Allora Bowls Notes

WEEK 6
-This week was a carry over from Week 5 due to the heavy rain so the season will now be extended by a week with hopefully no more cancellations.

Social bowls or Barefoot bowls as some call it and Kris decided it was definitely barefoot bowls even though the air was very crisp and the ground damp. Leanne must have had a busy day as she sent her elephant bowl hurtling down the wrong rink and bowling 3 bowls in a row without Ryan having his turn, remember Leanne its turn about. John E also had a wayward moment with his bowl on the wrong rink, must have had a lot on his mind waiting for a baby to arrive. Congratulations to Mark & Kelly on the safe arrival of their baby girl and to the proud Grandparents John & Wendy.

Results for this week –

Rink 1: Pig Lures 15 d. Fire Ants 12 (score would have been a lot different if Fire Ants hadn't lost 7 on one end); Rink 2: Beers, Bowls & Bitches 11 d. Doesn't Matter 8; Rink 3: Phoenix Rising 16 d. Do It Again 8; Rink 4: Stone Cutters 10 d. Gina's Babies 7; Rink 5: Generation Gap 13 d. The Gecko's 5; Rink 6: Railway Hotel 11 d. The Three Stooges 6; Rink 7: Peaky Blinders 12 d. What A Show 9.

Touchers this week were Trevor, Dave Smith, Henry, Fiona, Ashleigh B and Patto. Trevor was had a great night with touchers, scoring a chocolate then going on to have another 3 after the bell.

Raffle winners were Michelle, Gary C x 2, John E, Danny and Bec. Thank you to our sponsors, Railway Hotel, Allora Butchery, Allora Sports Club and Right 1st Time Cleaning. Bad luck Moley on not winning the Jackpot of $100 next week hopefully some lucky person will win $120.

Winners on the night were Railway Hotel and Losers Do It Again.

Next week's Team Trophy to be supplied by What A Show.

Thank you to Tony Morris Tiling for his sponsorship, Moley for keeping the green looking good, Bec for doing the bar and all our other helpers who keep the social bowls nights running smoothly. See you all back again next Tuesday night.

Neil Wilson Honoured by Wattles

Wattles stalwart Neil Wilson has become the club's 61st Life Member.

In his junior league days Neil won selection for a tour of New Zealand with a Darling Downs representative team, and was recruited by Wattles senior club for its Under 16 team of 1975.

That first year in the big league reaped a premierships win, the dose repeated as an Under 18.

From there the talented fullback/halfback evolved into a regular in Wattles senior grades.

It's a challenge to measure the time the club devotee has worn the prized green and gold colours, but it can certainly be measured in decades.

Neil, and wife Judy, have made a big contribution to Wattles' junior and senior clubs.

Both are Life Members of Wattles Junior Rugby League Club, Neil

Wattles Club President Amanda O'Halloran attaches the Warriors' 61st Life Membership badge to the chest of an emotional Neil Wilson at the Club's annual Banquet and Presentation Night held in Clifton last Saturday.

Neil Wilson is a quintessential rugby league volunteer, representing the most perfect or typical example of quality.

Neil is also a Life Member of the Zone 5 Junior Rugby League after a coaching involvement spread over more than a quarter of a century.

Neil and Judy's sons Brian, Brenden and Jason have all worn Wattles colours with pride continuing an admirable family tradition.

Neil has been and remains a familiar face on Wattles sidelines over so many seasons, his knowledge and experience so respected by coaching staff and players alike.

His ability to connect with players, 'clicking with everyone', and willingness to help in any way highlights him as a valuable asset to teams and the club.

Another great asset for Wattles is Neil's consistent upbeat approach at games and preparation, always positive and encouraging despite the situation.

Q.C.W.A.

In presenting the 25th annual report of the Allora branch, the president Mrs. E. F. Lilley said that in view of the shortage of food in Britain and of the vital necessity of obtaining and forwarding as much food as possible, the activities of the branch were directed particularly towards raising funds for this purpose. Accordingly two bridge parties were held and an amount of £20 was forwarded to the Food for Britain Appeal. Contributions of dripping were sent to Messrs. Campbell Bros. to be made into soap for Britain and weighted 1 cwt and 7 lbs.

Missing Man Found

The Allora police were advised on Tuesday that Mr. P. Zeller, a Goomburra resident, was missing. A party left for Goomburra where they were joined by a constable from Yangan and a search party scoured the rough scrubby country. On Wednesday the man was found on a track within a few miles of where the search party was working. It appears that he had left his home on Sunday with his dry and horses to remove a hut further up the creek. On Monday he was on a shooting expedition in the mountains but lost his bearings and wandered about the range until Tuesday night when he reached a camp at the head of Blackfellow's Creek on the other side of the range. He was cared for there, and in the morning was directed to the homeward track, where he was found.

McMILLAN v DANK – This case of illegally impounding horses occupied the court for a considerable time owing to the voluminous and conflicting evidence, after hearing which, the Bench appointed Messrs. Gordon and Kates to judge the sufficiency of the defendant's fence around the farm from which the horses were impounded.

David Littleproud On Regional Listening Tour

The Nationals leader and member for Maranoa David Littleproud has launched a national regional listening tour to listen and learn from regional voters, particularly those who left the party at this year's election.

Mr Littleproud said the party had to be honest about the election result and he genuinely wanted to hear from regional locals, particularly female voters and those who felt disillusioned before the federal election.

"I am touring through Australia to hear from those who matter most – the voters with real issues, facing real challenges and needing real solutions," Mr Littleproud said.

"I am keen to hear from as many people as possible about how we can help improve their lives and their communities.

"I am also determined to find practical solutions, not just for more affordable childcare centres but more importantly, the availability of childcare in our regional centres for our working mums and dads.

"We are the party that wants to help women and give them the support and services they need.

"I know that finding available childcare centres is a real challenge for regional families and I want to hear from those who need help the most."

The Nationals deputy leader Perin Davey and Mallee MP Anne Webster will join the regional listening tour which started in Victoria, will travel through New South Wales and arrive in Queensland later this year.

"The Nationals want to ensure our future – our youth – has the opportunity to thrive.

"Those living in regional towns know what's best for them – so we're traveling directly to the locals, to listen, to learn, to appreciate their concerns and find solutions."

"Along the way we will stop at pubs, clubs and restaurants to meet everyday Australians.

"Bringing common sense to Canberra starts with meeting real people and seeing the challenges they face on the ground."
