Latest On The Eight Mile Intersection Upgrade

The Department of Transport and Main Roads is three months into construction on the upgrade works at the Cunningham Highway and New England Highway intersection, locally known as the Eight Mile intersection.

A key feature of the intersection upgrade is the new overpass being constructed for traffic travelling from Toowoomba to Warwick. The overpass will connect the southbound lane of the New England Highway to the southbound lane of the Cunningham Highway and will include a 66-meter-long bridge.

A reduced southbound merging lane remains in place. Motorists should follow the temporary traffic management signs including digital message signs on the southbound side of the New England Highway near the Cunningham Highway merging lane.

Works at the intersection will be carried out between 6.00am and 6.00pm, Monday to Friday with a reduced speed limit of 40km/h in place during these hours. Intermittent Saturday works may be carried out between 6.00am and 2.00pm, weather and construction conditions permitting.

The safety of motorists and road workers is TMR's top priority. Motorists are reminded to remain alert as traffic conditions will often change during construction.

For more information about this project, visit the departments website at www.tmr.qld.gov.au and search 'Eight Mile overpass'.

Five Crews At Hay Fire

Five fire crews were sent to fight a blaze in a large haystack on a property at Victoria Hill on Monday afternoon.

QFES crews from Allora, Clifton and Warwick were joined by Rural Fire Service crews from Pratten and Nobby at the fire scene on Dalrymple Creek Road.

The haystack, measuring 40 metres long, 25 metres wide and five metres high, was well alight when the first firefighters arrived at around 1.15pm.

A QFES spokesman said a tractor was used to move hay bales, while a loader was used to create fire breaks around the stack to prevent the blaze from spreading.

The fire was brought under control by 3pm and a single fire crew remained on the scene to monitor the remainder of the smouldering hay.

Council commits to support small business

SBFC Signing, 20 May 2021: Graham Parker (Stanthorpe Chamber of Commerce President), SDRC Mayor Vic Pennisi, Maree Adhead (Queensland Small Business Commissioner) and Julia Keogh (Warwick Chamber of Commerce President).

This region is home to more than 4,000 small businesses and last Thursday Southern Downs Regional Council reinforced its commitment to supporting the local business sector when Mayor Vic Pennisi signed the Small Business Friendly Councils (SBFC) Charter with Queensland Small Business Commissioner, Maree Adhead.

In signing the declaration, Council formally acknowledges the charter's guidelines to engage, promote and further develop the contributions of small businesses and pledges to be mindful of pertinent issues and priorities when making decisions for the local community.

Queensland Small Business Commissioner, Maree Adhead welcomed Mayor Vic Pennisi and the Southern Downs Regional Council to the Small Business Council Friendly family.

The Southern Downs Regional Council is the 12th regional council to join the initiative along with Toowoomba, Scenic Rim, Mackay, Cairns and Ipswich.

Small businesses are at the core of the Queensland economy and represent over 97% of businesses state-wide. A small business is defined as employing less than 20 people and within the 445,000 small businesses currently operating state-wide account for approximately 44% of all private sector employment.

By signing the SBFC Charter, Council agrees to:

- a greater focus on helping small businesses to grow and employ more local people
- increased access to tools and resources to support business recovery and resilience
- simplified administration and regulation (reduced red tape)
- increased opportunities to promote and showcase your business
- greater access to fair procurement and prompt payment terms for suppliers to councils.

SDRC Receives Funding Boost

The 2021-22 Federal Budget has delivered substantial support to assist Maranoa councils to boost Australia's economic recovery through local jobs and infrastructure thanks to an additional $1 billion through Phase 3 of the Local Roads and Community Infrastructure (LRCI) Program.

Federal Member for Maranoa David Littleproud said local councils will directly benefit from the funding boost.

"This Budget injection for our hard-working local councils means even more funding for upgrades to local roads, bike paths, community halls, playgrounds, parks and sports facilities, as well as improved accessibility to public facilities," Mr Littleproud said.

The Southern Downs Regional Council has been allocated $3,154,682 through LRCI Phase 3. Funding can be accessed from 1 January 2022 with Phase 3 projects to be completed by 30 June 2023. Since Phase 1 total LRCI funding for the SDRC totals $6,715,505.

SDRC asks - how is our customer service?

Clean and Soft Water Option for Allora

After installing an IEX Ion Exchange water softening system my water quality has vastly improved. It tastes better. It does not leave a scummy film on my shower screen or patches on my floor. In fact its cut my cleaning time to shreds. If you're sick of poor quality, terrible tasting, discoloured, hard water that leaves stains everywhere I sincerely recommend contacting Bruce at AquaGuard. He is excellent at solving water quality problems and is very generous with his service and knowledge.

The Genesis IEX Water Softening System (9 Systems to choose from)

Thanks Bruce.

Financial support for Maranoa women escaping violence

The Federal Coalition Government will provide immediate financial assistance to women who make the brave decision to leave a violent relationship.

Maranoa MP David Littleproud said the 2021-22 Budget commits $164.8 million in financial support measures, including a two-year trial of the first-of-its-kind Escaping Violence Payment, providing women access up to $5000 in assistance to establish a home away from violence.

"The Escaping Violence Payment will provide vital financial support for women and children in Maranoa to escape family and domestic violence," Mr Littleproud said.

"This includes a cash payment of up to $1500 and the remaining $3500 in goods and services as well as wrap-around support from a community service provider."

"The Government knows that financial issues, including the prospect of leaving property or assets behind, are major factors in women's decisions about leaving a violent relationship – Escaping Violence Payments will ensure women have immediate access to cash and can put down a bond or buy other essentials which they may be leaving behind."

The measure also includes further support for Services Australia's 'Tell Us Once' program and the No Interest Loan Scheme for Women Experiencing Family and Domestic Violence (NILS-DV).

The Department of Social Services will conduct a closed competitive grant round to select a community service provider to deliver the trial with the intention of making Escaping Violence Payments available by the end of year.

Key women's safety measures in the Budget include:

- $164 million for financial assistance, including an escaping violence payments of $5000 for those fleeing a violent situation

- $12.6 million to expand the Safe Places program and provide more crisis accommodation for those fleeing violence

- $320 million for legal assistance, legal services and better laws to protect domestic, family and sexual violence victims and their children

Looking Back...

Allora's Past 25 years ago May 1996 Last Bus Run

Allora school bus driver John Rays has retired after 34 years at the wheel. John came to Allora in 1958 for a holiday and stayed on. In 1962 he started doing the Berat run with a 1956 Bedford and has been doing the same run, with an unblemished driving record, ever since. Five years ago, preferring not to have the hassles of vehicle maintenance any longer, John sold the Berat school run to Col Gay. Now with more transport regulations and red tape, he has decided to hand over the keys for the final time. A special thank-you presentation is planned by the Berat school bus conveyance committee.

Allora's Past 75 years ago May 1946 Pre-Wedding

Prior to her recent marriage to Mr Dick Sparksman, Miss Irene Shields was entertained at a pre-wedding evening by the residents of the Ellinthorp and Victoria Hill districts. The function was organised by Mrs Jack Hansen, Mrs Kevin Cooper, Miss M. Sinton and I Wilson. The guest of honour received a shoulder spray from Miss Sinton and a beautiful bouquet of roses from little Gloria Hansen. Miss Shields was presented a handsome monetary gift by Cr. Frizzell on behalf of her friends. Dick Sparksman responded on behalf of Miss Shields. Dancing was then enjoyed and supper was served by the ladies.

permission for the club to use his paddock near Kates' siding for practice. The first match in which the new club is to be engaged, takes place this afternoon against Nobby, at Spring Creek.

Sacred Heart Painting

Nora Ellen "Nellie" Sullivan was the youngest daughter of Timothy and Hannah Sullivan of Allora. She was very talented academically and artistically and in 1896 when a pupil of the Allora State School, was awarded a scholarship to St. Mary's Convent School at Ipswich. In that year she completed a painting of Jesus and the Sacred Heart. Before her eighteenth birthday in 1900, Nellie qualified as a school teacher. She later entered the Sisters of Mercy as Sister Mary Cordelia.

Nellie's older brother Jeremiah Sullivan died in 1904 at the age of 35. Nellie's painting of Jesus and the Sacred Heart was dedicated to her brother Jeremiah and hung in the Sacred Heart Church at Deuchar. With the closing of the church the painting was presented to the Allora and District Historical Society and will hang on the wall beside a photo of Nellie's sisters Margaret (Maher) and Catherine (Reppel).

Warwick Win Local Derby in Flying Finish

As usual the local rugby league derby between Southern Downs based Toowoomba Rugby League clubs the Warwick Cowboys and the Wattles Warriors reached the dizzy heights of competitiveness on Saturday night, the see-sawing arm wrestle lasting the full 80 minutes before Warwick emerged 24 – 16 winners at Platz Oval in a vital contest for both sides.

An outstanding all-round effort including two touchdowns by Toowoomba representative centre Mitch Watson saw him named Meringandan Pub Player of the Match.

Wattles, who were again without suspended player/coach Travis Burns, had their opportunities in the opening twenty minutes but substandard ball control and solid Warwick defence frustrated the home side.

Warwick were first on the scoreboard through blockbusting centre Joe Fuimaono, however the Warriors responded in the 25th minute with a four-pointer by winger Brayden Wilson after a burst down the eastern side.

The scoreboard was locked at four all at half time, and after touchdowns by Wattles' centre Andrew Richardson and Cowboys winger Jake Speed early in the second stanza the board clicked over to read level again at 10 – 10 after 53 minutes.

Wattles started to lift their game in front of a very large Platz Oval crowd and appeared to be taking the upper hand when halfback Matt Duggan kicked from 28 metres out for five-eight Kai Duggan to gather and score giving the home side a 16 – 10 lead.

While Mitch Watson had been a shining light in the Cowboys campaign, he dazzled with his talents in the later stages of play to usher the Cowboys to victory.

Two tries, the first a classy individual effort sprinting 35 metres with 19 minutes remaining had Wattles grasping desperately to hold a 16 – 14 advantage.

A penalty in the 70th minute had the Cowboys in ideal attacking position and it was that man Watson again who found his way through Wattles defence to score the try that took the wind out of the home side's sails.

With the fulltime hooter preparing to sound Warwick halfback Mitch Wilson claimed a spilled ball in goal to score the final try of the match.

The Warriors top-graders face a demanding challenge next Saturday as they head to Toowoomba's Herb Steinhart Oval fronting up to emerging premiership favourites the Valleys Roosters.

Warwick 24 (Mitch Wilson 2, Jake Speed, Joe Fuimaono, Mitch Wilson tries; Mitch Wilson 2 goals) defeated Wattles 16 (Braydon Wilson, Andrew

Reserve Grade - Wattles 18 (Joe Morris, Jordan Henry, Tom Morris tries; Tom Morris 3 goals) defeated Warwick 10 (Hayden Bussell, Brodie Quirke tries; Brad Morrish goal).

Wattles player Tim Duggan was judged Player of the Match and awarded the Peter Watt Memorial Medallion. The award, the was presented by family members Nathan Watt and Clayton Doro, is presented annually when Wattles play Warwick in Reserve Grade at Platz Oval in memory of former Wattles & Warwick support, player and sponsor Mr Peter Watt.

Queensland home to Australia's best beef and ice cream

Queensland has reclaimed its status as the beef and ice cream capital of Australia, following the Royal Queensland Food and Wine Show (RQFWS) Awards at the Brisbane Showgrounds last Friday.

Australia's best beef, lamb, cheese and ice cream was crowned from a total of almost 500 entries, in the RQFWS's largest ever celebration of the nation's finest produce.

Stockyard Black produced on the Darling Downs was named Australia's best steak, while Milani Minus Eight Degrees in Sunnybank, Brisbane, took the title of Australia's best ice cream with their dark chocolate lemon flavour.

Queensland has held the Grand Champion Branded Beef of Show title since 2014, but the Grand Champion Ice Cream, Gelato or Sorbet of Show award sat with a New South Wales producer, after they crushed a four year winning streak by the Sunshine State in 2019.

Meanwhile, Victoria proved it's the state to beat when it comes to lamb and cheese.

Midfield Meat International's Union Station was named Australia's best lamb, while Berrys Creek Gourmet Cheese's Riverine Blue made in Gippsland won the title of Australia's best cheese.

Support For Agricultural Showmen And Women

The Australian Government has committed $4.3 million in the 2021-22 Budget to ensure that agricultural showmen and women can continue to provide their services at agricultural shows across Australia. Minister for Agriculture, Drought and Emergency Management David Littleproud said the Supporting Agricultural Showmen and Women Program would be integral to the success of Australia's agricultural shows as the show circuit recommences.

"Agricultural shows attribute up to 75 per cent of their ticket sales to the attractions that travelling show businesses provide," Minister Littleproud said.

"They provide the services that get kids excited about our shows and get families coming through the gates, including amusement rides and showbag stalls.

"That is why we are investing in our travelling agricultural showmen and women, primarily through rent relief at agricultural shows, so that they can continue to offer their entertainment and services.

"This will enable them to get back on the road and support more shows across Australia in the future."

Agricultural Shows are an important part of country life and regional towns - here are the facts from Minister David Littleproud:

- There are around 580 agricultural shows nationwide that contribute $1 billion to the economy, attract 6 million visitors and are serviced by around 50,000 volunteers.
- The cancellation of the majority of agricultural shows in 2020 due to COVID-19 had an unprecedented impact on showmen and women, depriving most of them of their primary source of income.

- Travelling showmen and women spend around $82 million in regional and rural communities each year.
- Budget confirms Australian

Government's continued support for agriculture shows and the people who make them possible.

- Rent relief boost for travelling agricultural showmen and women.

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

Did you hear about the Irishman who built a bridge over the Nullarbor Plain?

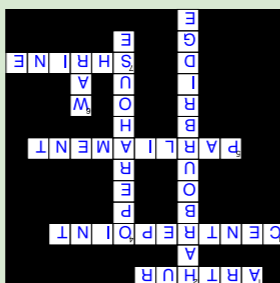

They had to pull it down because too many Aussies were fishing from it.

Jeremy's View

The big Friday

Friday and Saturday were pretty big days for me. I'll probably only get enough words for Friday but I might do a little bit of Saturday. It all started when the St Joseph's chess club and I, on a Friday morning at eight o'clock, hopped on the bus ready to go to Assumption College for the chess tournament. I got there when they were just getting ready to do the role and when I got into the bus it still took a little bit. We got to Assumption College at about nine o'clock. It was a very big school (well at least compared to St Josephs).

When you got into the school there was a path straight down to the other end of the school. There was a two-story balcony with classrooms on them which surrounded a small grass patch on the left and right side almost identical to each other except the right side had a tuck shop. If you went further down the path then you would come across two basketball/netball courts and a football field on the left side of the path and on the right there was another basketball/netball court this time indoor and much bigger. This is where the chess tournament would be held. That long describing of the scene made me have no more words so I'll have to continue my story next week.
