SDRC Staff Take Up The Mo' Challenge

Dusty Elsom, David Keenan, Paul Geddes, Craig Magnussen, Nilanga Thabrew, Ray Lambert and Chris Lee.

Some very dedicated Southern Downs Regional Council staff are going the extra mile to raise awareness about Men's Health this month. A challenge was extended by the Tamworth Regional Council when they invited Southern Downs Regional Council and the Central Coast Council to compete in the Local Government National Movember Challenge. This challenge has been taken up wholeheartedly by SDRC staff.

The goal of Movember is to use your Magnificent Mo to start a conversation. This conversation focusses on some of the biggest health issues that men face – prostate cancer, testicular cancer, and mental health and suicide.

Those growing their Mo are also hoping to raise money for the Movember Foundation which partners with a number of charities to reduce preventable deaths. Southern Downs Regional Council CEO David Keenan will be leading the charge with a Mo of his own this month. Mr Keenan said that he is proud of the budding Mo's he is already seeing within the Southern Downs Regional Council.

"There are already some very impressive Mo's floating around the SDRC team. It will certainly be interesting to see what we end up with on 30 November".

If you would like to show your support for SDRC staff who are growing a Mo for a worthy cause you can visit <https://au.movember.com/mospace/network/view/id/50782>

Or if you would like to find out a bit more about issues affecting men's health, head to www.movember.com.au

Trampoline Brings Power Down

On Sunday residents in Allora lost power to their homes for over 5 hours.

Approximately 80 customers around Arnold, Bennett, Drayton, Warner and Warwick Streets were affected.

The cause for the outage was the wild wind which blew a trampoline up into power lines.

Power went off around 2pm and was restored to all customers at approximately 7.30pm.

Brett Judge from Ergon Energy advised people to make sure trampolines, outdoor furniture, pergolas and other network-unfriendly items are tied down this storm season so they don't end up in powerlines or smashing into poles.

If anyone sees powerlines down, they should stay well clear and call 000.

GRDC Forum at Felton

Dave Peters, Oavanya Grains, Allora at the forum.

Guy Sellick, Pioneer Seeds, Toowoomba with Brad Esson, Wyangula, Victoria Hill.

Grain growers, agronomists and farm advisers took a break from the challenges of coping with drought affected paddocks to attend the Grains Research and Development Corporation's (GRDC) Dealing with the Dry forums at Felton last week.

Agronomic management during dry conditions and effective decision making; tips for talking about debt with your bank and how to optimise your position to refinance; and accessing government support in dry times were key topics at the half-day forums.

Initiated by GRDC Grower Relations Manager - North, Susan McDonnell, the forum aimed to deliver genuinely helpful information that effectively supports farming operations and businesses and, very importantly, people during the high stress time of drought.

This forum was an opportunity for the GRDC to reassure grain growers and advisers that we are all in this situation together and we will be with them through this challenging time and when the season breaks.

Maranoa MP urges community groups to apply: $200M to build better regions

David Littleproud MP.

What could your community do with up to $10 million?

Maranoa MP David Littleproud is urging community groups across Maranoa to apply for funding – through Round Four of the Building Better Regions Fund (BBRF) – to boost employment, build more resilient economies and grow stronger communities.

“Drought is taking its toll across Australia and within Maranoa I’m fully confident that we can boost our local economies and create stronger communities for the future through the support of BBRF,” Mr Littleproud said.

“Round Four of BBRF is specifically for drought-affected communities and I encourage all Maranoa community groups to have a look around their community and come forward with projects to apply for funding.

“The grants will be streamed into infrastructure and community-based projects, giving more groups an opportunity to make the most of funding in this very tough time.

“Up to $10 million per project will be available through the infrastructure stream and for community-based projects up to $1 million per project will be granted.

“Previous projects have ranged from building community-based aged care facilities, training programs to support young people in starting their own business and improving freight access to airports.

“BBRF invests in projects that are shovel-ready and pave the way for our communities to thrive and survive well into the future.”

The latest $200 million round of BBRF will be solely dedicated to helping the communities hardest hit by the crippling drought.

Applications are now open and will close on Dec. 19. Further information on eligibility and how to apply is available at www.business.gov.au/bbrf.

Drought Not Over

"Despite falls of between 40mm and 60mm, the drought is far from over," QGGA South-East zone director John Agnew said. Mr. Agnew said that more rain was needed to build up sub-soil moisture before a summer crop could be confidently planted. "We need another 50mm of rain in the next fortnight. With sub-soil moisture at an all-time low before the rain, we need frequent follow-up rain for the next five months to guarantee a crop. After four bad years, farmers desperately need a good crop to ensure their survival. The drought will not be over until a summer crop is assured and adequate feed is available for stock feed," Mr. Agnew said.

Obituary

The death occurred in Allora of Mrs. Edward Anderson who, had she lived another three days, would have celebrated her 91st birthday. Mrs. Anderson was born Jane Donald in Banff, Scotland, and came to Australia 84 years ago with her family on the "Hero of London". Her father the late George Donald had charge of 13 head of cattle, the property of Patrick Leslie. The marriage of Jane Donald and Edward Anderson was celebrated on the 8th November 1845 on Canning Downs where Mr. Anderson was working at the time. The Andersons moved to Allora in 1863 where they reared 10 children. Mr. Edward Anderson died in 1908. Mrs. Anderson was survived by 7 children, 63 grandchildren and 109 great grandchildren.

Illicit Race Meeting

An illicit race meeting being conducted at Glengallan Swamp was broken up by the arrival of Sergeant Grayson after two "events". As a consequence Peter Connell, Francis Schriek, Henry Anderson, Michael Richert, Richard Burnett, Charles Burnett, Charles Hill, Matthew Rinehart, John Carmichael and William Reaney appeared at the Allora Police Court on summons, charged with "being engaged in and present at the sport or pastime of horse racing at Glengallan Swamp." The defendants pleaded guilty to being present, and were admonished and discharged on paying costs of Court, but were cautioned as to a repetition of the offence.

Police Stations involved in Christmas Foodbank Drive

Foodbank is Australia's largest food relief organisation, operating on a scale that makes it crucial to the work of the front line charities who are feeding vulnerable Australians.

Each year police stations register their support by becoming a drop off area for members of the public to bring in their donated goods. Essential items that Foodbank would greatly appreciate include donations of non-perishable food and grocery items. The Warwick Police Station has registered their support for the 2019 Christmas Drive.

Please leave your food items at the Warwick Police Station open Monday to Friday from 8am until 4pm at 86 Fitzroy Street.

Nick Denny excels in swimming and athletics

Relatively new to swimming Nick has taken to it like a duck to water.

Thanks to Swimming Coach Andrew Fidge who encouraged Nick to take up the sport and then coached him over the last few weeks to master all strokes.

At the Inglewood carnival last weekend Nick was age champion after coming 1st in 50m freestyle, backstroke, butterfly and 3rd in 50m breaststroke. Nick also attempted the 200m individual medley for 12 years and over, coming 5th.
