Wattles five eight Travis Downie halts the progress of Newtown "Lions" opponent Mitch Koina at Newtown Oval on Sunday, with assistance from centre Matt McCarthy and halfback Xavier Manley while front-rower Jason Nightingale looks on. Newtown were to slick for the "Warriors", winning convincingly by 68 - 24.

"Warriors" Mauled in "Lions" Points Fest.

Newtown "Lions" electric centre Robert Clevens showed his abundant class touching down for five tries on Sunday as his side dealt Wattles "Queensland Farmer's Warehouse" "A" Graders another severe blow in the 2010 Toowoomba Rugby League Premiership, with a 68 - 24 victory. The "Lions", who lead 28 - 14 at half time, ran in twelve tries to Wattles five, and cut loose in the second half scoring forty points to Wattles ten. After nine premiership Rounds the "Warriors" have four premiership points to their credit on the competition ladder, and without winning results soon could sink to the bottom of the ladder. An encouraging start to the season saw them post a healthy 30 - 12 win over Oakey at Oakey, a week after putting up a very strong showing against premiership heavyweights Brothers in the "Dan Ryan Memorial Trophy" match. Since then the "Warriors" have yet to taste victory with losses against Southern Suburbs, Goondiwindi, and premiership front runners Valleys and Warwick.

Newtown ran in three tries on Sunday to lead 18 - 0 before Wattles halfback Xavier Manley crossed to open the "Warriors" account in the 22nd minute. Back rower Jesse Keys followed up with another try minutes later to have his side trailing 18 - 8 and back in the game. Luke Miller added further to Wattles total on the cusp of half time, both sides going to the break with Newtown holding a 28 - 14 lead. The "Lions" stretched their lead to 40 - 14 before five eight Scott Murdoch touched down for Wattles. Hard running centre Matt McCarthy also added to Wattles total with a try in the 59th minute. Coach Cameron Hamblin was frustrated with the fact his players were creating opportunities, but execution of plays that should lead to points are letting them down. Regardless of the score, he was happy enough with his side's performance, he thought the effort was Almost 3,000 citizens want chaplaincy program to continue

Almost 3000 people have sent a message to the Rudd Government: Commit to keeping the National School Chaplaincy Program going.

Last week in Parliament, Federal LNP Member for Maranoa Bruce Scott presented a petition with 2,964 signatures that called for the Federal Labor Government to continue funding the National School Chaplaincy Program beyond 2011, and at its current level of $165 million over three years.

When speaking in Parliament, Mr Scott said the program had been very popular in Maranoa, and the petition had received a positive response.

"The National School Chaplaincy Program has been an enormously popular program across the nation and it has certainly been embraced in my electorate of Maranoa. In fact, we had an overwhelming response to this petition with some 2,964 signatures. This is the second highest number of signatures received on a petition that I have presented on behalf of my constituents in Maranoa," Mr Scott told the Parliament.

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank the many church leaders and groups in my electorate – schools, individuals and families – who signed this petition and passed it around their communities.

"I call on this Labor Government to take notice of this petition and I hope that they will heed the message from these almost 3,000 people and continue funding this very important and essential program in its current form," he said.

Mr Scott also said that the Coalition has already promised that, should it be elected, it would continue funding the program beyond 2011 in its current form.

A driver was stuck in a traffic jam on the motorway. Nothing was moving. Suddenly a man knocked on the window.

The driver rolled down the window and asked, "What's going on? What's the hold-up?"

"Terrorists have kidnapped Kevin Rudd, Tony Abbott and Bob Brown.

"They're asking for a $310 million ransom; otherwise they're going to douse them with petrol and set them on fire.

"We're going from car to car, taking up a collection."

The driver asked, "How much is everyone giving, on average?"

"About a litre."

Dave's Delectable Dish... Lamb Chops with Feta, Tomato and Asparagus

INGREDIENTS

8 -12 lamb chops or cutlets
2 bunch asparagus, trimmed
2 tbsp olive oil
2 tbsp lemon juice
12 cherry tomatoes, quartered
1/3 cup of crumbled feta cheese wedges of lemon, new potatoes and green salad to serve

Serves: 4

Preparation time: 5 minutes

Cooking time: 12 minutes

METHOD

Place the lamb chops and asparagus in 2 separate dishes; pour the combined olive oil and lemon juice over both. Season with salt and pepper.

Preheat the barbecue flat-plate or char-grill plate to hot before adding the lamb.

Cook on one side until the first sign of moisture appears. Cook lamb chops for 3-4 minutes on each side for medium or until done to your liking. Turn lamb once only. Test the lamb for degree of doneness with tongs. Rare is soft, medium feels springy and well done is very firm.

Remove lamb from heat, loosely cover with foil and rest lamb for 2 minutes before serving. While the lamb is cooking, add the asparagus to the barbecue and cook for 4-5 minutes until golden and tender. To serve place the lamb and asparagus on plates, scatter the cherry tomatoes and feta over the top.

TIPS

- When you barbecue don't turn the meat too often, the rule is - turn meat once only. Use tongs never a barbecue fork to turn the meat, piercing the meat with the fork will drain the juices from the meat onto the grill or barbecue plate.
- Best lamb cuts for barbecuing: lamb eye of loin/backstrap, tenderloin/fillet, loin chops, chump chops, cutlets, lamb steaks (round or topside).

Looking Back...

Allora's Past 100 years ago June 1910 Allora State School Removal to be Accomplished

The following letter addressed to Mr. Francis Grayson M. L. A., and which has been handed to us for publication by that gentleman, cannot fail to be of interest:

Sir,
With reference to previous correspondence on the subject, I have the honour to inform you that the Minister's approval of the erection of new State school buildings in Allora on the new site of 5 acres 6 perches, and that the Works Department has been requested to take the necessary action in the matter.

The estimated cost is as follows, new school building £1,020; asphaltting £95; new residence £488; fencing £360; total £1,963. The erection of the new buildings will depend on the expenditure being approved by Executive Council. The present site will be surrendered to the Crown for sale by public auction when it is no longer needed for school purposes and the present school buildings will be sold.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. D. Story,
Under Secretary.

The following paragraph appeared in the next edition of the Allora Guardian:

New State School

Pursuant to the letter recently received from the Education Department by Mr. Francis Grayson M. L. A., and published in the Guardian, tenders are invited by the Works Department for the erection of a new State school building in Allora, on the site adjoining the Recreation Reserve.

Peculiar Accident

An unusual happening took place on Monday last. An employee of Mr. W. Clarke was driving three horses in a cart and was engaged in collecting the cream from the Forest Plain district for conveyal to the Allora butter factory. On the road near Abernethy's a stoppage was made for the purpose of picking up a cream can. One horse commenced to kick, another joined in, and finally the whole team bolted. After knocking down several posts in the fence alongside the road in its wild progress, the cart capsized and two of the horses freed themselves. The animal which had remained attached to the cart dropped dead and a second horse died a few hours later. An examination by a veterinary surgeon revealed the fact that the first horse had died from a rupture of the heart, and it is believed that exhaustion was supposed for the death of the second. It was rather a sensational happening and one attended with considerable monetary loss to Mr. Clarke.

Australians avoid flu shot over fears it will make them sick

Nearly one in five Australians will not get the flu shot this year, because they incorrectly believe it will give them the flu according to the GlaxoSmithKline (GSK) Health Index released this week.

The latest GSK Health Index surveyed 1006 Australians investigating their attitudes and behaviours regarding flu and found Australians are not only skipping the shot because they incorrectly think they can get the flu from it, but 40% don't see it as a priority, and 38% don't believe in the flu shot.

"This is one of the most common myths associated with the flu shot," said Dr Camilla Chong, Medical Director at GSK. "The fact is you cannot get influenza from the flu shot because the virus contained in it cannot cause infection."

"The mild flu-like symptoms people experience after a flu shot (such as some soreness and redness at the site and mild fever or aches) are, in fact, the signs that your body is hard at work mounting a response to protect you against the influenza virus," she said.

The survey also found men could be left out in the cold this winter with one in five women admitting they are prepared to kick their partner out of bed if they have the flu. 73% of Australian women are likely to avoid kissing if they have the flu and 61% avoid intimacy. Men reported avoidance rates of 63% for kissing and 47% for intimacy.

These results suggest women may be more pro-active in taking steps to reduce the likelihood of spreading the flu virus. This is particularly important in the first two to three days after flu symptoms first appear because this when the virus is most contagious.

Survey finds Darling Downs continue to amass high-energy appliances

Queenslanders are making inroads into cutting their energy use, but according to a major new survey, comfort and lifestyle factors are still winning out in the battle to save electricity.

New research shows 20 percent of regional Queensland residential customers say they have tried to reduce their household energy use after receiving bill comparison information with their electricity bill.

However the state-wide Household Energy Survey conducted by research firm Colmar Brunton for energy companies Ergon Energy, Powerlink Queensland and Energex shows Queenslanders face a major challenge if electricity use is going to be reduced significantly.

The Household Energy Survey found Darling Downs householders are among the most likely in the State to ensure they have the best tariff option, take shorter showers, switch to energy efficient light bulbs, hang the washing on the line and pay more for energy efficient appliances to cut electricity costs and consumption.

The Ergon Energy survey found 62 percent of Darling Downs households have air conditioning (compared to 74 percent of homes across the state), with 1.6 split systems per house. A further 25 percent plan to buy an air conditioner within the next five years. It found 41 percent of air conditioned Darling Downs homes have an air conditioning unit in the master bedroom and 45 percent run it overnight. The survey also found:

- 34 percent of Darling Downs householders set their air conditioners to the most efficient temperature all or most of the time.
- 20 percent of Darling Downs homes have no insulation and 8 percent of householders don't know if their home has insulation or not.
- 32 percent of Darling Downs households have energy-saving bulbs in all lights and 38 percent plan to get CFL bulbs in all lights.

- One in five Darling Downs householders believe they already use electricity as efficiently as possible.
- One in five Queenslanders want more information to understand what peak demand and electricity tariffs are and how to manage use and save money.

Ergon Energy Manager Regional Services Dave Heberlein said: "Queenslanders are taking up energy-consuming appliances at a faster rate than taking up energy-saving appliances. They are using them in peak times more than half of the time and have a low willingness to change their behaviour.

"This means the peak demand use could worsen quite significantly unless major change occurs amongst Queensland households."

Save money while staying warm this winter

With plummeting temperatures heralding winter's arrival in South West Queensland, Ergon Energy is urging its customers to think smart to keep warm and save money.

Manager Regional Services Dave Heberlein said while keeping warm in winter could be expensive, there were ways for customers to save on energy costs without sacrificing comfort. "People are sometimes surprised at the jump in their energy bills over the winter months," Mr Heberlein said.

"But by using their energy sense and following simple tips such as closing curtains, checking for draughts, blocking gaps or cracks to stop heat loss and dressing to keep warm, they can make a huge difference."

Mr Heberlein said installing the right type of insulation, especially in the ceiling, and weather stripping gaps on windows and doors could cut heating costs by up to 45 per cent.

Customers should concentrate heating to a few frequently-used rooms, such as living rooms or kitchens, and spend time in those comfort spaces.

He said on sunny days, customers could save by turning off the heater, opening the curtains and letting the sun in.

Other smart winter ideas include:

- covering large glass windows with curtains, which can cut heat loss through windows by up to 70 per cent;
- washing clothes in cold water rather than hot wherever possible;
- switching off heating appliances when no one is home to save

Practice online safety, says Telstra

With seniors and other first time internet users more likely to fall for online scams, Telstra is reminding older Australians and new internet users in southern and western Queensland of the easy steps they can take to stay more secure online.

Telstra's Officer of Internet Trust and Safety, Darren Kane, said "with older Australians embracing the online world, the 2010 National Cyber-Security Awareness Week was a timely reminder for seniors and first time users to adopt safe and secure online behaviours.

"Silver surfers' find the internet appealing for the same reasons younger people do: to stay connected with family and friends, find online bargains and to get information. However, according to Telstra's online shopping site Trading Post, many of these users are unaware of internet based scams so are more likely to encounter cyber-crime.

"So there's a few simple tips we encourage everyone to follow, to help ensure their online experience is safer and more enjoyable," Darren said.

Tips for staying protected online:

- Use your common sense. If an offer, scheme or sale seems too good to be true then it probably is.

energy and for fire safety;

- using an old-fashioned door runner to reduce draughts and keep the heat in;
- lowering heater settings. For every degree in the 15 to 21 degree range that you lower the setting on your heater, you save about five per cent on heating costs.

Mr Heberlein said when it came to buying heaters, it was important to consider options before making a quick decision.

"Bar radiators are great for instant heat directed at concentrated areas, but may not be suited to heating entire rooms," he said. "Heaters with thermostats need to match to the size of the area to be heated. If they are too small for the room, they will run constantly and cost you money.

- Be wary of emails, phone calls or SMS messages from unknown sources asking you to update, validate or confirm your account details, password or personal information.
- Be careful about what information you disclose about yourself and others online.
- Make sure you have a back-up plan. It is a wise idea to keep a backup copy of all your important online information in case anything goes wrong.
- Change passwords at least twice a year. Passwords should be completely random and unique, but still memorable. Try using numbers and letters.
- Be careful about talking to people you meet online. Not everyone is who they say they are.
- Ward off viruses. Install an antivirus program on your computer and keep it up to date.
- Think before you click on links or attachments from unknown sources.

Telstra County Wide Area General Manager South East and West Queensland, Nigel Beaman, said Telstra had committed in excess of $3 million to a Connected Seniors® program over three years, tailored to help older Australians learn about how to use mobile phones, the internet and stay safe online. Back to Back wins in the Broncos Cup Final

The Allora State School's B Grade Rugby League team won the major final of the Broncos competition on Monday May 24. The team won every match in the competition which started in March, defeating Goondiwindi, Warwick and Stanthorpe State High Schools as well as Assumption College and Inglewood/Texas and St Joseph's - a fantastic achievement for a small school.

The B Team overcame the loss of Matthew Denny who was injured in a club match on the previous weekend. Allora State School has combined with Killarney State School as part of this competition. It is a very good effort for our boys and the Killarney boys to win this the second year in a row. While they have good individual skills and dedication to their rugby league, combined training sessions are not possible because of distance.

The boys played very well to defeat Warwick High in the Final, 16 points to 14. It was a very good effort to defeat a much bigger high school to become Broncos champions for another year. Mr Peter Cavanagh volunteered his time, attending all matches and assisted Mr Roy Nott with coaching throughout the season. Mr

B Grade Football Team - Back: Nicholas Morris, Ben Ranger, Brodie Sharman, Matthew Denny.
 Middle: Charlie Parker, Connor Falconer, Tom Higgins, Thomas Ryan.
 Front: Cory Fogarty, Josh Sharman, Joe Morris

Cavanagh's continued support of Rugby League at Allora State School is very much appreciated.

Remember your pets as the big chill hits

Winter is upon us and vets are encouraging pet owners to spare a thought for their furry friends over the coming months. Dr Graham Swinney, President of the Australian Small Animal Veterinary Association says that there are a number of things we can do during the winter months to help our pets to cope with the weather.

- Make sure your pet has somewhere warm to sleep, free of drafts and protected from the elements.
- It is best not to leave your pet outside when the temperature drops, especially dogs with short-hair, older dogs and puppies. If possible try to find them somewhere cosy to sleep indoors for the winter months.
- Just like humans, pets with arthritis can find their condition playing up at this time of year. If your pet seems to be having trouble climbing stairs, standing or sitting, it might be worth visiting the vet as they can advise you about treatments available.
- During the colder months some pets are likely to need more food as they burn more energy to stay warm, particularly dogs with short coats.
- If your dog is in a kennel outside make sure it has plenty of bedding and that the entrance to the kennel faces away from the wind.
- If it gets really cold it's important to remember to ensure that pets have clean unfrozen water available at times.
- Bad weather and shorter days can make regularly exercising your dog more difficult but it's important keep this up throughout the winter months.

More information and advice about helping your pet to cope with the winter weather is available from your local veterinarian, Warwick and Allora Vet Clinics.

there and improvement in general play. While a little short on valuable match experience, Wattles must maintain intensity if they are to threaten opponents. A bonus on the day was uncovering Scott Murdoch's ability at five-eighth. Murdoch, a speedy winger of late, filled in the number "6" jersey and posted a "Player's Player" performance. Murdoch's rugby league resume shows he has experience in the halves, and his effort on Sunday has seen him retained in combination with Xavier Manley. If fit to play, usual five eighth Tim Hentschel, who missed the Newtown match with injury, will slide to the centres where the team will benefit significantly from his natural speed and elusiveness. Hamblin continues to be impressed with young Under 18 back Travis Downie who played his second "A" Grade game against the "Lions". His defence on the wing is solid, and he is proving a very reliable player given the pressure Wattles are under in recent games. New starts Harry Brodie and Josh Johnstone were not out of place in top grade playing hooker & second row and will add much to Wattles player ranks. Special mention also to utility forward John Blaine who went forward at every opportunity and flu stricken Luke Miller who was solid throughout.

Newtown 68 (Robert Clevin 5, Aaron Hooper, Robbie Witt, Wade McGahan, Kane Williams, Brandan Purcell, Mitch Hannant, Mitch Koina tries; Wes Murray 5, Robert Clevin 4, Brandan Purcell goals) defeated Wattles 24 (Matthew McCarthy, Luke Baker, Scott Murdoch, Xavier Manley, Luke Miller tries; Brady Glass 2 goals).

Newtown also claimed the match honours in Reserve Grade, the "Railway Hotel, Allora" "Warriors" defeated 54 - 12 after Newtown led 36 - 0 at the break. The home side opened the scoring when fullback Corey Blades touched down in the fourth minute, with the tries coming then at regular intervals over the first half. Wattles fired back in the second stanza with tries to Harry Brodie in the fourth minute, followed by another by Alex Holihan soon after, and bustling front-rower Daniel Ross charged over in the corner from ten metres out five minutes from full time. Captain Coach and former Wattles player Rob Woodbridge was in fine form in the "Lions" threequarter line, scoring three tries.

Newtown 54 (Robert Woodbridge 3, Corey Blades 2, Kevin Appo, Daniel Blades, Myles Appo, Lucas McKenna, Jake McMahon tries; Aaron Blades 5, Robert Woodbridge 2 goals) defeated Wattles 12 (Harry Brodie, Alex Holihan, Daniel Ross tries).

The "Allora Foodwork's" Wattles Under 18 side put up a strong challenge to Newtown, the Under 18 premiership undefeated leaders, however, despite a very committed effort, they eventually lost 40 - 22. The "Lions" crossed for the first try through former South West "Mustangs" representative second-rower Brandan Purcell after 12 minutes, Wattles hitting back through hooker Mark Duggan to level the scoreboard at 4 all. Liam Ross crossed for Wattles on the verge of half time, with Newtown going to the break leading 22 - 10. Wattles "Player of the Match" Duggan scored again four minutes into the second half, and second rower Tom Lyons crossed to claim a try midway through the half.

Injury is playing havoc in Wattles ranks currently, affecting key players and club depth. Club Captain Aaron Scheid is a

Ladies Indoor Netball -

Last week's winners were: Allsorts, All Saints and Mojo's. This week's draw is: 6.30pm - All Saints v. Chikerboom (Allsorts); 7.30pm - NJam v. Allsorts (Pink Panthers); 8.30pm - Mojos v. Pink Panthers (NJam); Bye - Tiggers.

There has been a little confusion about a couple of the "playing the ball" rules. Rule 10.4 (a) (v) states a player may bat the ball once and then catch it or direct it to another player, and rule 10.4 (a) (vi) states a player may bounce the ball once and then catch it or direct it to another player. This is not replaying the ball.

Thanks to all those scoring and umpiring each week.

Junior Warriors host the Border Bears

The Junior Warriors completed the first round of fixtures with matches against Border at Platz Oval on Saturday.

Flynn Electrical U7's - The try-fest continues for the sevens with plenty scored by both teams this week. Riley Lever 3, Lachlan Meacle 2, Sam Scott 2 and Jacob Meddleton 2 all found the line with great running. Although not scoring tries John Nolan, Jackson Pogany and Ben Willett all played very well this week. The defensive effort is improving and many players making effective low tackles. Players to get amongst the Bears defensively were Meacle, Liam Ruhle, Michael Shingles and Harry McMahon. It was a seesawing game from end to end with the Bears scoring some nice tries which were answered by the Warriors. One was a beauty when McMahon split the defence with a great run and offload for Meddleton to score. Award winners this week were Foodworks John Nolan, Hungry Jacks Jackson Pogany, Red Rooster Ben Willett.

Wattle Brae U8's - The Bears provided stiff opposition and the game was a cracker. Best for the Warriors were Dan Brown, Hunter Hamblin and Caleb Pratt who were always in the action. Joe Willett, Tom Philp and Jack Bashford brought down the runners with some superb tackling. Willett continues to improve with each outing and his tackling is terrific in his first season. Jaedan Ruhle and Darby Peardon in the halves led the team well and new player Zac Balfour is settling in well. Declan Sullivan and Sean Bryson ran the ball elusively often splitting the defence with incisive running. Marcus Obergruben, Jordan Cunningham and Clayton Brady had solid games and it was an entertaining match. Award Winners. Foodworks Marcus Obergruben, Hungry Jacks Jaedan Ruhle, Red Rooster Hunter Hamblin.

Superior Silage U10's - Another improved effort this week from the under tens. They showed their best effort in defence this season and all players were prepared to share the tackling which is great. Nick Blakemore was everywhere in defence and carried the ball forward when the opportunity came playing his best game this season. The mercurial Dylan Hounslow-Cullen scored four superb tries through elusive and determined running down centre field. Jacob Blades at halfback played well always trying to keep the team moving forward which led to tries by Jacob Willett and Nick Blakemore. Darcy Brady and Mitchell Potter piloted successful conversions with good kicks in the conditions. Rory Moat shone with some crunching tackles and is playing really well. The team continues to improve each week and when they start to hold the ball for longer completing more sets they will score more points. Great game guys. Award winners. Foodworks Jacob Blades, Hungry Jacks Nick Blakemore, Red Rooster Rory Moat.

Ryanie for Tyres U12's - The Ryanie for Tyres under 12's ran out winners by 40 to nil playing some great footy. The team had a commanding lead at half time and the very good defence continued in the second stanza. Mason Blades was electric scoring 3 tries. Joe Willett ran in two and James Moore and Paul Christensen one each. Blades' second was the result of a superb Moore offload. Max Rubie was terrific in attack and defence with fellow forwards Nick Gardiner, Moore, Paul Christensen, Nathan Watson and Bill Parry all playing well. The backs played with depth and Lachlan McMahon and Robert Bradfield ran the ball with purpose when halves Liam Duncan and Tom Morris sent the ball wide. McMahon played his best game this season relishing the time spent in the forwards in the second half. Conversions by Blades, McMahon, Duncan, Morris, Gardiner and Christensen rounded out the scoring. Great effort from all players this week. Award winners. Foodworks Tom Morris, Hungry Jacks Liam Duncan, Red Rooster Lachlan McMahon.

Rod Frahm Real Estate U14's - Another win was the result of an all round team performance this week. The lads won 38 to 8 and played some tough footy. Nick Pails until injured, Brodie Sharman and Mitchell Duff were among the Warriors best. Nick Morris and Tom Henry defended very well and were dangerous with the ball. Jason Weidman, Jack Parry and Ben Ranger continue to grow in stature and are important members of the lineup. Duff and Michael Johnson turned the defence around with their strong running and the backs were set alight by Joe Hibberd who is controlling the play well. Jeremy Wright was strong at fullback and darted over for a fine try. Tries were scored by Sharman 2, Weidman, Wright, Henry, Rubie and Parry. Nick Pails joins fellow forwards Jacob James and Mathew Denny on the injured list and we all wish them speedy recoveries. Award Winners. Foodworks Mitchell Duff, Hungry Jacks Jack Parry, Red Rooster Bryan Butler.

CJR Plumbing U16's - The Bears got the competition points winning 30 to 10 over the Warriors. The first half defence from the Warriors was not great and at times simple mistakes proved costly. The second half saw a much better performance with the attack able to create opportunities and the improved defence limiting the Border opportunities. Alex Morris and Dale McAntee scored the tries for the Green and Gold with McAntee's a ripper as he ran onto a well timed pass to give the opposition no chance. Morris's experience from dummy half enabled him to catch the defence napping and dart across. Forwards Jack McAntee, Jarrod Coley, Matt Willett, Jason Wilson and Barry Sutcliffe all had strong games never giving in and being committed to the end. McAntee, Duncan, Michael Duggan and Shaun Way all tried hard in the backs with some enterprising raids the result of better ball control this week. The Bears are a big side and the Warriors had to work hard in defence to stop the momentum. Wingers Brodie Frizzell and Jesse McDougall had sound games with Frizzell doing some good things when the chance came his way in attack and defence. Award Winners. Foodworks Brodie Frizzell, Hungry Jacks Matt Willett, Red Rooster Jesse McDougall.

Fixtures this week are at home against the Eastern Suburbs Hornets to commence the second round. Times will be given out at training on Thursday afternoon. Till next week, run hard and tackle low. GO the WARRIORS.
