Allora Bowls Club -

The Annual Genral Meeting of the Allora Bowls Club was held on Saturday 13th February.

Unfortunately, the position of President was not filled thus resulting in all official positions remaining unfilled at this date. A motion was passed that 2 representatives attend the district Annual General Meeting in 2 weeks and present the situation to that body. A meeting of the Allora Bowls Club will be held on Monday, 1st March commencing at 7.30pm. At this meeting feedback from the District meeting will be tabled and the future direction of our club will be discussed. Please attend this meeting as all members need to be aware of the situation that now faces the club. Social night bowls will continue next Tuesday, weather permitting. Sports Club Patron's Day will be held on Saturday, 6th March - golf / bowls - commencing at 1 pm. Please support this event.

Allora Golf Notes 14-2-10

Last Sunday we played for the Commercial Hotel Monthly Mug. The winner with a nett score of 63 was Max Bielefeld. The runner up with a 64 was Billy Murdoch.

This Sunday the club is travelling to Clifton to play in the 19th hole day. There is a shotgun start at 9.30 with names in at 9.00. Our Monthly Medal will be postponed one week to the 28th of February.

On Saturday 6th March the Allora Sports Club will hold the annual patrons day. This will consist of 9 holes of golf in the afternoon with night bowls following. This will be a great day out for all and so organize your team for this event.

Bigger and better 4x4 and fishing show planned for Brisbane

With news the 2010 Brisbane Tinnie and Tackle Show and National 4x4 and Outdoors Expo will be expanding to accommodate more exhibitors, fishing and camping enthusiasts are sure to be making tracks to Brisbane's RNA Showgrounds on March 19-21 for the sixth annual collocated event.

Since 2005 the two events have been held alongside each other to create a one stop haven for fishing and four wheel drive enthusiasts, with hundreds of exhibitors and educational sessions showcasing the latest products, services and techniques for the angler and camping fanatic.

Jason Plant from Marine Queensland, organisers of the Brisbane Tinnie and Tackle Show, said this year's event is expected to be bigger than last year's bumper show.

"The Brisbane Tinnie and Tackle Show and National 4x4 and Outdoors Expo together make the largest show of its kind in Queensland," Plant said, "The event caters for all levels of boaters with the latest tinnies, alloy plate boats, recreational fishing gear and outdoors products on display."

"Since first collocating with the National 4x4 and Outdoors Expo six years ago, the event has gone from strength to strength and last year 31, 644 people attended the show.

"This year will see the return of some of the successful aspects of the Brisbane Tinnie and Tackle Show including the Bream Fishing Tournament and the Kids Fishing Clinic which will both be improved to cater for larger audiences."

National 4x4 and Outdoors Expo Event Manager, Mark Petersen said the off-road component of the event will also have a number of improvements including the Off-Road Action Arena which will feature some new attractions.

"We've been working hard to find some new attractions for the Off-Road Arena and will be making an announcement in the New Year about an all new 4x4 Show which will be making its debut at the Brisbane event," Petersen said.

"This year we have also expanded the footprint taken up by the four wheel drive aspect of the event and as a result there will be an additional 1,500 square metres dedicated to exhibitors who will be showcasing the latest developments in the off-road market.

"A number of the exhibitors who have signed up for the event have already indicated that they will be offering some massive

The swimming baths were opened by the Allora Amateur Swimming Club with a swimming carnival on Wednesday afternoon last. The attendance of the townspeople on the occasion was excellent and included a large number of ladies. The entries in the various events were very satisfactory. As referee, Mr. A. L. H. Cooke gave every satisfaction, as did judges, Messrs. W. Lilley, J. Flynn and R. L. Jackson. The starter, Mr. A. A. Cameron, did his duties in an able manner and the course stewards, Messrs. Jos. Burge and R. M. Corden did the job to satisfaction. At the conclusion of the programme the prizes were presented to the successful contestants by the Mayoress, Mrs. H. Ludgate amidst hearty cheers.

Bev O'Halloran joins Great Endeavour rally teams to begin fundraising challenge

Allora's Bev O'Halloran has joined more than 200 intrepid adventurers, including 20 teams from Toowoomba and nearby towns, who have already signed up for this year's Great Endeavour Rally and are out in their communities raising funds and publicity for the iconic event.

This year, competitors will traverse 3,500 kilometres of territory, leaving Burleigh Heads on the Gold Coast on July 13 and finishing (hopefully!) at Bargara Beach, near Bundaberg on July 22.

They will visit some of the most beautiful country and coastline northern New South Wales and south-east Queensland has to offer.

Again, their position on the grid will be determined by the funds they raise. The ultimate aim is reaching pole position as the highest fundraiser, so they can have first go at the rugged and often water-logged terrain.

Funds raised go towards helping Endeavour support people with a disability in Queensland and New South Wales. The goal is to smash last year's fundraising record of $400,000.

A new entrant this year in the Great Endeavour Rally and Cruise, Allora's Bev O'Halloran, said she was excited by the challenge of having an all female crew.

"But along the way, there's a great deal of fun and camaraderie and at the end of the day, we are raising money for a very important charity.

"And, of course there's the softer option of the Great Endeavour Cruise who would like to be part of this marvellous event and enjoy some of Australia's most amazing scenery but who would prefer not to leave the beaten track."

Anyone who wants a taste of the Great Endeavour, including those who have been before and want to experience the fun all over again, can join in the One-Day Fun Day and Reunion Party at Kilcoy on Saturday, 20 February.

You can find out more at www.greatendeavour.com.au or by calling Endeavour's Special Events Manager Col Clifford on 07 4616 9312.

Agricultural investment opportunities to be revealed
Southern Downs' business people will have the opportunity to examine openings for future agriculture investment at a seminar in Toowoomba next week. Attendees will be able to explore the location, size and value of each major agricultural industry across Southern Queensland. They will also uncover industry trends and what is driving them, opportunities for further business development, and the challenges confronting each industry. Council's acting Economic Development Manager, John Randall, is encouraging all Southern Downs agriculture investors, either existing or potential, to participate in the event. "Agriculture in the Southern Downs has always been at the forefront of change," Mr Randall said. "Our various primary industries have had to adapt to a range of challenges including a 10 year drought, climate change, a high Aussie dollar, not to mention the havoc caused by feral animal pests such as wild dogs and flying foxes." Mr Randall said that while there have been challenges, there have also been many positive advances such as improvements in crop selection, animal genetics, irrigation techniques and improvements in the supply chain process. "But there is one thing for sure, nothing stands still, and especially so for agriculture, so I strongly urge all those producers with an interest in future investment to attend the seminar," he said. Industries which will feature at the seminar include beef, sheep and goats, wild game, feedlotting, poultry, grains, legumes, pulses, horticulture and wine. The seminar which is being co-ordinated by the Department of Employment, Economic Development and Innovation will be held at the DEEDI Conference Centre, 203 Tor Street Toowoomba on Monday February 22 from 8.15am.
