Allora Men's Shed attendees to Inglewood Mates' Shed 'Roundup'

Eight Allora Men's Shed members, seven as per photo, attended, along with another 136 'shedders', a most successful roundup day at Inglewood Mates' Shed last week. The major sponsor was the Australian Men's Shed Assoc. strongly supported by Freemasons Qld, the latter being most generous with grants to support charities.

Attendees were made most welcome by local members and by means of a home-made morning tea, BBQ lunch including a donated pig on a spit and afternoon tea for those who did not 'storm chase' (mostly unsuccessfully) home. There was an impressive number of site stalls including those promoting men's health.

The speakers were very informative about men's business and the presentations were Allora Men's Shed members Garry, Stuart, Rex, Bob, Graham, Ken and Tony.

interspersed with some hilarious entertainment by well know raconteur, comedian and poet Gary Fogarty, author of the touching poem 'Every Day We Bleed' (online).

After lunch, the main guest presenter was Mary O'Brien. Mary is becoming known far and wide as

Letters to the Editor...

The Editor,

Whilst some people may have differing opinions in relation to our State member, Mr Lister's, comments in Parliament this week, the fact remains that a large percentage of residents who live in our drought affected region are still facing a water crisis and are receiving little or no real help from our State and Local Governments to aid them at this time.

The State Government has been quick to publicise its efforts in relation to this drought, however, it has neglected to assist those people who are not connected to a town water supply. I have been informed that this may be as high as 40 percent of households in the Granite Belt.

The only reliable and functioning assistance that is helping them with water are charity groups including the completely volunteer run, Granite Belt Water Relief Group, which let me say, is doing an outstanding job averting this crisis.

This matter arose when that group asked for some "in kind" assistance from the State Government, through the appropriate channels (Mr Lister.) The denial of this request, which shocked and saddened me when I heard and read about it, has been lost in much of the subsequent coverage of this matter.

The Premier mentions advice from the Southern Downs Regional Council in this refusal to help, raising excuses such as contamination of the reticulated water system (town water) by water being brought in by the charity. Seeing that this relief is for people not on even connected to town water, that advice and decision is completely perplexing.

This is a ludicrous and ill-informed decision by the Premier, based on some very bad advice from our council. One can only speculate on their motivation to do this. I'll leave that to others. However, the fact remains that this has left a large percentage of our friends and neighbours who live out of town facing a humanitarian crisis.

I for one call on all of our Councillors, to get behind Mr Lister and take on this failed and inept State Labor Government, to demand that they help those residents not on town water, instead of using this as an opportunity to further inflame things.

I learnt long ago, in politics and otherwise that the "opponent of your opponent" is NOT always your friend. They're often their opponent for good reason.

SDRC Upset over MP's Speech

An address in Queensland Parliament on Wednesday by the Southern Downs LNP elected representative, James Lister, has the Southern Downs Regional Council questioning whether his comments crossed the line of Parliamentary Privilege.

In his address to Parliament, the State Member referred to Southern Downs Regional Council Mayor Tracy Dobie as 'toxic' and made false claims in regards to a letter he had received from the Premier.

"It is always disappointing to see Parliamentary Privilege used to belittle and criticise those outside of the Parliamentary system," said Mayor Dobie.

"It is unfortunate that the State representative for the Southern Downs has chosen to make personal attacks and to blame others for his inability to work with the Queensland Government and deliver tangible outcomes for our region.

Southern Downs Regional Council Mayor Tracy Dobie said that the Member also misrepresented the facts in his Parliamentary address on Wednesday.

"The Member for the Southern Downs claimed in Parliament that he had written to the Premier asking for trucks to deliver water to those who live outside of town. He then stated that I, as Mayor, had told the Premier the farmers didn't need this support," said Mayor Dobie.

"This is not true. Nowhere in the Premier's letter does it say that farmers do not need support with water carting.

"I have advocated strongly for support for our farmers for drought relief, in particular, the Emergency Water Infrastructure Rebate.

"Our Council allocated $150,000 of grant funding for water carting for rural landowners earlier this year. We have requested Federal Government support for this initiative again but have been advised that we are only eligible for this support every second year.

"Our Council has worked with charities inside and outside of the region to channel millions of litres of donated water, and funding for water carting, to our rural landowners.

"James Lister has misrepresented the Premier in Parliament and brought the name of our region into disrepute.

"The Premier's letter refers to water being added to the reticulated water system. Council requested a copy of the letter Mr Lister sent to the Premier in order to understand the context of this reference. However, Mr Lister has refused to provide a copy.

"Mr Lister has not been willing to engage with Southern Downs Regional Council since his election and demonstrates no understanding of the role of local government.

"It is disappointing that Mr Lister has also used Parliamentary Privilege to make assertions about Council's Chief Executive Officer (CEO) which are not correct and based on minimal interaction with the CEO and his staff.

"Council and its officers remain available to brief the Member for the Southern Downs on all matters relating to drought support, water and how local government works."

Works underway at Warwick Hospital

Work is underway at Warwick Hospital to bring the facility up-to-date with the latest fire safety requirements. The project is expected to be completed by March 2020, with some impact on patients and visitors.

"At different stages of the project, Phillips and Hanlon wards will be relocated to allow for works to be carried out," Warwick Hospital Director of Nursing Anita Bolton said.

"There will however be signage in place to provide directions to patients and visitors.

"Additionally, there will be some potential for noise that could disturb patients.

"While we will try to minimise the disturbances, ear plugs will be made available.

"We thank patients, visitors and staff for their understanding while this important work is carried out."

Ms Bolton said the health service had worked with Queensland Fire Emergency Services on the project to ensure the hospital was compliant with the latest fire standards.

More Wins for Ray's Roses

The Princess De-Monaco Rose.

The prize winning garden that was featured last week on the front page of the Allora Advertiser has created a lot of interest from Garden Clubs and locals. Visits have been organised to view and enjoy Ray Goodfellow's garden at 50 Darling Street.

Ray displayed his roses last week at the Warwick Horticultural Society's Spring Flower Show and brought home five firsts for his Roses and won the Champion rose with the beautiful Princess De-Monaco.

Last weekend it was off to Clifton for the Iris & Rose Show as part of Country Week. Ray entered a number of roses and gained first for a Pink Rose and first for a Red Rose in the Bud to Full Bloom section.

Drug and property offences, Southern Downs

Detectives from the Drug and Serious Crime Group, and the Warwick, Stanthorpe and Goondiwindi Criminal Investigations Branch conducted a closure of Operation Portal which targeted drug and crime networks across the Southern Downs.

The operation was co-ordinated by the Major and Organised Crime Squad (MOCS) Rural over four days and involved over 25 officers, executing 23 search warrants on urban and rural properties from Nobby down to the border town of Eukey.

Police located a hydroponic set up at a property in Stanthorpe where 28 cannabis plants were found.

A 37-year-old man from Stanthorpe has been charged with producing cannabis, possessing cannabis and possessing things used in the commission of a crime to appear at the Stanthorpe Magistrates Court on November 27.

The operation also involved the arrest of two men at a Lyons Street house after police located amphetamine valued at more than $10,000 and $19,000 in cash.

A 20-year-old man from Warwick has been charged with trafficking of dangerous drugs, possession of property suspected of being proceeds, possession and supply of cannabis and amphetamine and possession of things used in connection with drug supply to appear at the Warwick Magistrates Court on November 23.

A 23-year-old man from Warwick has been charged with possession and supply of cannabis and amphetamine, and possession of things used in connection with drug supply to appear at the Warwick Magistrates Court on November 23.

A 36-year-old woman and a 30-year-old man from Warwick have both been charged with the trafficking of cannabis and amphetamine, and the possession and supply of cannabis and amphetamine to appear at the Warwick Magistrates Court on November 23.

The operation resulted in the arrest of 33 people on 276 charges ranging from unlawful possession of firearms, trafficking and supply of dangerous drugs, production and possession of dangerous drugs, armed robbery and receiving stolen property.

Detective Sergeant Darren Tamblin, Officer in Charge of the Warwick Criminal Investigation Branch said this a great outcome for our community and removing these drugs only happens when members of the public report criminal behaviour.

"It is important to focus on the disruption of drug and crime networks in our rural communities" Detective Sergeant Tamblin said.

New mobile library returning soon

Even before the new multi-purpose mobile library van could hit the road with the books; it swung into action as a roaming emergency information hub in the Granite Belt region after the September bushfires.

With the recovery process now moving into the next phase, the van will shortly start its role as the new SDRRC mobile library.

In the interim, library equipment from the existing van will need to be transferred to the new van to fully transform it into a functioning mobile library.

The equipment transfer will require both vehicles to be off the road from Monday 21 October for two weeks, with the mobile library service expected to resume from Monday 4 November. The Mobile Library services Killarney, Maryvale, Pratten, Wheatvale and Yangan.

Council apologises for any inconvenience and advises that the Allora, Warwick and Stanthorpe libraries will be open during hours.

Southern Downs Regional Council provides a wide range of resources and services to residents through its libraries. BE PREPARED FOR STORM SEASON

GET READY

Before storms arrive, there are precautions we can take to make things safer.

- Bring yourself up to date with regular storm patterns in the area.
- Trim overhanging branches from trees.
- Clean out your gutters and downpipes.
- Check your roof to ensure that there are no loose sheets or tiles.
- Protect any skylights with mesh.
- Glass areas such as windows and doors should be protected by strong insect screens.
- Secure loose material or articles that are likely to fly around
- Prepare an emergency kit and know where to find it.
- Make sure portable radio batteries are fresh.
- Check your insurance, making sure it is current and that it is adequate.

EMERGENCY KIT

Keep an emergency kit in a safe, but accessible place.

- Keep a supply of non-perishable food and bottled water in stock. Remember food for your pets too.
- Essential day-to-day items such as toilet paper, toothbrushes and toothpaste will help if you are stranded for an extended time.
- Ensure that your first aid kit is stocked and that you have a first aid manual.
- Make sure any medicines you need are in adequate supply.
- Replace torch batteries and radio batteries and make sure your mobile phone is charged - a spare mobile battery is handy.
- Make sure you have gas in case electricity is out for an extended period - you'll be able to cook on your barbecue.
- Keep important documents in a secure, waterproof location.
- Pack some warm clothing in waterproof containers - when you are wet, warm, dry clothing can be invaluable.

Charge Dismissed

In the Allora Police Court before Mr. R. C. P. Byrne S.M., Kevin Patrick Browne, farmer, of Tabletop, was charged on the complaint of Constable Raymond Clive Croker with having used obscene language in a public place, Muir Lane, Allora. The incident is alleged to have taken place about 11 p.m. when a dance was in progress in the Central Hall. Sgt. Ridgeway prosecuted and Mr. R. J. Leeper appeared for the defendant who pleaded not guilty. After evidence had been given by the complainant in support of the complaint and by the defendant and Mr. Patrick Booth, farmer, of Freestone, for the defence, the case was dismissed.

Obituary

Mrs. A. Shannon, an old resident of the district, and most esteemed for her cheery and neighbourly characteristics, died at her Allora residence. Mrs. Shannon was born in Gloucestershire, England, and reached Queensland in 1870, coming out to her sister, the late Mrs. W. Deacon who was then living in the local State School of which Mr. Deacon was the first headmaster. Soon afterwards Mrs. Shannon married the late Mr. Alexander Shannon who predeceased her about two years ago. The deceased lady had reached the age of 71 years, leaves a family of four daughters, Mrs. W. J. Gallagher, Mrs. John McMillan, Mrs. E. Weatherley, Miss Shannon, all of Allora, and 14 grandchildren to mourn her loss.

Tobacco Export

Queensland has now entered upon the export of tobacco with the "Regina" bound for London taking over four hogsheads of leaf for the firm of Ranniger & Co. The leaf is said to be of very fine quality. Allora Night Bowls Notes – Week Eight Apologies to the jolly fire ant for featuring him in the Allora Advertiser, although it has prompted him to keep on his diet!

This week's results changes the top three teams because Are Your Game Enough beat Gina's Babies (boo hoo, cry cry, stamp your foot). Had to get an adjudicator to check the score card. The card was handed in with Gina's Babies on left hand side with 23 points and Are You Game Enough on right with 10 points. There was some scribble at top apparently indicating that the scorer stuffed up!

The Three Stoogers won their game over the Skippers to keep their place alongside Patto, Dennis and Sandy in the top two teams.

Other progressive scores:- Land Cruisers and The Fire Ants on 12; Pig Lures 10; A Bowla Virus 8; Skippers & Doesn't Matter 6; Rooniks & 3 Of Us 4; The Bowled and Beautiful and Tramps Like Us 2; and trailing and still in the noughties is the Railway Hotel.

Double win for the Tramps, got two points and the winner's prize. No. 7 was the place to be with The Bowled and Beautiful winning too. Great idea picking winners and losers from Rink numbers, it gives a fair chance for all teams to be rewarded. Thank you to Sports Club for vouchers.

Toucher winners were Albert, Tony, Dewey, Slug, Rusty and P/Patto. Thank you to Len Hoey Wagu for weekly chocolate blocks.

It is getting serious in the uniform department. Latest to parade their designer night bowls wear are the Skippers, Pam, Sam and Cam & Aaron when not in baby wear. We decided that Chris & Ashleigh started the trend.

Wow, do you know there are at least twelve women now playing bowls? So great to see that our numbers are growing.

If the bowlers want their name in print they have to be caught in the act of ? or win a prize. This week's raffle winners were Jackie,

A. Patto, Cam, Russ, Allana, and Gade. Slug was given a chance to win the $120 Jackpot but had no luck. Thank you to all sponsors – Railway Hotel, White's Garage, Ken O'Dea Flooring Covering & Allora Butchery.

He is very mild mannered and very polite. He is old but spritely. Next time you play against Doesn't Matter be wary of the cheeky tongue of their senior player.

Hey, Len you played a great game, thank you for your wit and competitive spirit.

Hope to report next issue that Allora won the Clifton Clock.

Clifton Jockey Club Ready To Jump

One of the biggest social events of the year in the Clifton district is the annual race day and this year the Clifton Jockey Club is expecting to host one of its largest attendances ever.

The main marquee has been booked out and the large number of small marquees that dot the grounds have also been fully booked.

On the track, the five event programme carries total prize money of $40,900 while for the fashion conscious, this year's Fashions on the Field is offering prizes totalling more than $4,000.

The gates open at 11am, with the first race scheduled for 1.30pm.

The main event is the Pacific Seeds/Pursehouse Rural Clifton Cup, to be run over 1,580 metres.

After the final race, there will be live music on the grounds until late.

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

A doctor had the unenviable task of informing a patient that he had only a few minutes to live.

The patient said, "isn't there anything you can do for me?"

The doctor replied "Well, I could boil you an egg."

Virtual reality forgets drought reality

Federal Minister for Drought David Littleproud is calling out the Queensland Labor Government for wasting more than a million on PR when farmers are struggling.

The State Government has announced $1.65 million will be spent on giving commuters virtual reality tours of Brisbane's new Cross River Rail.

"This is a slap in the face to rural and regional communities," Minister Littleproud said.

"Virtual reality gets $1.65 million the reality of drought gets funding cuts.

"Frankly, I'm embarrassed as a Queenslanders.

"This is a $1.65 million waste on PR for a Government that only cares about Brisbane.

"Annastacia Palaszczuk's is just trying to win votes from her $5.4 billion Brisbane railway.

"Last month Annastacia Palaszczuk's spent $250 million on bonuses for Brisbane bureaucrats.

"This is just unethical when Labor's happy to cut drought funding at the same time.

"I call on the Premier to put an end to frivolous waste and support our rural communities. "You can't win an election by sending farmers bust so we have to ship food in.

"I hope the public will see through this self-promotion and sends Queensland Labor a message on voting day."

Nick & Tom Denny Compete at Events

Well known local athlete Nick Denny has had further success in his chosen sports at the Australian National School Championship held in Darwin. Nick made the finals and was placed well in each of his four events.

In the 200 metres he came 3rd, in the 100 metres he placed 4th, in Long Jump 4th and as part of the 4 x 100 metres relay team was 1st.

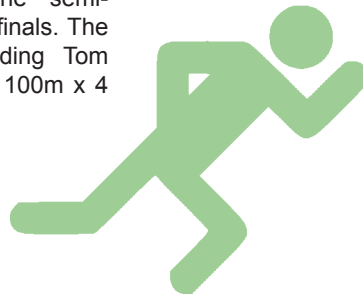

A great effort, considering Nick was told ten days before the competition that he should pull out due to suspected heel fractures.

The Queensland School Sport 13-19 years Track and Field State Championships were held in Cairns last weekend and local athletes travelled to Cairns to compete.

Among them, was Tom Denny who contested the 200 metres, 100 metres and 4x100 metres relay.

Tom came 6th in the 200 metres, won his heat in 100 metres, made the semi-finals but not the finals. The relay team including Tom came third in the 100m x 4 relay.
