The Pipes are calling at "SCOTS Wha Hae" CONCERT

This Friday night SCOTS PGC College will be holding an evening of Scottish music and song for all to enjoy. Pipe Bandmaster, Mr Sandy Dalziel said the SCOTS PGC College Pipes and Drums have worked hard over the last five years learning new material and playing at a high skill level. It is time to reward our players and parents for their dedication in the evolution of the band. "We wish also to display to the wider community these talents in one night as a show, he said.

"It is important to us as a College to promote Scottish culture in the wider sense to show it is accessible, unbiased and provides community spirit. These are prominent qualities of Scottish society past and present. We have therefore invited performances from throughout Queensland in dancing, song, poetry, Scottish small pipes and whistle as well as piping and drumming. We also have included several audience songs to sing along.

We named the concert, Scots Wha Hae (or "Scots, Who Have"). It is a patriotic song of Scotland which served for a long time as an unofficial national anthem of the Scottish soldiers who defended their country against the English at the Battle of Bannockburn in 1314, where Scotland maintained its sovereignty from the Kingdom of England.

We hope to display The SCOTS PGC College Pipes and Drums and wider College as a place that provides holistic and long-term learning experiences, engendering well founded life-skills for students as well as providing opportunities to perfect and display these talents in a community based scenario. Apart from providing great entertainment the Concert will display to our Pipes and Drums team the value of application, perseverance and the rewards of giving to others.

Tickets are available at the office for pre-purchase or can be purchased at the door for $10 adults and $5.00 children. Phone 4666 9811 for further information.

Leading Drummer, Amelia Holmes, Drum Major, Meagan Collins and Pipe Major Nick Tomkins will be performing on Friday evening at the SCOTS PGC College Pipes and Drums Concert.

Cat and dog rego reprieve until December 10

Council is offering a fee-free registration period to the owners of cats to help them comply with compulsory animal registration laws, which come into force on the Southern Downs from December 13.

The fee-free registration period will also apply to dogs from outside the settled area of the former Warwick Shire. Under state legislation all cat and dog owners, with the exception of genuine working dogs, are now required to register their animals with Council.

Acting Manager Environmental Services, Jeanette Davis, said Council approved free registration for a period of almost two months to help pet owners comply with the new laws.

"Until December 10, all cat registration is free, as well as registration for dogs kept outside the settled areas of the former Warwick Shire," Ms Davis said.

"From December 10 until June 30 2011, only desexed cats, as well as dogs kept outside the settled areas of the former Warwick Shire, will receive free registration."

Ms Davis said that it is the responsibility of cat and dog owners to register their pet with council to ensure the safety of their pet and the community. Registration compliance is regularly checked both in public areas and residential areas to ensure that pet owners are taking their responsibility seriously.

Most recent statistics show that 3404 dogs are registered in the Southern Downs. In the month of August, 58 dogs were impounded, with 19 released, 32 destroyed, 7 sold and 7 still in the pound at the close of the reporting period.

"If your pet is lost, a council registration tag allows easy identification and return of your pet," Ms Davis said.

"Registration also helps reduce the number of feral and stray cats and dogs and their effect on the environment and native fauna."

To register cats or dogs, residents should visit the nearest council office or phone the Customer Service Team on 4661 0300 (Warwick) or 4681 5500 (Stanthorpe).

Enquiries on new cat/dog registration obligations should be directed to Council's Environmental Health Department.

Southern Downs REGIONAL COUNCIL

Registration of Cats & Dogs

Under the Animal Management (Cats & Dogs) Act 2008, the Southern Downs Regional Council now requires residents to meet new State registration obligations for cats and dogs from 13 December 2010.

In line with its strong commitment to responsible pet ownership and animal welfare, the Southern Downs Regional Council is offering the following incentives for free cat and dog registration:

CATS
 Until 10 December 2010 the registration of ALL cats is free.
 After 10 December 2010 the registration of DESEXED cats only is free (entire cats $40.00).

DOGS
 Until 10 December 2010 the registration of all dogs that are kept within the former WSC area but outside the settled area is free.
 Between 10 December 2010 and 1 July 2011 the registration of DESEXED dogs that are kept within the former WSC area but outside the settled area is free.

Enquiries on new cat/dog registration obligations may be directed to Council's Environmental Health Department by telephoning 4661 0300 (Warwick) or 4681 5500 (Stanthorpe).

SCOTS PGC College students Caillum Coleman, Emma Sutton, Stephen Turnbull and Cassie Murphy don their pink aprons as they get into the spirit of the Pink Ribbon Breakfast to be held next week.

Pink Ribbon breakfast

The SCOTS PGC College will be hosting a Pink Ribbon breakfast on Wednesday, October 27, in the Des Davey Dining Hall, East Street, Warwick, commencing at 7.30am.

The function, the brainchild of Mr Greg Wacker, Head of Boys' Boarding, is being organised by a group of 24 Year 10 students, headed by Lucinda McDougall.

What is a Pink Ribbon Breakfast? It's a get together for friends, family and workmates to have fun, celebrate the achievements of breast cancer research and to raise funds for further research. Did you know that one in nine Australian women are expected to be diagnosed with breast cancer in their lifetime.

We probably all know of someone who has been touched by cancer and by participating in this breakfast we can all do a little something to help find the cure.

Several members of the group have very personal reasons for being involved in raising money for breast cancer research. Shannon Kriedemann's mother is presently in remission after extensive chemotherapy and radiation treatment. Emma Sutton's grandmother battled with breast cancer while cousins Therese Southeron and Ali McMinn have also had family members affected by this insidious disease.

A number of local businesses have kindly donated money, products and services to the cause and the students are hoping that many Warwick and Allora people will attend the breakfast and support their venture. Throughout the morning there will be a series of raffles, giveaways and lucky door prizes with all monies raised contributing to essential breast cancer research. An enjoyable time for a very good cause is assured. Tickets are $10 and are available from the main office at Oxenham Street. For any enquiries, contact Greg Wacker 0437 699 840

Must See TV!
Be watching "Offspring" this weekend, Sunday 24th October at 8.30pm on Network Ten to see local acting star PAUL DENNY make an appearance as "Sam". Our intrepid sources tell us this appearance is one of many in the weeks to follow, so stay tuned!

BAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

Doug was describing a 30-pound bass he'd caught recently, after fighting it for three hours.

Bill interrupted the story saying, "I saw the picture you took of that fish. You're lucky if it even weighed 10 pounds."

Doug replied, "Well, a fish can lose an awful lot of weight during three hours of fighting!"

Mosquitoes on the march

Mosquito populations in the Southern Downs region are on the increase following recent rain events.

Mayor Ron Bellingham said that mosquitoes pose a potential health risk to residents as they transmit diseases such as Ross

River Virus and Barmah Forest Virus.

"Council environmental health officers have been inspecting and treating known mosquito breeding areas within the region, but residents and businesses also play an important role in controlling mosquito populations by stopping mosquitoes from breeding in their own backyards," Cr Bellingham said.

"Mosquitoes breed in water and are most abundant in water containers and rubbish holding water, so by removing any accumulated water sources around your home or business you are also removing potential breeding sites for mosquitoes."

Council suggests residents and business owners take the following actions to help stop mosquitoes from breeding in their backyards:

Empty pot plant saucers often or fill them with sand to absorb any water.

Regularly empty all containers (buckets, bird baths, pet drinking water containers, tyres) and other objects that may hold water and wipe out the containers to remove mosquito eggs.

Ensure water tanks have screens that prevent mosquito access.

Keep swimming pools well chlorinated or salted and free of accumulated leaf debris and empty wading pools after use.

Remove leaves and debris from roof guttering regularly.

Remove weeds, grass and debris from the edges of dams and other waterways.

For further information on mosquito control, contact Council's Environmental Health Officers on 4661 0300 (Warwick) or 4681 5500 (Stanthorpe).

Sport in Allora

The sport of horse racing was carried out in the Allora district from the very early days. A meeting was held in Mrs. Fraser's "Taylor's Reef Hotel" at Pratten in February 1866 to organize the Talgai Races. The 150 acre Allora Racecourse Reserve was gazetted in August 1871. Race meetings were held on an irregular basis, and in August 1883, the Allora Municipal Council was appointed trustee of the reserve.

Mr. Joseph Clarke called a public meeting on the 6th October 1888 at his father-in-law, Samuel Gordon's Princess of Wales Hotel, for a formation of a club to organize racing in Allora on a more regular basis. The Allora Jockey Club was formed with Mr. Hurtle Fisher Esq. (Headington Hill Station) as president. The first registered race meeting was held on Boxing Day 1889, the main race being the Allora Turf Club Handicap with prize money of 25 sovereigns. Over the next 46 years horse racing in Allora had more revivals than Bart Cummings has had Melbourne Cup winners.

Because of the siting of the track, wet weather caused the postponement of many race meetings. The cancellation of the 1891 meeting saw interest wane in the district until the club was reformed in May 1893. Interest again lapsed and in 1895, the St. Patrick's Day races were for unregistered horses only with H. G. Deacon as committee secretary. The Boxing Day race meeting in 1895 was organized by the revived Allora Jockey Club under the secretaryship of Michael O'Connor. The next fourteen years saw regular registered meetings organized by the A. J. C.

The Allora Amateur Race Club was formed in 1909 with Edwin Cowley as secretary, and ran the Boxing Day races in 1909 and race meetings in 1910. The Oddfellow's Amateur Race Club was formed in 1911, but the A. J. C. was again revived in 1912. The war years saw restrictions on horse racing in Australia and "Patriotic Race Meetings" were held from 1916 to 1918. The Allora Digger's Race Club was formed in 1926 and organized race meetings for a short time.

1929 saw the revival of registered race meetings in Allora after a twelve year break. The main race at the September 1929 meeting, organized by the A. J. C., was the Allora Handicap won by F. W. Grimes' "Miss Semirg" (spell backwards).

By 1934 racing enthusiasm had again waned and the Allora Shire Council said that they would only spend accumulated funds, if race meetings were held at more frequent intervals than those since 1930. The final editions of the Allora Guardian in 1934 contain advertisements for a seven event race programme organized by the Allora Jockey Club for November 1934. Charlie Fogarty was club secretary.

The Central Downs Polo Club was formed at a meeting held in the Royal Hotel, Allora, on 17th February 1891. Mr. H. Fisher (Headington Hill) was elected the first president. Mr. Robert Cooke was vice-president, starting a dynasty of the Cooke family's involvement with polo on the Downs. Allora's first match was against Toowoomba, at Toowoomba, in April 1891. The match drew 350 spectators and Allora was represented by Anderson, Robinson and the Philp brothers. Amazingly the Philp brothers rode from East Haldon to Allora for practice and matches.

By 1899 polo clubs had been formed at Spring Creek and Pilton. Pilton, represented by J. McKinstry, C. Cooke, G. Hall and V. Graham, defeated Spring Creek, (G. Saal, A. Dougall, J. Wellingerhoff, and C. Gillam) 2 goals to 0.

The Allora Polo Club was revived in 1921. The club's first match was against Nobby and consisted of H. W. Stay, Jerry Collins, G. H. "Bony" Clarke, and T. Telford. The Darling Downs polo competition was organized from Allora in 1922 with teams from Allora, Gladfield, Goomburra, and Spring Creek. Pilton fielded teams from 1923 and West Haldon from 1925. By 1927 Allora did not field a team of its own but Allora players were represented in the other teams of the competition. By this time, meetings of the Darling Downs Polo Association were held at Pilton.

Benedict XVI in St Peter's Square, Rome. Around 150 people joined St Patrick's Parish, Allora to celebrate a festive Mass led by Priest Director, Fr Thomas Areekuzhy. The Eucharist celebration included dancing from the students of St Patrick's School and a gift presentation from the parish to resident Josephite, Sr Clare Vogler. The Allora community has enjoyed a Josephite presence since 1916. The Mass was followed with a Parish Lunch, to commemorate the event.

“QUE SERA SERA” ART EXHIBITION – EMPIRE THEATRE – NOVEMBER 1 – 3 – HOSTED BY TOOWOOMBA WEST SPECIAL SCHOOL.

If the overall success of an event were to be gauged solely on the amount of community support thrown behind its setting up, Toowoomba West Special School's upcoming “Que Sera Sera” Art Exhibition would have to go down as the Garden City's most successful event of 2010.

What was a germ of an idea in late May has grown into a three day event to take place in the Empire Theatre from November 1 – 3.

The generosity of local businesses and a community grant from Toowoomba Regional Council has meant that the school actually has a hope of getting some of the vital equipment they need to enhance the learning experience of their 70 special students!

The small school, which has been catering to children with special needs in Toowoomba for 35 years, finds itself in need of specialised equipment that will never be within its meagre budget. Interactive white boards, which offer children exciting and memorable ways to learn and retain knowledge and, more importantly, instant reward for correct response in the form of music and pictures, cost $8,000 each. The school has two – for 14 classrooms. Sensory playground equipment, similar to that installed in Queen's Park, promotes physical and social development in children challenged by autism, muscular dystrophy and other physical impairments.

The purpose built playgrounds promote fine and gross motor skills and far from simply providing entertainment, children learn about sharing and social interaction and are kept entranced by the tactile nature of the equipment, which includes vibrant colour, sound and touch, but at around $50,000 for what amounts to a “starter” playground, this too will not come from lamington drives – no matter how many the P&C runs!

“Que Sera Sera” Art Exhibition is based on the old Doris Day song and, like parenting, it really is a case of “Whatever will be will be”. Normie Rowe, the Australian Ambassador for the Variety Club, was the first to hop on board and together with Owen Ray and The Countdowns, he will perform in an Auction Night Concert celebrating special children on November 3. Normie has recorded “Que Sera Sera” twice in his long career and will be opening the concert with his rendition of the old further afield. These include a bronze sculpture by Lenore Boyd, of the famous Boyd family of Australian artists and the latest works by the highly sought after Toowoomba artist, Jim Christie, who is coming out of retirement to help the school out. Jim, who credits his meteoric rise in the art world to being Toowoomba Grammar's featured artist over a decade ago, due to ill health, has not painted for seven years and there will be many collectors who will be excited by this news.

Photography by some of Australia's most highly awarded and internationally renowned photographers including Stephen Jones, John Elliott, Doug Spowart, Victoria Cooper, Peter Eastway and Sue Lewis has also been donated for auction. Martin Edge, a young Autistic artist who has been a finalist in the prestigious Blake Prize and has done private commissioned works for Ken Done, will be exhibiting and speaking at the Opening Night and Auction Night. He is a prime example of what can be achieved by children who start life with this challenge.

Visitors to the exhibition website at www.artfortwss.com will see who the other featured artists who donated works are. The centrepiece of the exhibition (which will also be auctioned) will be a commissioned collection of black and white photographs of the children at the school by Toowoomba's Graham Burstow, who most will know as the acknowledged “father of editorial photography”.

“Que Sera Sera” is not only about the children... it is about art and artists.

School Principal, Lea Formigoni, said that art is an expression of who the artist is, the sum of their life experiences.

“Good art is what resonates with who we are and in keeping with this philosophy, all artworks presented for showing will be exhibited”, she said.

“Our children are special, but so are the artists and we want ‘Que Sera Sera’ to be a celebration of what is special in all of us.”

“We want everybody to be able to exhibit and likewise, we feel that everybody should be able to afford to come and enjoy the art experience.

“We don't want to exclude anybody and are asking only a donation as entry for the first two days of the exhibition, including the Opening Night on November 1.

“Even our Auction Night Concert is only $20 for adults, $15 for all concession card holders and $5 for students over the age of 12. Children are admitted free.”

The exhibition opens on November 1, commencing at 6.30pm. The Opening Night features entertainment by Melissa Forbes, Associate Professor of Contemporary Voice at USQ and her students singing Jazz and Broadway numbers.

Young Toowoomba designer, Sarah Walker, will be launching her fashion label “Indigo Queen” at the opening night. Sarah's one off garments have often featured in the fashion and social pages of the Chronicle and have been sold through some of the Margaret Street boutiques over the years.

Benjamin Tupas' eight minute film "Mint" was awarded the Best Cinematography - E camera Stabiliser award in the recent Origin8 Fast Film Festival, held at the Empire Theatre, and will be shown on the night.

Day two of the exhibition, November 2, is Melbourne Cup day and has been designated “Senior Citizen's Day” at “Que Sera Sera”. Nursing home and village residents will be bussed to the theatre, courtesy of Bus and Coach Queensland and Range Charter Coaches for free and will enjoy free morning or afternoon tea. They will be entertained in the artspace by dynamic local entertainers, Suzanne Wale, Victoria Qualischefski, Anna Marangelli, Leisa Jackwitz and Joseph El and, of course, will see the Melbourne Cup on the theatre screens. Of course, the day would not be Melbourne Cup day without a sweep or two!

Children's entertainment will be the feature of the morning session on November 3, with a concert by the Oakey Traditional Dance Troupe, featuring dreamtime stories like how the birds got their colours. There are some real treats in this magical concert including the combination of the didgeridoo and bagpipes as backing for our most iconic Aussie songs! This will commence at 10.30am and although this is predominantly a school excursion event, parents are invited to bring along their preschoolers. The cost of entry is only $5.

Whether it's art, music, film or fashion you like, there's something for everyone at “Que Sera Sera”, but most importantly, your attendance at any time throughout the three day event will help some very special children reach their potential!

See you at “Que Sera Sera”!

Allora Take On "Diggers" at Allora Oval.

For a second successive weekend cricket fixtures have been washed out for the Allora Foodworks Cricket team, with last week's match against Killarney scheduled for Warwick Cricket Association headquarters, Slade Park, failing to go ahead. The Allora Eleven also had their preceding Round 2 match against Sovereign Animals washed out. This week the team are keen to get on the pitch and add to their one win from one outing record. The wet conditions in recent weeks have not seen Allora on an Oval since their 54 run success over "Colts" on October 2nd.

Allora club Skipper Cameron Masters will be an absentee, as will new wicket keeper Aaron Vietheer. Up and coming young talent Brodie Frizzell is unavailable due to his involvement in Darling Downs & South West Queensland junior cricket trials. This Saturday Allora will host "Diggers" at the Allora Cricket Oval, under the leadership of Adam May, play commencing at 12.30 pm sharp.

The Allora team is: Adam May, Steve Hughes, Scott Sparksman, Lauchlan Hoey, Cameron Stevens, Steve Bolzan Sean Coker, Travis McMicking, Jordan Henry, Justin Briggs, Kris McLennan. While the majority of last week's matches were washed out, Maryvale managed to get onfield and defeated Diggers by 7 wickets.

All inquiries to Glyn Rees, 0417 765 801.

Allora Golf Notes 17-10-10

On Sunday we played against the Gowrie Road Hotel sporters club for the annual Terry Masters shield. It was a disappointing roll up on behalf of the Allora sporstclub side but all who played, enjoyed this very social day. In the golf which was played as a 3 ball ambrose, the winners with the best gross score were Drew Slatter Scott Cunning and Rod Simpson. Runners up were the Gowrie Road side of Ray, Plucka and Lance. The final result for the golfing points, which was a ballot style format was 15 shots to 16 with the Home just edging out as victors in the Golf competition. In the bowls it was again the home side who won the points decision of 6 points to 2 points, even with the Gowrie road side of Rossi, Watto and Gaz the victors for the groups. With Kel Strange, Gary Gilmore and their illustrious leader Jim Anderson runners up. So with more points accumulated Allora took out the Terry Masters shield for another year. Congratulations and well done to the winners and all players. Next weeks competition is the Monthly with tee off at 11.30am. All players are welcome to attend but don't forget your sand buckets and remember - to play is to live.

Ladies Indoor Netball -

Winners from last week were: All Saints, Allsorts and Pink Panthers. This week's draw is: 6.30pm - NJam v. Pink Panthers (Tiggers); 7.30pm - Tiggers v. Chikerboom (Mojo's); 8.30pm - Mojo's v. Allsorts (Chikerboom); Bye - All Saints. This is the last game of the final round. Next week the semi-finals will be played and there will be an "A" and a "B" Grade final this season. The top 3 teams will be in A Grade and teams 4, 5 and 6 will be in B Grade. Fiona will be looking after things this week and her help is much appreciated.
