Air Con For School Tuckshop

The P & C Association at the Allora P-10 State School is thankful for the generous donation of $5,000 which will be used to air condition the School's Tuckshop.

It's expected the air conditioner will be installed in the near future.

This will greatly improve the working conditions for volunteers in both the summer and winter months. Hopefully this will encourage more volunteers to help in the Tuckshop.

Thanks To Hard Working Fundraisers - The School's P & C Vice President Judy Emms along with her family were sole volunteers at two busy events held recently.

Judy organised and ran the barbecues at the Festival of Small Halls then at the well supported Back to Goomburra day.

COVID-19 vaccination clinic at Warwick

People aged 12 years and above are eligible to attend.

Walk-ins will be welcome however bookings are preferred via website www.vaccinebookings.health.qld.gov.au

When attending take ID, Medicare Card and a pen.

COVID Cancels Cup Tour

The Coronavirus pandemic has caused yet another blow with the much anticipated visit of the Melbourne Cup itself to Allora postponed indefinitely.

The push to get the cup was masterminded by Perry Cronin, President of Allora Regional Sports Museum.

Mr Cronin said once again COVID-19 had wreaked havoc on the museum's plans after the opening of the park honouring Wayne Bennett and Laura Geitz was cancelled last year.

"It's a terrible shame. They can't organise it with all these lockdowns and restrictions," he said.

"We were expecting a good turnout. People will 110 per cent be disappointed."

Also part of the Cup Tour was to be the appearance of Sheila Laxon ONZM, a winning New Zealand/Australian racehorse trainer. She was the first female thoroughbred horse trainer to win the Caulfield Cup and the Melbourne Cup in 2001 with her mare Ethereal.

The current lockdown in Victoria has made it very difficult for the organisers to facilitate moving the cup from one place to another as they cannot be there personally.

The $250,000 price tag on the trophy also means that only a select few can be entrusted with transporting the cup, although Mr Cronin did offer.

The cup, currently in Cairns, was also meant to visit a few other places on its trip including Warra and Warwick.

Mr Cronin said despite the unfortunate turn of events he is still appreciative of the effort put in.

"I'd like to give a big thanks to Victoria Racing Club," he said.

"They have been outstanding trying to work this out.

"It must have been a nightmare."

Mr Cronin said he is hopeful the visit will happen next year sometime.

Mainly Music Programme Starting Soon

The "mainly music" programme, combining play with music, will be run at the Allora/Clifton St David's Anglican Church from Tuesday 5 October.

Mainly music is an interactive programme for children aged six months old to about five years old.

Dr Ellie Skelton, the wife of Reverend Matt Skelton, will be conducting the programme.

It runs for 30 minutes and is followed by a morning tea. Dr Skelton said she is very excited to begin.

"It is a great opportunity for young kids, accompanied by parents and caregivers, to play with each other," Dr Skelton said.

"Depending on the song, instruments are used including drum sticks and shakers.

"We want kids to get up, participate and move around to all the music."

There will also be a parachute of lycra and feathers among other things to keep kids entertained.

Dr Skelton said mainly music is not a strictly religious programme.

"Because we are a Christian organisation there will be a few songs about God but it is not faith-based," Dr Skelton said.

The first session on Tuesday 5 October starts at 9:30am and is free.

Subsequent sessions, held every Tuesday, will cost $4 per family, per session.

Volunteers - Val Watson, Lynelle Fenner and Gail Fulton.

Keep This Date Free - Friday October 15

It's one of the most popular events held in Allora - it's St Pat's Fete.

Everyone is invited to a wonderful night of fun, food and family favourites.

Kids of all ages can enjoy sideshow alley, rides, jumping castle and anything goes race.

A barbecue and bar will be operating along with interesting stalls.

All happening from 5pm until 10pm at St Patrick's School Grounds, Allora.

Doug and Dick - Mates From Way Back

The Historic Leyburn Sprints were a resounding success after being cancelled the last 2 years.

This year being the 25th Anniversary the Sprints were a family affair with three generations of racing royalty - the Johnson Family.

Dick aged 76 only attended in an official role as a Leyburn Legend but kept an experienced eye on grandson Jett aged 16 years who competed for the Ann Collins Memorial Junior Award which this year was won by Thomas Rath.

Warwick farmers repair bushfire-damaged fencing with Rural Aid's help

Australia's leading rural charity, Rural Aid, recently deployed a team of volunteers to the Warwick region to help with ongoing natural disaster recovery.

Twenty-one volunteers have just finished working on three farms in the Upper Freestone and Swanfels area.

Upper Freestone farmer Chris Mauch had kilometres of his fencing destroyed by fire.

"It's unbelievable to cut a long story short. I put a brand new fence up there before the fires and it turned to ashes," Mr Mauch said.

He said he was grateful to have a team of Rural Aid volunteers help him fence for a week.

"I've been on the land 50 years, all my life, and it's hard enough to be on the land. It's just great to get a hand to repair all those fences that are in desperate need. I'm indebted to Rural Aid."

Sheep Dog Trials At Allora

Earlier this month the Allora Sheepdog Trial Committee hosted the 3 sheep Queensland Championship Trial at the Allora Showgrounds.

Entries were good in spite of Covid lockdown which prevented interstate triallers from attending.

Open/Improver trial had 100 entries with the open final being won by Roy Potticary with Delrae Eddie.

Improver final was also won by Roy Potticary with Nolans Magic.

Novice has 103 entries and was won by Geoff Gibson with Swampoak Abby.

Encourage had 50 entries and was won by Clinton Hall with Serrano Rooster.

The weather on the day was pleasant and not too hot which was good for dogs, sheep and triallers.

Jim O'Connell a well-known handler from Tara competed on the day.

Allora Golf Notes

The warm weather is enticing golfers back to the course. A strong field of 23 golfers played in the Percy's Fruit Duck Run with Garth recording a cracking 24 points to win from Tony Haig on 21. Tommy Morris, Moose, John E and Jimmy all won a ball in the rundown. NTP/approach went to Kev (15th) and Tony (16th) and Ray won the long putt.

Sunday we played for a club trophy with the Simmo's

Landscape Monthly Medal deferred to next Sunday. Winner was Rod with a fantastic 40 points from Sparky on 36. NTP/approach/long putt won by Tommy Brown (4, 12 and 6) Macca (13) Rod (7 and 16) Russel (8) Matty (17) Kev (9) and Doreen (15). Only one matchplay round with Kev d Matty.

Fantastic effort by the Wattles boys in the Grand Final against Gatton. Good to see our club champion renewing acquaintances with a few of his Gatton mates during the game. See you on the links.

Allora Bowls Notes

WEEK 3 - There are no secrets in the bowling fraternity.

Someone informed Patto that it was Kelly's birthday. We all sang "Happy Birthday" with gusto and three cheers. Russell's secret was let out of the bag by his mate Lyn Patto.

Bar takings were probably up this week. It was not as cold on the green. Great to see the teams arrive early and the games get started on time.

There were some close games. The women of Generation Gap pipped the Fire Ants on the last end by one point.

Results:- Rink 1. Peaky Blinders 14 v Phoenix Rising 10; 2. Railway 13 v Stone Cutters 12; 3. Doesn't Matter 14 v The Two Poc Team 12; 4. Do It Again 13 v B.B.B. 9; 5. Pig Lures 24 v Burnt Clutch Bandits 4; 6. The Three Stoogers 12 v What at Show 6; 7. Generation Gap 11 v Fire Ants 10

The Tony Morris Tiling Winners and Losers competition was won by teams Beers Bowls and Bitches and The Three Stoogers.

Winners of the Paul Parker sponsored toucher competitions were Kelly, Hayden, Dave, Lyn Patto and Danny & Max.

Thank you to our raffle sponsors, Allora Sports Club, Railway Hotel, Allora Butchery, Percy Fruit and True Value Hardware.

There was a shortage of thongs due to the cold weather. A new measure was introduced - a mobile phone! Just as well we play social bowls and are not under the Laws of The Sport of Bowls rule book.

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

I was in the library once when a man walked in asking for some ham and cheese.

The librarian politely told him that he was in a library.

The man first apologized and then whispered to the librarian, "Can I please have some ham and cheese?"

playing concerts for people.

On next Saturday Mum is taking William and me to Hervey Bay to see my grandpa who lives there. Hervey Bay is great because there's beaches and shops and a really good second hand book shop which I really love. Dad has to stay back because he's busy but he's going to take William and me camping soon so he can be with us for a while before everything gets busy when the new baby is born in December.

School Holidays

School holidays have started and even though I really enjoy school it's also good to be able to stay home and do stuff. Dad had parliament last week and he brought me back a book as a present for me. It was a book all about the cold war which was between the West and the East after World War Two and went until the Berlin Wall was taken down in 1989. Being home has let me talk all about the cold war with my grandfather Dan Dan because he visited lots of cold war places in Eastern Europe when he was young. On Sunday I went with my Nonna and dad to see a concert in the Stanthorpe Gallery which had mum playing the Viola in it. It also had a famous violin player called Alan Smith and he was amazing. Mum really enjoys playing music and because she's not in the Air Force any more she loves to have a job to do which is organising the group she belongs to and

Grand Final Glory Eludes the Warriors Reserves

Despite their best efforts the Wattles 'South East Engineering Services Pty Ltd' lineup fell short on Sunday of snaring a third TRL reserve grade premiership for the Platz Oval based club, finishing 32 – 18 behind eventual premiers the Gatton Hawks at Toowoomba's Clive Berghofer Stadium.

On the end of his eighth year in green and gold, co-player coach Garth Lonergan showered praise on his charges who have been in shining form over the couple of months coming in to the finals, and rising from fourth rung on the ladder to make 'the big dance'.

In other matches on the Toowoomba Rugby League's blue-ribbon day the Goondiwindi Boars outlasted the Highfields Eagles 26 – 20 in the Hutchinson's Builders A Grade clash, with Allora connected former Wattles bookend Will O'Grady an imposing figure for the youthful Eagle

The Gatton Hawk's won the initial TRL Toowoomba Sports Club Open Women's premiership on the back of a player of the match performance by Courtney Nolan overwhelming the impressive

Warwick Cowboys 30 – 10.

The Dalby Diehards drew first blood on the grand final program with a 22 – 14 win over Highfields thanks to a strong second stanza in the Under 18 Grand Final.

The Wattles Warriors reserve graders have been knocking at the door of a grand final in recent seasons and Lonergan, a key cog in the Wattles line-up over that time, is upbeat about the future of the team despite some possible looming retirements.

"It was a mission to make the Grand Final" said Lonergan, "but we dropped too much ball and slid off our game plan somewhat and you can't do that against a side like

"In terms of the game, unfortunately it was our worst for the year, we just couldn't get a roll on, but we were competitive and everyone put their best foot forward".

Lonergan rated Joe Morris, Mitch Bourke and front-rower Harry Shooter as the big performers in one very tough outing

Wattles Reserve Grade

team: Josh Henry, Mitch Bourke, Brenden Wilson, Dale McAntee, Lachlan Henry, Joe Morris, Tom Morris, Ben Duff, Jack Duggan, Jordan Henry, Garth Lonergan (c), Tim Duggan, Nick Morris. Interchange: Matt Ilijas, Will Wallace, Darby Peardon, Alex Morris, Jason Wilson, Terry Bermingham, Harry Shooter, Elie Adamson, Tim Exelby, James Wolski.

Coaches: Garth Lonergan/ Nick Morris. Manager: Ted Shooter. FAO's: Heather Hoey, Tom Hoey. League Safe: Neil Wilson, Joel Monckton.
