Council survey on water usage under way

Residents receiving phone calls about a Council water usage survey need not be alarmed - it is a legitimate Council survey. Mayor Ron Bellingham said that under Strengthening Basin Communities Grant funding, Council has commissioned Local Government Infrastructure Services (LGIS) to prepare a Water Savings Plan for Council's water infrastructure.

"As part of this project LGIS has commissioned a professional survey company to do phone interviews with both residents and businesses about household or business water usage behaviour and will assist with future planning for water supplies," Cr Bellingham said.

"The information from the surveys will be used to develop demand management measures specific to our community." In total there will be 500 surveys done, 300 residential (now completed) and 200 businesses with participants drawn from Allora, Warwick, Killarney, Stanthorpe and Wallangarra. Residential surveys got under way on the weekend with business surveys to commence later this week.

Cr Bellingham assured residents and business proprietors that the information and opinions provided will be used for research purposes only. The survey takes about 15 minutes depending on how many questions apply to the household or business. Council thanks residents who have participated in the survey to date. For more information on the water usage survey, contact Rose Coburn on 4681 5529 or by email on rose.coburn@southerndowns.qld.gov.au.

Letter To The Editor...

Dear Editor,

Everyday somewhere in the world families are torn apart without a second's notice, by war, armed conflict and disaster. For some, as they run for their lives without a moment to look back, it is the last time they will be with the people they love most; for the fortunate ones, perhaps decades later, they will meet again.

August marks Missing Persons Week (1 to 7 August 2010) – a reminder of the hundreds of thousands of people who are right now searching for missing loved ones. August 30 is another significant day for the world's missing, International Day of the Disappeared.

Australian Red Cross' International Tracing Service, which uses Red Cross contacts and resources in more than 180 countries, works to restore links between families who have been ripped apart by armed conflict, war and disaster. Red Cross' mandate of neutrality and impartiality helps Tracing caseworkers access information in even the most difficult circumstances.

The distress of separation and the uncertainty of not knowing if your loved ones are even alive can be devastating and debilitating. Separated families can suffer feelings of grief, isolation and helplessness.

Tracing provides comfort to broken-hearted parents and children, and a flicker of hope for reunification. About two-thirds of our cases are resolved – though sadly the news is not always good. There are many more missing out there.

You can help support work reconnecting families separated by war, conflict or disaster by making a donation to Australian Red Cross. For more information visit www.redcross.org.au or call 1800 811 700.

RIRDC Rural Women's Award Creates Opportunities

"The RIRDC Rural Women's Award is a life changing opportunity that opens up a positive and powerful network of like minded rural women and influential people from across primary industries"

That's the view of Australian RIRDC Rural Women's Award 2010 Winner, Sue Middleton, who is encouraging women from throughout the country to give it a go and enter the 2011 Award. Applications for the award opened on 1 August 2010 and rural women are being encouraged to enter themselves or nominate someone they think is ready for a new challenge.

The RIRDC Rural Women's Award is Australia's pre-eminent Award that recognises and encourages rural women's contribution to primary industries, resource development and rural Australia.

"The Award has a huge value add, not only are you exposed to many new networks of key and influential rural women and people across primary industries, but it gives you the resources to follow your dreams and do something positive and proactive for primary industries and rural people," Ms Middleton said.

Acting Managing Director of RIRDC, Craig Burns, said that for more than ten years, the RIRDC Rural Women's Award has helped rural women take their vision for their business, industry or community to the next level, and in so doing, implement positive change in rural Australia.

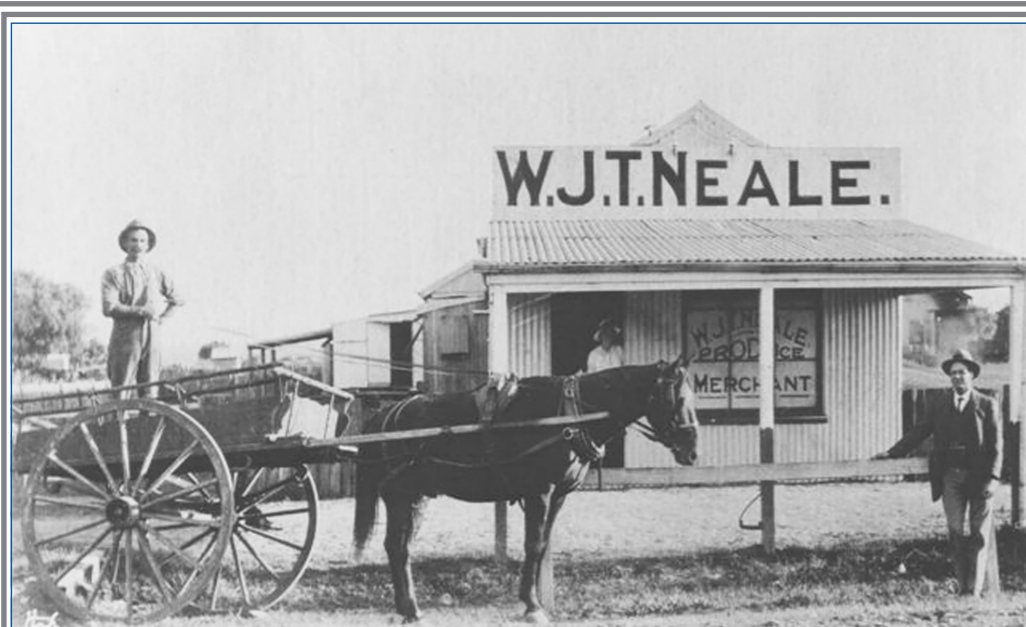

"The Awards provide an invaluable opportunity for Australia's hardworking and inspirational rural women to take that next step and make a real and lasting contribution to the future of rural Australia," Mr Burns said.

The Award is open to all women involved in primary industries, including broad-acre farming, intensive livestock, cropping, horticulture, fisheries, forestry, new and emerging plant and animal enterprises, Indigenous rural enterprises, natural resource management and related service industries.

The 2011 Award provides a Bursary of $10,000 for each state and territory winner to support their professional development and contribution to primary industries. The winner and runner-up in each State and Territory are also invited to attend the Australian Institute of Company Director's course.

The Australian RIRDC Rural Women's Award Winner and Runner-Up are then selected to represent the Award, RIRDC and rural women on a national platform.

The Award is an initiative of the Rural Industries Research and Development Corporation, in

A New Departure

Mr. W. J. T. Neale advises the public of Allora and District per medium of our columns, that he intends in future, to carry on as a produce dealer and general commission agent on his own account.

Mr. Neale has become well and favourably known through his connection with the firm of Henry Dean & Sons, and this will serve as the best possible introduction to him as a businessman operating his own concern. Mr. Neale, moreover, further advises that he will still continue to act as a buyer for Dean & Sons as before, and that he can be found at the old address- near the railway gates.

We wish him every success in his new line of action.

Over the years our community has supported many events and projects that contribute to everyday hardships that many people face. This year we are supporting the Winter Appeal and are asking for community members to donate blankets. These blankets can either be dropped at the door on the way into the event or passed onto the St Vincent De Paul centres or the school.

On an international level, we are also donating to The School of St Jude in Tanzania, where local woman, Sarah Henry is currently working and experiencing life in this part of Eastern Africa. Like Sarah, her family and many other individuals, organisations and schools across our country, we at St Patrick's became, 'Friends of St Jude'.

The School of St Jude, for those of you who don't know, was founded in 2002 by Gemma Sisia (nee Rice). Gemma was born and raised near Armidale. After school and university she travelled to Eastern Africa as a volunteer. Gemma works and travels tirelessly to raise money for the school. Her dedication is awe inspiring and truly inspirational.

Gemma is educating under privileged children to not only help and support their wider family, but these students will be the future adults who will break the poverty cycle and make huge changes in Tanzania.

They say charity begins at home, but we can also be taught valuable lessons by helping those so far away.

If you are unable to join us on the night then please consider visiting www.schoolofstjude.co.tz to see how you can help Gemma, help the world's children. A free DVD with Gemmas "Australia Story" is also available from the school.

Funding available for community arts projects

Regional Queensland artists could receive between $5,000 and $30,000 for their projects as the Australian Government continues to invest in the future of the arts in the state.

Round 2 for the 2010 Regional Arts Fund (RAF) is now open, with applications closing on Friday 13 August for projects commencing after 1 January 2011.

Communities, artists and organisations from all over Queensland have experienced positive outcomes from successful RAF grants, with projects delivering meaningful and lasting outcomes that strengthen cultural identity, develop artists and build community cohesion.

Last year, the Fund injected over $380,000 into regional Queensland communities, contributing a total project value of over $1,184,567 to the state's regional arts economy.

The nine projects that received funding in the first round for 2010 included a wide range of art forms, from mosaic workshops to creative skills workshops, a community music magazine anthology, Indigenous arts, new media, percussion master classes, theatre and multimedia. The Regional Arts Fund is an Australian Government initiative to support the arts in regional, remote and isolated Australia. RAF is managed in Queensland by Queensland Arts Council, on behalf of the Department of the Environment, Water, Heritage and the Arts (DEWHA). The Regional Arts Fund is a unique form of funding for Queensland as it finances a diverse blend of community cultural projects across the entire breadth of regional Queensland, including its remote and isolated communities. The Fund is designed to operate as a long-term investment in these regions to support sustainable, community-related cultural development.

If you are interested in applying, please see the Queensland Arts Council website at www.qac.org.au for guidelines and application forms, phone (07) 3846 7301 or email info@qac.org.au

Applications called for Arts funding

Applications under the first round of funding are being called for the Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF) program, with $40,000 being made available by Council to support the program in 2010/11.

Southern Downs Regional Council RADF Committee Chair, Cr Mally McMurtrie is full of praise for the long-standing Queensland Government and Council partnership.

"The RADF Program, established in 1991, is a highly successful state and local government partnership that supports professional artists and arts practitioners living in regional Queensland," Cr McMurtrie said.

"The types of grants that have been supported in the past or are eligible for support include visual arts, writing, heritage, individual professional development,

Cr McMurtrie is urging professional artists, arts workers, cultural workers, project coordinators, professional emerging artists, community groups and organisations within the region, looking for possible funding for one-off short term projects, to get their applications in.

"These projects must offer professional arts, cultural and heritage opportunities and assist with skill development within the community," Cr McMurtrie said.

The first round of funding will close at 5pm on Thursday, August 27. Application packages are available from Council Offices, Art Galleries, and Libraries in Warwick and Stanthorpe, or by telephoning Sue Organ on 4681 5524.

Applicants should be aware that projects should not commence prior to approval being granted by the RADF Committee and Council, and that grant monies will not be available until after the approval process is finalised.

Be alert for Southern Downs Regional Council rates scanning problem at Aust Post

Day one of the rates period for Southern Downs Regional Council got off to a shaky start with the detection of a printing error on 2010/11 rates notices.

Council has issued an alert to residents paying through Australia Post outlets, to ensure they are paying the correct amount on their rates notice.

Mayor Ron Bellingham said that an error by the Brisbane-based printing contractor has resulted in the bar code for

The Mayor highlighted that the problem only affects payments made at Australia Post outlets. Residents are also able to make payments through Council offices, Warwick Credit Union branches, via Bpay, the internet, and by credit card.

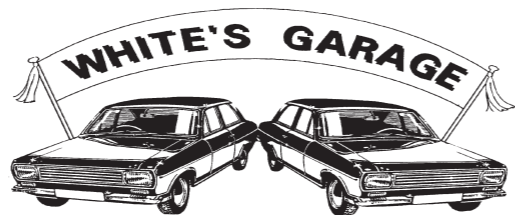

Enquiries should be directed to Council's Customer Service Team on 4661 0300 (Warwick) or 4681 5500 (Stanthorpe).

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

A male crab met a female crab and asked her to marry him. She noticed that he was walking straight instead of sideways. Wow, she thought, this crab is really special. I can't let him get away. So they got married immediately.

The next day she noticed her new husband walking sideways like all the other crabs, and got upset. "What happened?" she asked. "You used to walk straight before we were married."

"Oh, honey," he replied, "I can't drink that much every day."

Toowoomba bypass key to south-west's wealth

Building the Toowoomba bypass is the key to unlocking the wealth of south-west Queensland, according to the RACQ. The state's peak motoring organisation is seeking commitments from both the Federal Government and the Opposition to provide "critical mass" funding for the bypass as part of an overall upgrade package for the Warrego Highway. RACQ president Richard Pietsch said the highway "ticked all the boxes" for upgrading through the current government's State Infrastructure Fund, announced in the federal budget specifically for infrastructure servicing resource industries. "We also note previous undertakings from the Opposition to fund the bypass and call upon them to honour that promise, should they be elected to government," Mr Pietsch said. "Providing a safe, efficient road transport link to the emerging Surat Basin coal seam gas industry alone justifies greater investment in the Warrego Highway. "The concerns were confirmed by last year's RACQ regional highways inspection tour, which found that maintenance and infrastructure upgrades had not kept pace with the increasing demands placed on the Warrego Highway." Mr Pietsch said the significant traffic volumes and high percentage of heavy vehicles warranted widening of the Warrego Highway to a least a nine-metre standard, duplication in some areas, and the removal of hazardous roadside objects. "But the region's primary producers have an even longer-standing cause for complaint over the steadily deteriorating highway and lack of bypass around Toowoomba's increasingly congested streets for trucks and other through-traffic," he said. Mr Pietsch said the next Federal Government needed to bite the bullet and commit serious, project-starting funding to the much-delayed Toowoomba bypass, recognising that traffic volumes would not support its being fully financed through tolls. "From a strictly commercial perspective, the bypass will probably never stack up," he said. "Therefore we need a Federal Government that is prepared to take the wider economic view of the benefits the bypass would bring to the entire region - and commit sufficient funding to help it finally become a reality."

“Warriors” Mauled in Clifton “Tiger” Hunt

The “Queensland Farmer’s Warehouse”

Wattles “Warriors” first grade side were well beaten on Sunday in a match they were looking to win to work their way out of premiership wooden spoon calculations. The visiting Southern Suburbs “Tigers” dominated the second half to win convincingly 40 – 10 after both sides were locked at 10 all at half time. The “Tigers” emerged fully charged for the second stanza after receiving Coach Peter Thorpe’s half time encouragement, scoring after four minutes of play and then running in six unanswered tries. Souths are one of only two teams that have finished ahead of premiership heavyweights Valleys this season, and are placed two slots out of the final five currently.

The “Tigers” drew first blood in Sunday’s game at Platz Oval, with a try in the sixth minute to take an early 4 – 0 lead. Wattles were on the scoreboard and leading midway through the half when their backline clicked into action, clever five-eight Tim Hentschel sending Scott Murdoch into a gap and away for the initial “Warriors” try. Back rower Brady Glass converted for Wattles to edge ahead, 6 – 4. Souths returned fire soon after to lead 10 – 6, but the “Warriors” snatched a touchdown with some classy play as the halftime hooter sounded. Brady Glass fired a gem of a cut out pass to find powerful running winger Justin Van Der Poel who cruised through from ten metres out to score the try in his first grade debut.

The scores were balanced at 10 apiece at the break, and Wattles appearing well in the match, however Souths found another gear after halftime to which the “Warriors” had few answers. Tim Hentschel was among Wattles best across the park, trying to engineer his sides attacking options, while Scott Murdoch continued his exciting form with the ball of late, an ever present danger to the opposition. Brady Glass had a strong around game in Wattles forward pack, as did lock forward Luke Miller. Wattles did exceptionally well really to perform as they did in the first forty minutes, given ten of their seventeen man line up had played in Reserve Grade due to a lack of numbers.

Southern Suburbs 40 (Josh McDonald 2, Hayden Lip, Paul Guiffrida, Heath Farlow, Jae Laing, Zac Smith, Andrew Olm tries; Daniel Cubby, 2, Hayden Lipp 2 goals) defeated Wattles 10 (Scott Murdoch, Justin Van Der Poel tries; Brady Glass goal).

Wattles “Railway Hotel, Allora” Reserve Grade side powered to an impressive win over Southern Suburbs, scoring six tries to three in the 32 – 12 scoreline. Coach Ross

Wattles’ clever five eight Tim Hentschel fires a pass away as he is about to be claimed by a defender while team mate Xavier Manley watches on, in Wattles 40 - 10 loss to the Southern Suburbs “Tigers” at Platz Oval.

Hentschel was very pleased with the “big effort” by his charges, considering a less than suitable preparation. Wattles victory was built on a mighty defensive effort with fullback Justin Van Der Poel leading the charge with his devastating tackling. While Souths posted the first try for the match in the fifth minute, Wattles claimed their first points after five-eight Scott Murdoch busted through soon after. Murdoch doubled up to score again in a brilliant maneuver beating defenders with ease, as half time approached. Wattles held a 12 – 8 advantage at the break, and while Souths leveled the game early in the second stanza, Wattles dominated the second half of the game to win well, coach Ross Hentschel and Nick Pasterfield also contributing tries. Murdoch won player of the match honours for Wattles on the back of his three try effort, while front-rower Alex Holihan was in impressive form while also shouldering the Captaincy responsibilities.

Wattles 32 (Scott Murdoch 3, Ross Hentschel, Brady Glass, Nick Pasterfield tries; Brady Glass 2, Will Manley, Scott Murdoch goals) defeated Southern Suburbs 12 (Kyle Athorn, Andrew Stokes, Matthew Eilers tries).

end of a one sided result as the "top five" performers Souths ran in eleven tries powering to a dominant 60 - 6 winning result. # BOWLS

Allora Bowls Club -

Upcoming events for bowls club members: NOTE - The annual Allora-Clifton clock trophy day is to be held at Clifton bowls club on THIS SUNDAY, 7th August commencing at 12.30pm - apologies for any confusion due to the previously advertised date. Our bowlers are the current holders of this trophy and we require 18 players to attend this event (must be financial club members). A bus will leave the Allora bowls club at 11.30am.

We also require 4 players to attend the Clifton men's fours carnival to be held on Sunday 15th August. This is a reciprocal arrangement and we need to attend. Our own club is intending to hold a social bowls day open to all and sundry at the end of August - keep your eyes peeled on following bowls notes for more information. Please contact Andrew or John on 4666 3290 between 8.00am-5.00pm week days if you would like to play in any of the above events. It is also crucial to let us know if you have made any prior arrangements with any clubs in relation to team nominations.
