COVID-19 Testing Sites At Public Hospitals To Close

After providing COVID-19 testing services across the Health Service, often seven days a week for over two years, Darling Downs Health COVID-19 testing sites will close at 4pm on 2 September 2022.

Operating since 16 March 2020, the COVID-19 testing sites at regional locations across Darling Downs Health facilities including Warwick Hospital and Ballie Henderson Hospital processed over 247,321 during this period.

Acting Executive Lead, Health Emergency Operation Centre Michelle Forrest said the testing sites had been a success in detecting and suppressing COVID-19 in the community for so long, but the response to the virus was now changing.

"That large scale testing was incredibly effective, but it has served its time. During 2020 and up until December 2021, suppression of COVID-19 was key to ensuring the safety of people in the community, and testing sites like ours really enabled that," Ms Forrest said

"The response to the virus will continue to change, especially as people choose to use rapid antigen tests themselves and private pathology capability increases. The decision to close the service is another step in our transition to new ways of living with the virus.

While the testing sites will close from 2 September, Chris Pearse, the COVID-19 Testing Coordinator said there was still time for the community to visit a site and receive a test.

From 3 September, members of the community who need access to a COVID-19 test should conduct a rapid antigen test (RAT), visit a Commonwealth Respiratory Clinic or contact their GP to arrange a referral to a private pathology provider.

Eligible concession card holders can access free RAT kits at Queensland Health distribution points.

He was, indeed, no more and no less than a thief in the night. If you want to hear more then come to the Men's Breakfast at the Allora Presbyterian Church where I will be sharing more about the incident, how we coped that night and how we are continuing to deal with the consequences of the event."

Water Meters Now Being Read

Half-yearly water meter readings have commenced across the region. Council's water meter readers will be easily identifiable in SDRC-branded uniforms and it would be appreciated if the community would ensure meters are clear of debris and safe to access.

"Council asks that residents keep water meters accessible and clear of garden debris, grass, mulch, building materials, vehicles and other objects," the spokesperson said.

If gates are locked or an animal prevents Council staff from accessing meters, a calling card will be left in the letter box asking residents to call 1300 697372 to arrange access.

Water Consumption Notices for this half-year period will be issued in October 2022. Anyone experiencing issues with payments should contact Council to arrange a confidential payment agreement.

One Hundred Years Of QCWA In Allora (Part 2)

The probable reason that Allora Branch was formed so close to the date of QCWA beginnings is that at the inaugural meeting convened on 11th August 1922 by the Brisbane Women's Club, when it was decided to form, Mrs Deacon of Allora was present. She became a member of the general Committee along with the other country women present. Each one had the power to convene a branch of the Association in their own district.

In 1923 it was decided that one delegate of each branch could be elected to the Executive Committee and Mrs Sharpe became the representative for Allora. The branch was already taking a part of the workings of the Association and this was to continue to the present, still having interest in the administration.

By 1925 thoughts turned to the need for a rest room. Suitable land was being investigated. The Allora Shire Council gave a donation of fifty pounds. They also gave a health purposes lease. It was on land between the railway gates and the Shire Hall as a part of the lease for the Shire Hall.

Next time I will tell how the rest room came to fruition. Thanks to Olive Shooter.

Tidy Town Winner Again

For the second year in succession Allora won gold in the Tidy Towns Environmental Awards in Category D (population 801-1500). Allora Action Association president Peter Briggs said the whole community contributed towards the winning of the award and that the Warwick Shire Council workers played their part by maintaining the parks and gardens.

Val Ireland and her late husband Eric won an outstanding individual-effort award for their establishment and maintenance of a beautiful park opposite their house and for the planting of a large number of trees. Cr. Sue Cowley said that the award to Mrs. Ireland and the late Mr. Ireland was well deserved.

Cantankerous Cow

A serious accident has been sustained by Mr. C. H. M. Morris of Victoria Hill. It seems that Mr. R. Frizzell yarded a cow with the intention of milking her. Expecting trouble he had armed himself with a large stick. The cow charged him, knocked him down and rolled him over without inflicting serious injury. Mr. Morris went his aid. He in turn was knocked down by the cow, a bone in his leg being broken in two places and sustaining severe gashes to his leg and arm. Mr. C. Improvements To Poultry Welfare In Australia

An Independent Poultry Panel has finalised the development of proposed new Australian Animal Welfare Standards and Guidelines for Poultry, which have now been made public.

Minister for Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry Murray Watt said the proposed standards balanced contemporary animal welfare science with feedback from an extensive engagement process that was part of the independent review.

"These standards cover a range of welfare requirements for poultry including chickens, ducks, pigeons and emus," Minister Watt said.

"It also proposes the phase out of conventional chicken cages, commonly known as battery cages, over the next 10 to 15 years.

"States and Territory governments must now look at the standards with all agriculture ministers to consider next steps by early 2023.

"It is my hope that all states and territories will work together to ensure nationally consistent regulations for poultry.

"This will provide certainty for industry, allow producers to plan for the future and assure the public that Australia's poultry standards balance contemporary science and community expectations."

Other proposed changes include the provision of water to all ducks, environmental stimulation for breeding chickens, and improvements to the minimum light intensity and required periods of darkness, ventilation, and temperature parameters for all poultry species.

erature parameters for all poultry species.

Minister Watt said there was strong interest in the standards following 167,000 public submissions during the consultation period.

In the 2021-2022 financial year, Australian hens laid 6.3 billion eggs, worth $1.1 billion in supermarket sales.

The annual value of chicken meat production is over $2.85 billion. Australians consume more chicken meat per capita than any other kind of meat.

Winning Warriors on Road to Finals

Wattles will play in at least two finals in both A Grade and Reserves following second and first place finishes on the ladder respectively following the home and away season.

Wattles finished the regular season strongly against the Warwick Cowboys securing a ninth consecutive TRL A grade success edging out the Cowboys 22 to 14 to win the prestigious Basil Nolan Memorial Shield for the first time.

The award was introduced in 2019 in memory of former Cowboys player and community identity Basil Nolan Jr who died in a farm accident in November 2018.

Wattles ran in four tries to three in a contest closer than the scoreboard suggests in front of a packed Warwick crowd.

Wattles' Travis Burns rated the Saturday night success among the more favoured in his coaching tenure, given his line-up was missing some key faces with injury, including himself, back-rower Ryan Duggan and playmaker Matt Duggan.

Wattles will feel the full force of finals football on Sunday when they meet the Highfields Eagles at Clifton.

Burns is looking forward to his Wattles line-up assuming full strength to match up against the Eagles, with his return along with the Duggan brothers and star forward enforcers

Mitch Koina and Jordan Crocker.

Wattles 22 (Michael Pearson, Les Hartvigsen, Zach Stevens, Aaron Hooper tries; Kai Williamson-Duggan 3 goals) defeated Warwick 14 (Morgan Byrne, Tyrelle Ross, Dustin Close tries; Nick Carrie goal).

Reserve Grade - Wattles are over the line as TRL Reserve Grade Minor Premiers after a hard fought 24-18 win over Warwick, earning the side a break for the initial weekend of finals.

Saturday's encounter was "a very tough game," according to co-captain/coach Garth Lonergan.

"Warwick showed up with nothing to lose and gave it to us from the get go," he said.

Wattles finished the competition rounds with sixteen wins and a single loss, that being to Highfields in Round 4.

Wattles 24 (Alex Morris, Jack Rubie, Mitchell Duff, Tim Duggan tries; Tom Morris 4 goals) defeated Warwick 18 (Matthew Henry, Morgan Taylor, Cameron Martin-Brown tries; Matthew Henry 3 goals).

Wattles Under 17's March to Grand Final

The Warwick Junior Rugby League entered the business end of the 2022 season last Saturday with a massive day of semi-final action at Goondiwindi's Gilbert Oval on the path to Grand Final Day.

Under 13 - After a dominant first stanza Wattles Nutrien Harcourts Cooke Real Estate Under 13's emerged 34 - 12 victors from their elimination semi-final final.

While they ran in four touchdowns before half time, goalkicking success was limited to one.

While leading 18 - 0, a patchy Warriors start to the second half saw the Tenterfield Tigers run in a pair of converted tries to haul themselves back into contention trailing 18-12.

But it was the shot in the arm the lads in green and gold needed to find another gear and add another eighteen unanswered points to the scoreboard and run away with the win.

Pack enforcer Henry McMillan and hooker Orry Gilmore set examples with the ball and in defence, while Marty May led the team around the park constructively.

Try scorers included Orry Gilmore (2), Jack Burton (2), and Henry McMillan, Will Peters, Callum Wallis and Hugh Denny a try apiece, along with a Ty Betts conversion.

Under 15 League Tag - Matilda Baty crossed for the Wattles Club Hotel Under 15 League tag team's only try in an unfortunate 10 - 4 loss to Warwick's Collegians that brings the curtain down on their season.

Coach Dan Wallis commended the young ladies on a sterling effort throughout 2022.

Under 15 - Wattles Drayton Medical Centre Under 15 team's season also came to a halt after their 26 - 12 loss to Goondiwindi.

The Warriors were impressive early, with Rylan Marks scoring in the very first set of the match.

Wattles were well in the game until the later stages of the first stanza, after which Goondiwindi gathered momentum.

Atticus Sullivan and Harry Marshall kept their team in the grind with a pair of late tries, while Charlie Spina and Billy Peardon were dynamic in defence.

Coach Tom Duggan and trainer Jack Duggan were both very proud of the team for the efforts.

Under 17 League Tag - An outstanding 36 - 6 winning result over Eastern Suburbs has launched Wattles Club Hotel Under 17 League Tag ladies into the next stage of the finals series.

Wattles try scorers included Alex Gilmore (2), Reagan McMillan (2), Clare Parry and Stephanie Lyons who was also well on target kicking six conversions.

Jeremy's View

Queensland Symphony Orchestra Concert

On Saturday at 3 o'clock Mum and I left to go to Brisbane for the Queensland Symphony Orchestra 'Superfamous' concert which was a collection of 12 famous classical pieces. The concert started at seven thirty pm so we left at three pm. We got there at around six thirty and went to the concert hall. The doors to the concert hall opened at seven o'clock. We sat in our usual seats in the front row near the viola section. The concert started with the upbeat Barber of Seville then a song for the seventy fifth anniversary of the Queensland Symphony Orchestra (QSO) then songs from Mozart, Debussy and Beethoven. The concert ended late and we went and by the time we got home it was already midnight. My favourite from this concert was the Beethoven Allegretto which was in the movie A King's Speech.

"I suppose", snarls the cranky sergeant to the private, "when you're discharged from the army you'll wait for me to die just so you can spit on my grave."

"Not me," said the private "When I get out of the army, I never want to stand in line again."

Clifton Hosts Karate Championships

The Aussie Kids Karate championships were held last Sunday at Clifton with fifty competitors taking part from across the Darling Downs.

Allora was represented by six Karate Kids and they competed against clubs from Clifton, Warwick, Dalby, Oakey, Millmerran, Gatton, Highfields and Toowoomba.

The competitions are directed to younger children and lower grades to give them the opportunity to pit their skills against children from other areas. The games are designed to develop balance, strength, co-ordination and strategies that they can use to compete at the highest levels in the future.

Allora members.

At the end of the day, Dalby was named as the Champions of the Team event while Oakey was named as the Champion Club overall with a return of 3 gold medals from 5 entries.

Kids wanting to learn Karate can go along to the Logan Memorial Hall each Tuesday from 5.30 to 6.30pm - details phone 0438 111 423.

Allora Golf Notes

There was a cracking field of 22 on Friday with Ben Duff securing victory on 20 points and Shann runner-up on 19 points. The course was looking a picture and the weather was perfect for golf. The Club encourages golfers to test themselves out while having a good time with mates every Friday.

This months monthly medal was sponsored by Ty Gardner. There was a good field of 19 with Kevin Harrison claiming victory with a net 65 and runner up Duke Maloney on 67. John Sparksman was also on 67 but was edged out on a countback to claim 3rd spot. It was a top day of golf with thanks to Ty.

Next weekend is a 4 ball best ball sponsored by Allora Butchery. See you on the links.
