The down-to-earth style of Matthew Denny - indeed the Denny family - was to the fore on Friday night when members of the community gathered to applaud the success of one of Allora's greatest sporting achievers.

In a relaxed atmosphere, Matthew shared a great deal of his life in a one-on-one interview with old friend Max Mason and to those under the big marquee, it was the same as being part of a lounge room chat.

In true Matthew Denny style, he praised the constant support of the Allora district community and credited his family as the source of his inspiration.

Speaking about his gold medal performance at the Birmingham Commonwealth Games, Denny said he was very relaxed.

"I was having fun - I compete at my best when I'm having fun," he said.

Free Community Grant Writing workshop

A free grant-writing workshop funded by Australian Government National Landcare Programme and coordinated by Condamine Catchment Management Association is taking place next Wednesday 26 October at Clifton.

The workshop is tailored to rural communities hoping to develop projects for community outcomes.

Samantha Morris, the workshop presenter said rural communities had nothing to fear about the grant writing process.

"I know from more than 30 years of grant writing that the number one reason people don't get grants is that they simply don't apply," Sam said.

"This four-hour workshop will be light-hearted, interactive and full of useful tips for people who are hoping to access government grants."

"We look at the types of grants that are available, where to go for grant information, and most importantly, how to develop a project and submit a proposal that will impress assessment panels."

"Grant writing does not have to be complicated and people who come to this workshop will walk out with heaps of ideas and resources to simplify the process."

Mary-Lou Gittins, CCMA's free said the workshop was free for all community groups or individuals.

"We hear time and time again that a major barrier to groups' functioning is knowing where to access grants to get the work done, which is why we're coordinating this workshop."

"We're really excited to meet community groups and individual who come along and to hear more about the projects they have in mind and how our Catchment Association might be able to support their work."

Attendance at the workshop, which takes place at Clifton Anglican Church Hall 72 East Street is free. Morning tea and lunch is provided so please book in now. You can register or get more information at: 0429642092 or lcows@bigpond.com

Managing Domestic And Feral Cats

Southern Downs Regional Council has adopted a tighter framework for controlling cats in the region.

Following a period of public consultation, the Cat Management Strategy 2022-2026 identifies a range of actions to guide cat management to improve the health and well-being of domestic cats, reduce the environmental impacts of stray and feral cats and reduce management costs to Council.

Southern Downs Councillor Stephen Tancred said that while a pet cat is a valuable source of company and joy for many people, it was important to have a balanced plan that supports responsible cat ownership.

"As natural predators, it is estimated that domestic and feral cats kill an estimated 1.6 billion native animals in Australia each year," Councillor Tancred said.

"But it's not just feral cats we are concerned about. Roaming pets disturb gardens, spray and foul yards and greatly upset residents that feed and watch birds.

"There has to be a better, more strategic approach to managing cats with a view to protecting the region's biodiversity and reducing complaints and nuisance to the community.

"The newly adopted strategy is a platform to guide our decisions and approach to managing cats and explores de-sexing, micro-chipping and registering in detail as options of effective control.

"Council will also advocate to the State Government through Local Government Association of Queensland to review and amend the Animal Management (Cats and Dogs) Act 2008 to include mandatory de-sexing and containment of cats in Queensland.

"Council has allocated funds to support a de-sexing program which is hoped will reduce the numbers of unwanted kittens in the region." Mr Tancred said.

Residents are urged to be responsible pet owners.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

With the four significant flood events in autumn 2022 still fresh in their minds, the citizens of Allora must now prepare for what is predicted to be even heavier rain and flooding for this coming summer.

During the floods earlier this year, I was puzzled as to why the Dalrymple Creek was breaking its banks at record levels and yet there was very little water flowing through the gully just to the south of town. Historically, the gully in question has taken flood water flowing down Old Goomburra Road away from Allora then rejoining the Dalrymple Creek west of the town. The water flowing down Old Goomburra Road in flood time is the result of the Dalrymple Creek breaking out up the valley at Berat, something that has happened forever.

Those who witnessed the 2011 flood in Allora will recall that the torrent of water flowing down the gully was so intense that it washed out the railway sleepers and basically destroyed the railway line.

I discussed the situation with a number of long-term locals and they were as surprised as I was. I then received information that, at some point in time since the 2011 flood, a local farmer had built a levee bank on his property that effectively forces flood water that had always flowed down Old Goomburra Road, back into the Dalrymple Creek. This has no doubt contributed to the record flood levels in the creek that we witnessed earlier this year. My understanding is that no approval was obtained for the construction of the levee bank.

We must not lose sight of the fact that the rainfall in autumn that caused the floods was heavy but not torrential like we can experience in summer and which we did experience in 2011. If we receive the torrential rain predicted for this coming summer, and the breakout water is forced back into the Dalrymple Creek due to the levee bank, I fear that Allora could become another Grantham. If anyone is in doubt about the force of the floodwater and the damage it causes, they should drive out and have a look at the bridge on Kital Road.

I contacted the Southern Downs Regional Council on 3 May 2022 outlining my concerns and a delegation of concerned citizens met with the CEO on 26 May 2022. I sent a follow up email to the Mayor and Councillors on 30 May, expressing concern at the lack of action. I received a response from Mayor Pennisi stating that it was not a council issue and advised me to take it up with the relevant government agencies and local State Member.

Following numerous emails and meetings, I received a letter from Scott Stewart MP, QLD Minister for Resources dated 31 August 2022. The letter confirmed that the property owner was required to obtain a development approval and that the SDRC was responsible for assessing levee bank construction activities.

I sent a copy of the letter to Mayor Pennisi on 8 September 2022. I followed up with an email on 11 October 2022.

As far as I am aware there has been no meeting between representatives of SDRC and the landholder who erected the levee bank.

I simply cannot understand why Mayor Pennisi and CEO Burges will not take this matter seriously.

I urge all Allora citizens to contact the Mayor, Councillors and the CEO to demand action. I also urge you to contact our State MP and the State Minister for Resources.

We are running out of time.

Yours Sincerely,
John Ellwood, Allora

Cut The 'Bull' - Not Cattle Herds

Shadow Minister for Northern Australia, Senator Susan McDonald has warned the Federal Government to cut the "bull" and not the national cattle herd ahead of signing up to an international methane reduction agreement.

News that New Zealand's Government was planning to tax farmers for the methane produced by their cattle has sparked fears among Australian producers that Federal Labor would follow suit.

Northern Australia's beef industry is worth an estimated $6 billion and employs thousands of stockhands, truck drivers, feedlot workers, abattoir workers, butchers, fodder producers, veterinarians, and fencing contractors to name a few.

The Australian dairy industry contributes an estimated $4.7 billion annually to the national economy and also employs thousands of people.

Senator McDonald warned that any move against cattle and sheep herds would be met with fierce resistance, especially from Northern Australia's $1.35 billion live cattle export sector which supplies much-needed beef to South East Asian countries.

"No one believes Labor when they say there are no plans to cut our national herds. Signing up to an international methane agreement is just the first step, it opens the door to future action," she said.

Senator McDonald said attacks on methane emissions ignored the contributions made by herbivorous and ruminant feral animals.

Currently, there are an estimated: 400,000 feral horses; 2 million deer; 13.5 million pigs; 2.3 million goats; 1 million camels; 200 million rabbits; and 150,000 buffalo.

Kangaroos - of which Australia has an estimated 42.8 million - were also found by American scientists in 2015 to emit about 27% the amount of methane produced by cattle.

"To lay the blame for methane and nitrous oxide gases from urine solely on beef cattle and other commercial herds is just pure laziness. Any limitations placed on our meat and dairy producers will have disastrous impacts on farming families, small businesses and consumers who will pay more for meat and dairy," she said.

Allora Bowls Notes

WEEK 7 - The weather God frowned on us once again, cold and windy but at least it was not raining. A night for coats and beanies but an odd few braved the wintry conditions with shorts and thongs. I noted a rather subdued lot of players thinking who am I going to write about tonight when low and behold Ken decided he didn't want to bowl on Rink 5 with his bowl ending up on Rink 7, have seen bowls veer into the next rink but not over two. It didn't take long for the players to exit the green at 9 o'clock for the warmth of the club house.

Results: Rink 1: Phoenix Rising 15 d. Beers, Bowls

& Bitches 7; Rink 2: The Gecko's 15 d. What A Show 8; Rink 3: Pig Lures 20 d. Peaky Blinders 9; Rink 4: Fire Ants 16 d. Railway Hotel 9; Rink 5: The Three Stooges 16 d. Stone Cutters 4; Rink 6: Do It Again 26 d. Generation Gap 8; Rink 7: Doesn't Matter 14 d. Gina's Babies 8 (so proud of my team but great playing from our opposition Glen, Andrew & Brett).

With half the season gone the Leaderboard reads as such: Pig Lures 10; Peaky Blinders, The Three Stooges, Beers, Bowls & Bitches, Railway Hotel, Do It Again, Fire Ants 8; Gina's Babies, Stone Cutters 6; Phoenix Rising, Doesn't Matter 4; Generation Gap, The Gecko's 2; What A Show 0.

Touchers for the night were Michelle, Doug, Nat, Ty, Fiona and Jacquie. Thank you to Right 1st Time Cleaning for your sponsorship.

Our lucky raffle winners were Codie, Ryan, Brett, Lynn P, Gary, Dewy and Russell. Thank you to Railway Hotel, Allora Butchery, Allora Sports Club and Right 1st Time Cleaning for your sponsorship. Troy's number was drawn for the $120 Jackpot but no luck for him. Next week Jackpot $140. Thank you to Tony Morris Tiling for your sponsorship.

Winners on the night were The Three Stooges and Losers Generation Gap.

Team Trophy for next week to be supplied by Phoenix Rising. A big thank you to Ryan from that team who supplies us with such great music to play to each week, quite often hear players saying that they haven't heard some of the songs for years.

Just had a sneaky look at next Tuesdays weather forecast, lets hope it is wrong but whatever see you all back on the green next week.

Maryvale Overwhelm Allora

After a slow start the Warwick Cricket Association 2022-23 season is underway.

Last weekend was actually Round 3 of the new season competition that has had to contend with wet weather washouts and other event clashes, Allora having been limited to one match and Victoria Hill yet to take to the turf.

That single outing saw Allora take on Maryvale at Warwick Cricket headquarters Slade Park on Sunday with the Maryvale outfit securing winning honours in a match where both sides were short on numbers.

The Maryvale line-up of six players rallied with an impressive 4 for 186 over their 40 overs overwhelming the nine of Allora who managed a total of 70.

Maryvale's opener Andrew Ryan (51) and a walloping 77 by classy number three Michael Bourke laid the foundation for the convincing 116 run win.

Allora bowlers Jake

Meddleton (1/38), William Ole (1/22), Alex Strike (1/21) and Luke Duff (1/29) all pocketed wickets.

Opener Tim Kajewski carried his bat for Allora with 34 not out, while Alex Strike contributed 14 off 12 balls and Stewart Henderson a total of 13.

Andrew Ryan (2/13), Kevin Bourke (2/14) and an impressive 2 wickets for no runs of just three balls by Lachlan Stace accounting for Allora tail enders, saw Maryvale assert their authority over their opposition batting line up.

Victoria Hill forfeited their scheduled match at Allora's Keith KO Masters Memorial Oval Victoria against the Redbacks on Saturday, the majority of the team attending the wedding of club stalwart Nick Morris and new wife Lyndsay.

It's feet up for Victoria Hill this weekend with a bye Round, while Allora meet Wheatvale this Saturday at a venue to be decided.

Looking Back...

Allora's Past 50 years ago
October 1972

THANKS from HOLMES & CO.

We wish to say thank you to all concerned who assisted us with the cleaning up of the shop property which was destroyed by fire.

Our special thanks to those who loaned tractors, trucks, bulldozers, end loaders, and to the drivers of these machines, and also to the Shire Council for making their equipment available.

We have opened a temporary office next to H. W. Stay & Sons premises for the purpose of handling accounts and we would appreciate early settlement as this will assist us with the insurance company.

Fancy Dress Ball

The committee of the Allora State School arranged a most successful fancy dress ball in the Central Hall. The attendance of children in fancy dress was larger than for some years past. Approximately 100 were in costume. Parents and others also attended in large numbers.

Some of the prize winners were: Best set of four, Glenice Crothers, John Mason, Monica Mason, Bevin Crothers (bridal party), Marie Smith (Hawaiian girl), Glennie Smith & Ken Muir (Scotch lassie and lad), Raymond Holmes (devil), Betty and Owen Crothers

The fire which destroyed Holmes & Co. store on the corner of Warwick and Herbert Streets on the 13th October 1972.

(Princess Elizabeth and Phillip Mountbatten), Laurie Ward (good-night boy), and Delma Dippelsman (butterfly).

Football

On Saturday last the 'Wallaroos' (Warwick premiers for the season just completed) played a match with the Allora 'Rangers' on the local Show Ground which ended in favour of the Allora players by 40 points to nil. The gate receipts are to be handed to the Warwick Ambulance. It was unfortunate that the match was arranged at such short notice, which undoubtedly affected the takings. A sum of approximately £12 resulted from the match.

Fire

A fire broke out in the Commercial Hotel owned by Mr. F. Kates and occupied by Mr. John Basford, and but for its timely detection, would have resulted in great devastation. It appears that a lodger had been smoking in a room on the first floor and sometime after he had left the room, Mr. John Holmes noticed a window curtain in flames, and immediately gave the alarm. Prompt assistance was given and the fire subdued before it got a hold of the wood. Considering our primitive arrangements to battle fire, had the flames gained a firm hold, the destruction of several prominent buildings would have been inevitable.

Orchestra Concert

On Saturday 15th October Mum and I went to QPAC in Brisbane for the Queensland Symphony Orchestra (QSO) concert which was called Beethoven and Dvorak. There was a special guest violinist and conductor whose name was Guy Braunstein. Mr Braunstein conducted Beethoven's concerto in D for violin and orchestra and also played the violin solo part from memory. Then there was a short interval and when the orchestra came back they performed Dvorak's 8th symphony conducted by Mr Braunstein. My favourite piece was Dvorak's 8th symphony which was also Mum's favourite piece from this concert. After the concert we had to rush back to Stanthorpe so that Mum could perform at Heritage Estate Winery Degustation dinner. Dad looked after William and Amelia all day but he was also working.

Allora Golf Notes

Finally the weather allowed us to play golf in both the Friday and Sunday competitions. As well as that, we welcomed a very good number of social golfers to the course over the weekend.

On Friday, Kev won the duck run with 21 points from Errol with 20 points. Willy won the long drive, Errol won the long putt and the NTP was a clean skin.

Sunday we played for the Ty Gardner Concreting Monthly Medal in near perfect conditions for golf. We saw a three way tie on net 68 with Baz winning in a countback from Rod with Moba in third place. Thanks to Ty for his generous support.

Players through to the second round of the matchplay are John E, Brooke, Mark, Aaron, Macca, Hethe and Baz. We will extend the cut-off for the first round by another fortnight due to the continued wet weather but please play as soon as possible.

Next Friday will be the Duck Run and Sunday the Allora Butchery Four Ball Best Ball Stableford. Congratulations to our popular golf members Nick Morris on his marriage on Saturday and Tommy Morris on the birth of his baby daughter. See you on the links.
