Jim Anderson Re-Elected ADHS President

The Annual General Meeting of The Allora and District Historical Society Meeting was well attended with only one member of the executive changing hands.

President Jim will be supported by the Secretary Wendy Free, Treasurer Kaye Mullins and newly elected Vice President John Ellwood.

The main topic of discussion at the meeting was the rejection of the previously sought Grant to relocate the Drayton Street museum to the site of the main Allora Museum in Warwick Street.

It was disappointing for the Society as one major Museum would benefit Allora as well as reduce the cost of running two facilities. But never say never as the Society will try again next year.

Jim Anderson (President), Wendy Free (Secretary), Kaye Mullins (Treasurer), John Ellwood (Vice President).

Big Blue Picnic - Part of Mental Health Month

The Zack Lockes Flock will be hosting a Big Blue Picnic as a mental health month activity next month in the grounds of St Mark's Church Warwick. The Big Blue Picnic is a fundraiser for Beyond Blue and will incorporate the official opening of St Mark's Blue Garden.

This special project by St Mark's aims to offer a beautiful, relaxing blue community space of peace, reflection and remembrance and to provide a safe and beautiful area where friendship and hope can flourish within our community.

Monies raised on the day will go towards a very special sculpture to be included in the Blue Garden. This sculpture, once completed, will feature brightly coloured leaves, which can be purchased by community members to be etched and placed on the tree in remembrance of loved ones who have died by suicide.

The Big Blue picnic will commence at 12.30 on Sunday October 8 with beautiful, easy-listening music up until the official opening, then followed by a wide variety of music from jazz to folk and musical theatre.

Take along your blankets or chairs with your own picnic basket and favourite drink or pre-order a ready prepared picnic box.

Picnic spots can be secured by a donation of $10 (or more if you wish).

Donations of $50 or more will secure you half a dozen homemade cupcakes to enjoy. And for those wishing to donate $100 or more Zack Lockes Flock will set up an amazing picnic space as well - all you have to do is BYO picnic basket and drinks!

To find out more or to book a picnic spot go to Zack Lockes Flock Beyond Blue Big Blue Table finding host Zack Lockes Flock on facebook. You can also pay on the day.

Rural Aid ready to help farmers as El Nino declared

Australia's most trusted rural charity is encouraging farmers to reach out for assistance as the Bureau of Meteorology officially declares an El Nino event.

The El Nino weather pattern means hot, dry seasons that trend towards drought.

Rural Aid CEO John Warlters said the Bureau's announcement confirmed many producers' fears.

"This announcement of the El Nino weather pattern will bring a lot of unwelcome memories to the surface for our farmers, who've been anxiously watching land and waterways dry up," Mr Warlters said.

"Thousands of farmers are already managing their land with a view to drought, but this announcement makes that approach all the more important."

"The past drought was regarded as the worst in living memory for the majority of the country, and it's understandable that many farmers are scared of going through that again," Mr Warlters said.

"We're encouraging farmers to reach out and register with Rural Aid now."

"We've already seen a huge increase in requests for emergency hay and household drinking water from farmers right across the country," Mr Warlters said.

"In the past four months, requests to Rural Aid for emergency drinking water have increased by 240 per cent, and our free water tank offer was exhausted in just four hours with more than 95 applications. We're aiming to deliver another 50 water tanks by the end of this year to meet demand."

"Rural Aid helps farmers with hay, drinking water, financial assistance, counselling and volunteers; all at no cost to our primary producers, thanks to the generosity of the Australian public and our corporate partners."

"I'm encouraging farmers who are finding themselves overwhelmed to give our rurally-based counselling team a call for a free chat, to make sure they're in the best possible position they can be to take on the upcoming seasons," Mr Warlters said.

Primary producers are urged to register online at www.ruralaid.org.au or by calling 1300 327 624.

Rural Aid's counsellors can be reached at 1300 175 594.

State Pony Club titles

Terri Johnstone and Shelby Turl.

The Millmerran Pony Club was the host for the 2023 Pony Club Queensland State Championships this week.

The Championships were staged across four days, at the Millmerran Showgrounds.

The National School Futsal Championships are being held this week in Brisbane at the Entertainment Centre. Allora P-10 State School Sports captain Claire is competing and has already scored a goal in her first game.
