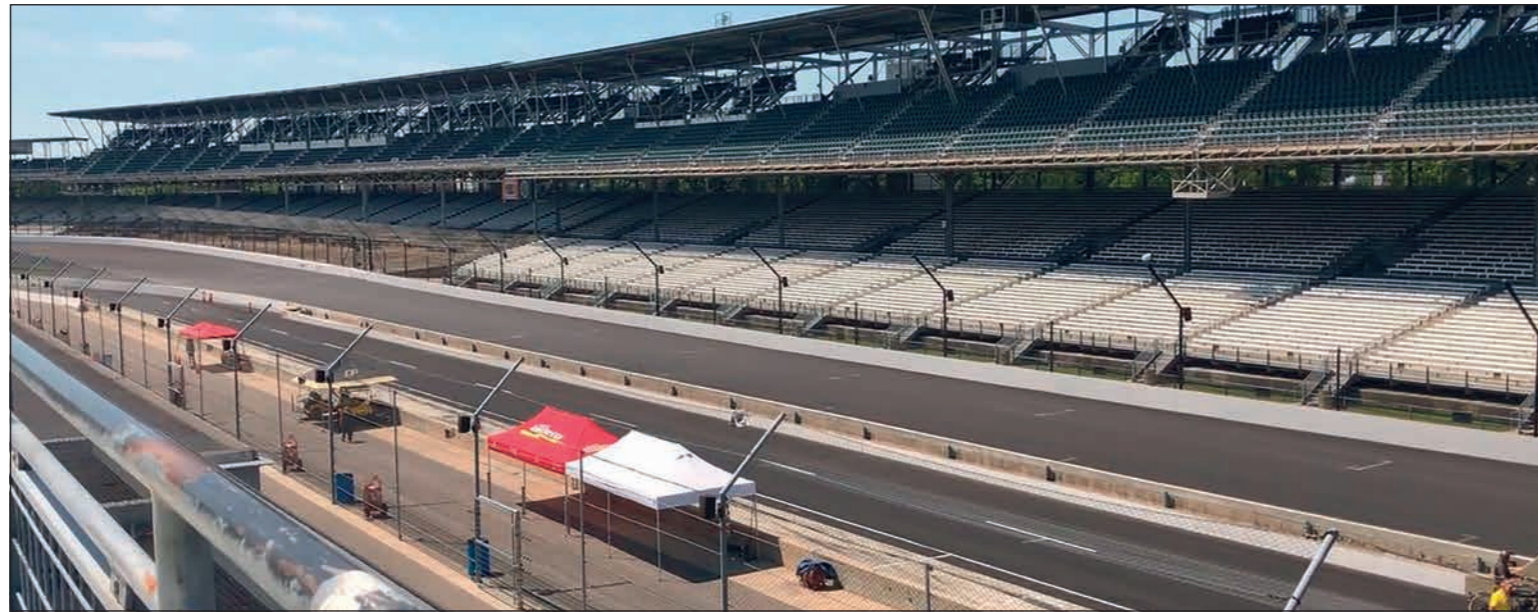

An understatement; this has been an incredible few weeks in the life of this overly enthusiastic seventy five year old. Many boyhood dreams & bucket list adventures have been ticked off this trip. Bringing the ninety seven year old Wikner Ford Special to the USA has proved to be a great move. The overall hospitality and welcome we have received by our fellow enthusiasts and the speedway fans has been far beyond my expectations.

We, my young buddy Ted Klepinger & my Ipswich good friend Paul Casos set off for the Iowa Speedway with time to enjoy some attractions on the way. We detoured via Milwaukee Wisconsin to spend a day at the Harley Davidson Museum, a great choice. It was a Saturday & literally thousands of Harley riders were there for an owners ride in where the factory people organized events & hospitality. Yours truly even had the opportunity to test ride a new Harley Sportster around local streets.

Next day we visited what is reputedly the world's largest truck stop on Iowa's highway 80. It features a wonderful & free truck museum plus more truck candy (chrome) & Truckee facilities than are imaginable.

As Paul (a Model T owner) had not been to Speedy Bills Museum of American Speed we made another detour this time in a rented Dodge Charger; Paul who has a long history in Australian drag racing was like we all are mesmerized by the museums displays.

We overnighed at beautiful Winterset Iowa B&B the Heavenly Habitat. Winterset is where the movie "The Bridges of Madison County" was filmed starring Clint Eastwood & Merrill Streep. It is also the birthplace of the legendry John Wayne.

Somehow, we also fitted in a visit to the National Sprint car Hall of Fame in Knoxville Iowa before setting up at the Iowa Speedway at Newton Iowa. The reception we received was wonderful & as it was also a modern Indy Car race weekend, excitement was on the schedule. The Sprint Car museum is eager to feature the Wikner before it returns home to Allora.

Toowoomba, s Indy car star Will Power flew in the next day so we were able to have a brief catch up (what a wonderful sporting ambassador for Australia Will is), we also caught up with another Aussie, Indy Car announcer Leigh Diffey.

On track, Iowa Speedway is a WOW raceway just seven eights of a mile around with speeds approaching 200 mph, the Wikner & I were happy at about an 80mph top speed. Over the 2 day event we must have clocked up 50 laps, great stuff running with other old cars including one of the Turbine cars that ran at Indianapolis in the 1970,s.

We had planed a non-motor racing car adventure with a 2-day visit to the worlds largest air show "Air Venture" at Oshkosh Wisconsin. Oshkosh control tower is the worlds busiest for one week per year controlling 11,000 plus visiting aircraft. We now numbered 4 with Model T owning friend Dave of Milwaukee our host joining us while we walked & walked in an effort to see it all. We took the opportunity to take a flight in one of 2 vintage Ford Trimotor airliners offering rides. We all flew in the 1929 Ford 5AT 12/15 seater, which slowly showed us the entire grounds and the seaplane base on Lake Winnebago.

Among the highlights were a number of special war birds including numerous Mustangs several B25, s 2 B17, s and a magnificent 4-engined B29 "Doc" similar to the aircraft that bombed Hiroshima to end WW11.

Air Venture is organized by the EAA the Experimental Aircraft Association & is a most definite bucket list item & allow at least 5 days. It was now time to return to our Ohio base & prepare for the Wikner, s run on the world famous Indianapolis Motor Speedway Oval. The oval is 2.5 miles around with 4 corners & it takes 200 laps to complete the annual 500-mile race. We had experienced some oil surge issues at Iowa so it was time to take stock & prepare carefully.

It was genuinely hard to believe as we towed our precious cargo into the world's most famous Speedway, a boyhood dream was coming true. When I first bought the Wikner as a 14 year old I had often dreamt of this day & here wow it was. The vintage races this time was organized by the "Ragtime Racers" group as part of the annual historic sports car event. Once again a fantastic reception was received & over the next few days the vintage racecar fans came in droves.

Our first runs were on the road course track & the Wikner was clearly the fastest on the twisty 14 turns. I new it would be very different when we ran the oval 2 days later. Our oil surge problems persisted so with the help of my team of Ted & Paul we changed an engine bearing for the oval runs.

First run in 1911 the Indy 500 is one of the most famous races in the world. It was originally paved in brick, now only the famous bricks their mark the start/finish line.

I cannot describe how it felt to run this most famous oval in my Wikner Ford Special that I have owned since I was a 14-year-old schoolboy. So many memories & so many hopes & dreams & so many people to thank for their help in living the dream, thank you all.

We will display the Winker at the Henry Ford Museum's Old Car Festival early September before it takes its place as part of a Model T in motor racing exhibition at the home of the Model T Ford the Piquette Avenue Plant museum in Detroit Michigan.

Sent from Doug Partington whilst in the USA - We believe he's now home in Allora.

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

A woman in labor suddenly shouted, "Shouldn't! Wouldn't! Couldn't! Didn't! Can't!"

"Don't worry," said the doc. "Those are just contractions."

Allora Golf Notes

Duck Run last Friday saw a good field of 21 players with Nick Morris shooting an incredible 24 points winning from Moose May in a count-back. Moose was in disbelief that 24 points wouldn't be enough to win the day. Pin shot went to Ken Wilson and Moose won the approach.

Sunday we played for an Allora Butchery trophy with a small field of 8 golfers as we sent 8 of our regulars out to Inglewood to support their Open Day. Jimmy Anderson shook off the late night blues to win the day with 35 points from Shann O'Connell on 32. John Ellwood won a ball in the rundown although he certainly did not deserve it. Mick Dwan won the only pin shot of the day with the other 5 being unclaimed. Conditions were certainly tough.

The Percy's Fruit Market Duck Run will be played as usual on Friday and on Sunday we will play for the very popular Golf World day in a Four Ball Best Ball format.

A reminder to all Allora Golf Club Members that we have the Allcliff Shield coming up on Saturday 5th October against the Old Enemy. We need big numbers as we don't want to give up the shield.

Wattles Just Miss Out On A Win In A Nail Biter

On Saturday Wattles Landmark Harcourts U14s took to the field in Stanthorpe in the Grand Final. They played Collegians White. In the 5th minute Collegians scored but this was soon followed up by a try in the 8th minute to George who pushed forward with the ball and never gave up to even the scores at 6 all with Lachie kicking the goal. In the 14th minute Collegians scored out wide. A sensational run by George to get Wattles near the try line resulting in the 20th minute Sam from dummy scoring over the line. Lachie kicked the goal Wattles leading 12-10 at the half time break.

Hamish and Ethan tackling.

In the first set after half time Wattles had good hard runs making great ground. Reuben was involved in most of the tackles. Lachie & Reuben, great duo to set up Wattles in a great position. Reuben passed to Hamish, then to Ethan who threw to Jack W to score out wide. Wattles 16-10. After the kick off great run by Daniel. Wattles were defending well. Wattles got a penalty in our 20. In the 12th minute another great combination of passes from Lachie to Hamish to Daniel who scores. Wattles 20-10 A few minutes later Collegians scores, only to be followed by Wattles scoring from passing of the ball from Lachie to Ethan to Jack W. 24-16 Collegians scores in the 20th minute and then in the 23rd minute under unforeseen circumstances.

Collegians won 26-24 We didn't get the win but be proud of your achievements this year and how you have played together as a team. You wore the Wattles jersey with pride and everyone is proud of you.
